Course Description:
Immigrants and immigration have always been central to Canadians’ perceptions of themselves as a country and as a society. This course will examine the immigrant experience and Canada’s changing policies and attitudes toward immigration and immigrants from New France to the present.

This course will take a thematic and chronological approach to exploring and understanding the history of immigrants and immigration in Canada. Themes to be covered include: early migrations; settlement of the west; racism and exclusion in immigration policy; gendered aspects of migration; immigrant workers; refugee movements; deportation and enemy aliens; policy and practice of multiculturalism. The format of the class will include lectures, films, discussions, guests, and opportunities as they arise. Class assignments will be geared towards developing student research, reading, writing, and thinking skills.

Learning Objectives:
 To gain appreciation and understanding of the history of Canada as ‘a nation of immigrants’.
 To develop skills at analyzing the connections between past and present.
 To learn to position individual / personal history in the context of national history.
 To develop interest in contemporary questions relating to multiculturalism and immigration.
 To practise skills of reading & interpretation, and research & writing in the field of history.

Territorial Acknowledgement
We acknowledge that we are living and working on the traditional territory of the Attawandaron (also known as Neutral), Anishinaabe and Haudenosaunee peoples. The University of Waterloo is situated on the Haldimand Tract, the land promised to the Six Nations that includes six miles on each side of the Grand River.
Textbooks:
(Books are available in the University of Waterloo bookstore)

Other readings on Reserve as indicated in course schedule.

These two books will be on Reserve in Milton Good Library at Conrad Grebel. They both offer broad surveys of Canadian immigration history. They are not required reading.

Course Requirements

Attendance 10%
A sign-up sheet will be circulated at each class, beginning Week 1. It will be your responsibility to ensure that your name is on the list. You will not lose marks for absences for illness or emergency but you must let me know by email or phone message before class.

Essay – Two options 30%
(you must decide which option you will do by Sept. 25; a sign-up sheet will be circulated)

Option 1 – Immigrant Interview and Story (due Dec. 4); detail at end of syllabus.

OR

Option 2 – Story of your family’s immigrant experience (due Dec. 4); detail at end of syllabus.

You must also do a 5-minute in-class oral presentation on your essay.

Tests & Exam
Quizzes 3 x 5% = 15%

There will be 3 quizzes on in-class content: lectures, films, etc. (not readings). The format will be multiple choice, fill-in-the-blank, matching, or short definition.

Quizzes will be on these dates: Sept. 25, Oct. 23, Nov. 20

No make-up of quizzes without UW Verification of Illness form or special prior arrangement with me.

Take Home Exam 20%
An essay style written exam that will allow you to summarize and integrate learning from the entire semester of class. Detail will follow.

Reading Responses
5 x 5% = 25%

Alongside the in-class content that surveys Canadian immigration history, you will be reading essays from the text Sisters or Strangers? Immigrant, Ethnic, and Racialized Women in Canadian History. The book is divided into 9 Parts with 3 Chapters in each Part. In this assignment you will choose any 5 Parts from the book and compose a response to the Chapters based on the questions that are included in the introductory section to each Part.

In weeks where there are additional readings on E-reserve, you should include those readings as well.

Each response of approximately 500 words will briefly summarize the readings (ie. what is the main point), and offer your response to one or more of the questions in the introductory sections. As well, offer your personal thoughts/ideas on how these historical essays on Canadian immigration relate to present-day immigration issues.

The responses will be submitted into a Dropbox in Learn one week after the week in which the relevant Part is assigned in class. They are due by 11:30 p.m.

As time allows, we will discuss the chapters in class.
Essay Assignment Descriptions

Option 1. Immigrant Interview and Story
Find an immigrant to Canada and interview them about their experience. The purpose of this assignment is to acquaint you with the methods of oral history and to allow you to get first-hand understanding of what it is like to immigrate to Canada. The person you interview cannot be an immediate family member nor an international student (on a student visa). Write a 1000-word essay (4-5 ds pages) that summaries the process of doing an oral interview as well as your findings, ie. the person’s story. Use at least 5 sources (other than textbooks) that speak to the context of the person’s immigrant experience. We will spend time in class learning about oral history methodology, including what kinds of questions to ask. You can find your own interview subject or Marlene can help you find someone.

