

On exhibit at Waterloo Region Museum to April 29, 2018

WILD WEATHER

*Wild Weather
immerses visitors of all ages in the science of severe weather!*

Wild Weather was developed and produced by Science North in partnership with the Ontario Science Centre.

Connect with us.

Waterloo Region Museum | 10 Huron Road, Kitchener, Ontario | 519-748-1914 | TTY: 519-575-4608

www.waterlooregionmuseum.ca

Wild Weather Talks and Roundtable: Our Changing Climate

A special presentation and roundtable discussion about climate change in the Region of Waterloo and across the globe.*

Thursday, March 22, 2018, 7 to 9 p.m.

Participants

Dr. Christine Dow
Assistant Professor,
Department of Geography and
Environmental Management,
University of Waterloo

Dr. Chris Fletcher
Associate Professor,
Department of Geography and
Environmental Management,
University of Waterloo

David Roewade
Sustainability Specialist, Region of Waterloo

Dr. Johanna Wandel
Associate Professor,
Department of Geography and
Environmental Management,
University of Waterloo

**This presentation includes entry to the new Wild Weather exhibit that immerses visitors of all ages in the science of severe weather.*

Reserve your ticket now by calling 519-748-1914. General admission and membership discount applies.
MasterCard, Visa, and American Express accepted. Seating limited. No refunds.