Welcome to the Grebel Community

As you make the exhilarating leap into life at the University of Waterloo (Waterloo), we invite you to live or study with us at Conrad Grebel University College (Grebel). Expand your horizons, challenge your world view, and discover who you are!

Live at Grebel

Grebel is home to a blend of 142 Waterloo students from first to fourth year. Approach the next stage of your life in a warm and supportive atmosphere, surrounded by a network of friends and classmates. Friends, fun, and fantastic food await you at Grebel!

Learn at Grebel

Grebel is a place to explore new ideas and make interesting connections. Grebel hosts the Peace and Conflict Studies, Music, and Mennonite Studies departments at Waterloo, and teaches courses in History, Religious Studies, and Sociology.

Be Bold
Be Creative
Be Passionate

Stretch your boundaries!

Grow, learn, and challenge yourself in our enthusiastic residence and academic community.

Come for a Visit

Fall Open House
- Saturday, November 4, 2017

March Break Open House
- Saturday, March 10, 2018

You @ Waterloo Day
- Saturday, May 26, 2018

Being part of the amazing Grebel community helps me to balance my life, come out of my shell, and relax. I’m so happy I decided to live here!

RYAN

See what else our students love about Grebel by visiting uwaterloo.ca/grebel/meet-students Welcome to your home away from home! Here you’ll find an environment that nurtures and supports you, plus friendships that will last a lifetime.

Grebel is an amazing place to live and learn at the same time. With students from 6 faculties, the community is vibrant and diverse. Inspired by the Christian Mennonite faith tradition, students from all backgrounds are welcome to live here. Imagine your life at Grebel!

ROOMS
- Lots of natural light with big windows
- Make the room your own with modular furniture
- Bring whatever makes you feel at home, such as extra furniture, plants, and games
- Desk, dresser, bookshelf, single bed, and wardrobe
- You’ll share this space with a roommate

HOW DO I APPLY TO LIVE AT GREBEL?
APPLY NOW!
1. Complete a Grebel residence application
2. Participate in a Grebel residence interview. Eligible students who apply by May 20 are guaranteed an interview.

The basic residence cost, including a full meal plan for 2017-2018 was $5,415 per term. For more detailed pricing, visit: uwaterloo.ca/grebel/fees.

NOTE: Applications will be received until Grebel residence is full.
FACILITIES
From Grebel’s careful community matching process to welcoming orientation week activities to the upstairs-downstairs culture of inclusion, there are tiers of ways to transform people in our friendly residence!
GET INVOLVED
Get ready to make memories of a lifetime. Wherever your interests, Grebel and Mennonite have a club for you! Step across campus, interact, and play sports. Long after Grebel’s doors are no longer your primary avenue for late-night pizza, donuts, jam sessions, game marathons, and long drives. It’s Grebel for life.
STAY SAFE
At Grebel, you’ll be set up for success as you cope with the stresses of community life. Our food plan has lots of healthy options to choose. When you need a study break, work out with friends in Grebel’s in-house gym. Nurture your spiritual side at weekly chapel service. Take comfort in Grebel’s fun and respectful atmosphere.
BE SUPPORTIVE
Grebel is a place where you will be known and where there will always be someone to talk to. With dedicated support staff and residence dons, Grebel’s fun and respectful atmosphere. The professors at Grebel studied the Bible, question theology, and learn about the role of faith traditions and global understanding, and community and culture. These are principles that will help you succeed in whatever vocation you pursue.
LIVING-LEARNING COMMUNITY
Engage more deeply with PACS and Music, and get the most out of your first year at Waterloo. Both academically and socially, Grebel is a whole way of living and learning tradition.

STUDY HARD
LIVE WELL
HAVE FUN
MAKE FRIENDS
COMMUNITY
ACADEMIC
PEACE AND CONFLICT STUDIES
- Explore how ethics is meaningful in today’s world through a flexible program that combines theory, performance, history, and global studies. While gaining new insights into culture, technology, film, gender, psychology, and more.
- Study ethics in a supportive environment whether you’re major or minor in ethics, take a course, or just participate in an ensemble.
- Personalize your experience by focusing on one of five current research areas and getting to know your classmates, faculty, and staff.
- Experience ethics in one of our three courses, four instrumental groups, or one of our two world music ensembles. Take private studio lessons or more than 50 instruments or for voice.
- Graduates excel in a variety of careers including public, private, and post-secondary school teaching, performance, tourism, human resource, international delopment, teaching, law, social services, and many other areas.

MUSIC
- Join a music ensemble or studio course to nurture your creative side. Take courses
  that inspire you to change the world.
- Explore how music relates to culture, technology, film, gender, psychology, and more.
- Experience music in one of our three choirs, four instrumental groups, or one of our two world music ensembles. Take private studio lessons or more than 50 instruments or for voice.
- Graduates excel in a variety of areas including public, private, and post-secondary school teaching, performance, tourism, human resource, international delopment, teaching, law, social services, and many other areas.

GREAT STUDENTS from many faith and non-faith backgrounds.
As a Mennonite church college, yet our students are so approachable! The professors at Grebel studied the Bible, question theology, and learn about the role of faith traditions and global understanding, and community and culture. These are principles that will help you succeed in whatever vocation you pursue.