Your essay must include the following:

- A title page with your name, ID, course number, date, and title of paper.
- Footnotes or endnotes that cite sources using Chicago style for Notes and Bibliography.
- A separate bibliography.
- Page numbers.
- See also attached guidelines for essay writing.

The paper is due December 4. A sign-up sheet for 5-minute oral presentations will be circulated.

Option 2. Story of your family’s immigrant experience
Do some research into your own personal or family ‘immigrant experience.’ Write a 1000-word essay (4-5 ds pages) that summarizes your personal or ancestral immigrant experience. Use at least 5 sources (other than textbooks), such as books, articles, websites, oral interviews, etc. If you can’t find much specific information about your family’s immigrant experience, then write a paper that puts that particular history into a larger context that might focus on time period, place, reasons for migration, for instance. It doesn’t matter if you are 1st generation Canadian or 10th generation Canadian or of Aboriginal background (in the latter case you might reflect on the impact of Canadian immigration on your ancestors). You can choose to write about just one family line or about several. Your essay should try to address the following questions: from where did your ancestors immigrate? When and why? Where did they establish themselves? What was their experience?

Your essay must include the following:

- A title page with your name, ID, course number, date, and title of paper.
- Footnotes or endnotes that cite sources using Chicago style for Notes and Bibliography.
- A separate bibliography.
- Page numbers.
- See also attached guidelines for essay writing.

The paper is due December 4. A sign-up sheet for 5-minute oral presentations will be circulated.
Responsibilities, Expectations, and other Academic information:

1. Look after yourself.
   As I’m sure you know, an important part of academic success is personal well-being. Eat well, sleep sufficiently, get some exercise and spend time outdoors, and don’t abuse your body. If you are struggling with more-than-normal (debilitating) stress, anxiety, lack of motivation and/or depression, please talk to friends, family, or relevant professionals. There are many supports here at Conrad Grebel / UW. If you need help sourcing these, come and talk to me. Take responsibility for yourself and look out for others. Be kind and compassionate with each other.

2. Attend class regularly and take notes.
   Attending class regularly will help you maintain interest in the topic of the course, keep up with course requirements and guidelines for assignments, and obtain course content that isn’t available in readings or on Learn. Taking notes in class is important as a practice of knowledge retention, a technique for attentiveness, and also to help you gather information that you will need for the take home exam. Attendance is graded: a sheet will be circulated in each class and it is your responsibility to ensure that you have signed-in.

3. Be attentive to each other and participate in classroom discussions.
   Ask questions about things you don’t understand or are not clear. Be respectful of other students and their opinions. Remember that everyone has a story.

4. You are responsible for catching up on material that you have missed.
   You can do this by asking me for any handouts, borrowing notes from a classmate (don’t ask me for my lecture notes; they likely won’t help much!), and asking me how you might view films that you missed.

5. LEARN.
   This course will have a Desire2Learn (Learn) page. It is your responsibility to ensure you can receive email through Learn, as this is how I will communicate with students and you with each other. Please check the course site regularly for announcements, handouts, suggestions, etc. You will be submitting most of your assignments to a Dropbox in Learn.

6. Communication.
   If you wish to talk with me about any course related or other matters, you may do so after class, by appointment, or through email. I will do my best to respond to your emails within 48 hours. Before you make an inquiry about assignments etc., please do check the syllabus first to confirm whether the information you need is there. All requests for assignment extensions or other special arrangements must be confirmed with me by email, so that we have an agreement in writing (and so that I do not forget!). Ensure that your uwaterloo email address is forwarded to your personal email address (if you prefer to only check the latter).

7. Understand course requirements.
   Please ask questions if these are not clear. Complete assignments on time. I will do my best to grade and return them in a timely manner. If Learn is not functioning, I will communicate alternate submission instructions to you by email. Please plan your academic work carefully, keeping in mind the deadlines for assignments in all your courses. I am generally amenable to requests for extensions in situations of illness, emergencies, or family/personal crises. I do expect that you consult me about an extension BEFORE the assignment is due.

