

Heritage Resources Centre's Study Trip to the Cotswolds, UK June 20-25, 2011

This area of England is known for its scenic villages, historic architecture and as a Regional Destination for Heritage Tourism. We will learn from local people about how the small towns and villages promote themselves cooperatively and attract tourists. We will meet local tourism officials, site operators, entrepreneurs and cultural experts.

WHEN: June 20th to 25th, 2011 (tentative)

COST: $2000 (estimate)

This includes flight, five days of guided tours and accommodation. Deposits will be due in March 2011.

The tentative itinerary includes:

Day 1	Check in to residence, optional walking tour of Oxford, free time
Day 2	North Cotswolds: Chipping Norton, Morton-on-Marsh, Stow
Day 3	South Cotswolds: Lechlade, Kalmescott, Thames Boat Tour
Day 4	Central Cotswolds: Burford, Whitney and meetings with tourism officials
Day 5	Trip to Bath
