

Bamberg Summer School

24 July – 29 August

Source: Flickr (Kadege59)

Topics

- Academic
- Financial
- Travel and housing
- Other

- GER 201: Berliner Platz 2 neu
- GER 202: Berliner Platz 3 neu
- GER 299: Experiential learning (e.g., reflections on everyday life in Bamberg and on excursions to Coburg, Nürnberg and Würzburg)

Giechburg

Würzburg

Daily schedule for Bamberg Summer School

- Section 1: Morning classes (3-4 contact hours per day with University of Waterloo instructor)
- Lunch break
- Section 2: Afternoon classes (3-4 contact hours per day with University of Bamberg instructor)
- Evening: Free time and cultural events (e.g., theatre and museums)

Spring Term Course Load

- Don't enrol in more than 2 courses – together with the 3 intensive courses that makes a full load of 5 courses
- You won't be here for the examination period
- It is your responsibility to arrange for an early exam date – we can't help you with other departments/faculties.
- If you take online courses, the exam can be proctored by a UW instructor in Bamberg

➤ Program fees

1. + or - 990 Euros
2. Due end of May
3. International money transfer directly to the University of Bamberg
4. Remember to take bank fees and exchange rates into account.

➤ Stork Awards

1. $500-$1500 (to be paid most likely in June)
2. Write a thank you letter to your benefactors at the Waterloo Center for German Studies when you return (German or English).
3. Attend a gathering in Fall where the Stork donors will be present.

Travel and Housing

Fly on Sunday 22 July

Arrive on Monday 23 July in Frankfurt. Take train to Bamberg (2-3 hours).

Week 1: hostel-style accommodation at a Bamberg hotel (3 or 4 students per room).

Week 2-5: single rooms at the University of Bamberg student residences. Access to shared kitchen and refrigerator.

Other

- Internet access on campus
- Free transportation within Bamberg
- Visiting student card gives you access to the student cafeteria (i.e., lunch starting at 3 euro)
- We will update you as we receive more information.

Application

- Application on Waterloo Passport
- Deadline 1 March
- Title of program: University of Bamberg Summer School