CALL TO ORDER

Speaker Turner called the meeting to order at 12:37PM.

PRELIMINARIES

Council agreed that both special orders should take place during the Preliminaries.

FALL BREAK PRESENTATION: MARIO CONIGLIO

A taskforce has been established to consider all factors of implementing a reading break. It will do a fulsome consultation with stakeholders and present the Provost with a proposal for how to proceed. It will no longer focus on “for” or “against”, but rather what the accommodations and impacts of a break would be.

Faculty have expressed concern about less break between Spring and Fall terms. Councillor Sidharta echoed this concern as well.

Councillor Ramdev voiced concerns that have been brought up by engineering students. These concerns include the shortening of orientation week, more weekend midterm exams and visas for international students. Mr. Coniglio said that if a break were to be implemented, orientation week may have to be reconsidered by all organizers.

Councillor Lolas said that a terms of reference for what a fall break is should be developed. Mr. Coniglio suggested that Councillor Lolas put that on the next Senate Undergraduate Council agenda.
Councillor McCready suggested that academic content could be offered by first year instructors during the first classes on the first Thursday and/or Friday of classes. Mr. Coniglio agreed with her suggestion.

WATERLOO WORKS PRESENTATION: STEPHANIE TORTORICI

The University is currently customizing Waterloo Works. Feedback is generally positive. Some new features include one free “no rank” per work term and a work term rating system for students. A few councillors expressed concern about making students’ ratings available to employers and how that might cause insincere comments.