From Grebel’s careful community matching process to welcoming orientation week activities to the upstairs-downstairs culture of inclusion, there are tiers of ways to transform people in our friendly residence!

Follow your passions and make a difference!
Join a music ensemble or studio course to
nurture your creative side. Take courses
that inspire you to change the world.

Grebel is in the Waterloo departments of Music, PACS, and Mennonite Studies. It delivers courses in Religious Studies, History, and Sociology that can be at the core of, or complement, your chosen academic program.

Grebel’s academic program promotes ideas of peace and social justice, human rights and inclusion, local and global understanding, and community and creativity. These are principles that will help you succeed in whatever vocation you pursue.

Regardless of the program you’re studying at Waterloo, you can live at Grebel and thrive academically. We have many study areas and a beautiful library. Upper-year students are happy to help you, and you’re in Peace and Conflict Studies (PACS) or Music, check out the flexible learning program.
As a home, Grebel staff and faculty are approachable and friendly. — you might even find yourself sitting with them at lunch!

Follow your passions and make a difference!
Join a music ensemble or studio course to
nurture your creative side. Take courses
that inspire you to change the world.

Grebel is home to the Waterloo Departments of Music, PACS, and Mennonite Studies. It delivers courses in Religious Studies, History, and Sociology that can be at the core of, or complement, your chosen academic program.

Grebel’s academic program promotes ideas of peace and social justice, human rights and inclusion, local and global understanding, and community and creativity. These are principles that will help you succeed in whatever vocation you pursue.

Regardless of the program you’re studying at Waterloo, you can live at Grebel and thrive academically. We have many study areas and a beautiful library. Upper-year students are happy to help you, and you’re in Peace and Conflict Studies (PACS) or Music, check out the flexible learning program.

The professors at Grebel are so approachable! They always willingly meet with you to discuss an assignment or talk about what they taught that day.

Follow your passions and make a difference!
Join a music ensemble or studio course to
nurture your creative side. Take courses
that inspire you to change the world.

Grebel is home to the Waterloo Departments of Music, PACS, and Mennonite Studies. It delivers courses in Religious Studies, History, and Sociology that can be at the core of, or complement, your chosen academic program.

Grebel’s academic program promotes ideas of peace and social justice, human rights and inclusion, local and global understanding, and community and creativity. These are principles that will help you succeed in whatever vocation you pursue.

Regardless of the program you’re studying at Waterloo, you can live at Grebel and thrive academically. We have many study areas and a beautiful library. Upper-year students are happy to help you, and you’re in Peace and Conflict Studies (PACS) or Music, check out the flexible learning program.

The professors at Grebel are so approachable! They always willingly meet with you to discuss an assignment or talk about what they taught that day.

Follow your passions and make a difference!
Join a music ensemble or studio course to
nurture your creative side. Take courses
that inspire you to change the world.

Grebel is home to the Waterloo Departments of Music, PACS, and Mennonite Studies. It delivers courses in Religious Studies, History, and Sociology that can be at the core of, or complement, your chosen academic program.

Grebel’s academic program promotes ideas of peace and social justice, human rights and inclusion, local and global understanding, and community and creativity. These are principles that will help you succeed in whatever vocation you pursue.

Regardless of the program you’re studying at Waterloo, you can live at Grebel and thrive academically. We have many study areas and a beautiful library. Upper-year students are happy to help you, and you’re in Peace and Conflict Studies (PACS) or Music, check out the flexible learning program.

The professors at Grebel are so approachable! They always willingly meet with you to discuss an assignment or talk about what they taught that day.

Follow your passions and make a difference!
Join a music ensemble or studio course to
nurture your creative side. Take courses
that inspire you to change the world.

Grebel is home to the Waterloo Departments of Music, PACS, and Mennonite Studies. It delivers courses in Religious Studies, History, and Sociology that can be at the core of, or complement, your chosen academic program.

Grebel’s academic program promotes ideas of peace and social justice, human rights and inclusion, local and global understanding, and community and creativity. These are principles that will help you succeed in whatever vocation you pursue.

Regardless of the program you’re studying at Waterloo, you can live at Grebel and thrive academically. We have many study areas and a beautiful library. Upper-year students are happy to help you, and you’re in Peace and Conflict Studies (PACS) or Music, check out the flexible learning program.

The professors at Grebel are so approachable! They always willingly meet with you to discuss an assignment or talk about what they taught that day.

Follow your passions and make a difference!
Join a music ensemble or studio course to
nurture your creative side. Take courses
that inspire you to change the world.

Grebel is home to the Waterloo Departments of Music, PACS, and Mennonite Studies. It delivers courses in Religious Studies, History, and Sociology that can be at the core of, or complement, your chosen academic program.

Grebel’s academic program promotes ideas of peace and social justice, human rights and inclusion, local and global understanding, and community and creativity. These are principles that will help you succeed in whatever vocation you pursue.

Regardless of the program you’re studying at Waterloo, you can live at Grebel and thrive academically. We have many study areas and a beautiful library. Upper-year students are happy to help you, and you’re in Peace and Conflict Studies (PACS) or Music, check out the flexible learning program.

The professors at Grebel are so approachable! They always willingly meet with you to discuss an assignment or talk about what they taught that day.