Public Events and Resources

Sovereign Acts: Curator's Talk

"In Sovereign Acts, the artists Rebecca Belmore, Lori Blondeau, Dayna Danger, James Luna, Shelley Niro, Adrian Stimson, and Jeff Thomas, contend with the legacy of colonial representations. Drawing on the depiction of the imaginary Indian—the ahistorical, pre-contact 'primitivism' in popular and mass culture—they recover and construct new ways of performing the complexity of Indigenous cultures for a contemporary art audience."

Feb 7 - All Day
University of Waterloo Art Gallery
ECH 1239
Further Details @WaterlooEvents

Velocity Start: Ain't No Model Like a Business Model

"Learn how to create a lean business model canvas"
Feb 7 @7:30 pm,
SCH 2nd Floor
Register @VelocityStart

Design and Deliver I: Presentation Essentials

"Preparing and delivering dynamic presentations takes practice. Explore how to organize your information, create powerful visual aids, and connect to your audience."
Feb 8 @10am
Register @Writing and Communication Centre

Embracing Ambiguity to Manage Wicked Problems in the 21st Century

"In an era characterized by 'alternative facts', deep uncertainty may be increasing. This talk will introduce the burgeoning field of decision-making under deep uncertainty and its relationship to design thinking."
Knowledge Integration Seminar
Vanessa Schweizer
Feb 2 @ 2:30pm
EV3, Room 1408
Further Details @KnowledgeIntegration
RESOURCES

THEMUSEUM’S DIGITAL ARTS EXHIBIT

‘You are inside, and the digital world spins around you’
Kitchener
Read about the interactive installation @TheRecord

MAKING SENSE OF MEDIA BIAS

Just how partisan is the press, and should the public be worried?
Read more @Knowable Magazine

Recent Scholarly Work on Populism