8. Late Policy.

Assignments that are submitted past the due date without any prior consultation with me will be subject to a grading penalty of 2% per day.

9. Electronic devices:

The use of laptops for the purpose of taking notes in class is acceptable. If other activity such as facebook-ing, texting, etc. becomes distracting to other students or to me or a guest speaker, you will be asked to cease such activity, or your devices might be requisitioned for the duration of the class. Phones should be turned off during class. If you need your phone available for an emergency in a specific class, let me know.
University of Waterloo Information

Academic Integrity
In order to maintain a culture of academic integrity, members of the University of Waterloo are expected to promote honesty, trust, fairness, respect and responsibility. See the UWWaterloo Academic Integrity webpage and the Arts Academic Integrity webpage for more information.

Discipline:
A student is expected to know what constitutes academic integrity, to avoid committing academic offences, and to take responsibility for his/her actions. A student who is unsure whether an action constitutes an offence, or who needs help in learning how to avoid offences (e.g., plagiarism, cheating) or about “rules” for group work/collaboration should seek guidance from the course professor, academic advisor, or the Undergraduate Associate Dean. When misconduct has been found to have occurred, disciplinary penalties will be imposed under Policy 71 – Student Discipline: For information on categories of offenses and types of penalties, students should refer to Policy 71 - Student Discipline. For typical penalties check Guidelines for the Assessment of Penalties.

Grievance:
A student who believes that a decision affecting some aspect of his/her university life has been unfair or unreasonable may have grounds for initiating a grievance. Read Policy 70 - Student Petitions and Grievances, Section 4. When in doubt, please be certain to contact the department’s administrative assistant who will provide further assistance.

Appeals:
A decision made or penalty imposed under Policy 70 - Student Petitions and Grievances (other than a petition) or Policy 71 - Student Discipline may be appealed if there is a ground. A student who believes he/she has a ground for an appeal should refer to Policy 72 - Student Appeals.

Accommodation for Students with Disabilities:
Note for students with disabilities: The AccessAbility Services office, located on the first floor of the Needles Hall extension (1401), collaborates with all academic departments to arrange appropriate accommodations for students with disabilities without compromising the academic integrity of the curriculum. If you require academic accommodations to lessen the impact of your disability, please register with the AS office at the beginning of each academic term.

Counselling Services:
Counselling Services provides free confidential counselling, in both individual and group sessions, with qualified professionals to help registered students, faculty and staff with personal concerns, educational career decisions, and strategies to studies and exams: wwwadm.uwaterloo.ca/infocs, ext. 33528, NH Room 2080.

Mental Health Support:
All of us need a support system. The faculty and staff in Arts encourage students to seek out mental health supports if they are needed.

My general rubric for marking written assignments:

An “A” (80-100) paper is original and creative. It has a clear introductory statement and conclusion and exhibits a strong research effort. It is well-written and well-organized, appropriately footnoted/referenced (making correct use of a citation style), and thoroughly proofread and edited. This paper has gone beyond the basic requirements of the assignment, in terms of excellent writing style, originality in choice of topic, creativity in search of sources (including use of extra sources), and thoughtfulness of analysis and reflection.

A “B” (70-79) paper demonstrates wide reading, understanding and thought. It is clear and understandable. The research will be thorough, and the paper will be appropriately footnoted/referenced. This paper has met the basic requirements of the assignment.

A “C” (60-69) paper is an acceptable paper. It might be difficult to read. It will have met the research requirements, but barely. It demonstrates adequate understanding. It meets the basic requirements of the assignment overall, but falls short in one or more areas, such as: inadequate sources or heavy reliance on marginal sources (ie. wikipedia); poor writing style; incorrect citations; limited analysis, for instance.

A “D” (50-59) paper is badly organized, poorly written, or inadequately researched. The paper has not met the requirements of the assignment, whether in terms of research, writing, clarity, or referencing.

An “F” (below 50) paper has not followed instructions and has not fulfilled the assignment.

In short you will be graded on: originality, research, organization, writing, and proper documentation.
