Award Description:
One scholarship, valued at up to $2,000, is awarded annually to an outstanding student who currently lives in or previously lived in Hong Kong and is entering first-year of the Accounting and Financial Management program in the School of Accounting and Finance. Selection will be based on academic achievement, as well as character, initiative and community involvement. This award is made possible by a donation from Boris Bong in memory of his wife, Karen Cheng. Boris and Karen each earned Bachelors and Masters Degrees through the School of Accounting and Finance.

Selection for this award is based on strong academic achievement and candidates must have a minimum admission average of 80%.

Award Requirements and Application Deadline:

- A detailed letter explaining how you satisfy the terms of the award, as stated above in the award description (one – two pages maximum). Provide as much detail as possible and attach additional information as required.
- Deadline: April 30th
- Submit completed application on or before deadline to Student Awards & Financial Aid, 2nd floor, Needles Hall. (If date falls on a weekend or holiday; the deadline is the preceding weekday).

Declaration and Consent:
I authorize the University to release a copy of this application to the award donor, including my academic record and copies of any information attached to this application. I confirm that the information provided on this application, and attached hereto, is complete and accurate in every respect. I understand that Student Awards & Financial Aid will send me notification of the results of this application to my @uwaterloo.ca e-mail address.
