PAGE NUMBERS

Number the pages at the bottom centre, as shown in the template.

EQUATIONS/FORMULAE

Equations should be centred in the column with two or three line spaces to separate equations from text. They also should be numbered consecutively, using Arabic numerals enclosed in parentheses and positioned flush right along the final baseline of the equation. Do not include any ellipses (dots) from the equation to the equation number, or any punctuation at the end of the equation itself.

Example:

$$F(x) = \int_{-\infty}^x f(x)dx \quad (1)$$

FIGURES AND PHOTOGRAPHS

All figures, graphs and line drawings should be clear and of high quality. Colour figures are allowed. All figures must be placed at the end of the abstract.

All figures should be numbered consecutively and captioned. The caption should be 9 pt, and upper and lower case letters, and centred under the figure/photograph. All call-outs/text within the figure should be no smaller than 7 pt when sized to fit the column.

TABLES

A table should look like Table 1.

Table 1. This is an example of a table.

Re	$b/a$	$G$
450	2	3.182
475	2	2.982
500	4	1.768

All tables should be numbered consecutively and captioned; the caption should be 9 pt, and upper and lower case letters. It should be placed above the table and centred, if less than one line long, or fully justified if longer. The body of the table should be no smaller than 7 pt. The use of boldface and italics is encouraged to make necessary distinctions within the table. Nine point (9 pt.) leading is recommended.

Tables should be preferably placed at the top of the page in which they are first cross-referenced. Follow the guidelines for figures outlined above for special handling (tables not generated with text, but created separately) and sizes (with specific regard to placement).

REFERENCES

Within the text, references should be cited by giving the last name of the author(s) and the year of publication of the reference. The year should always be enclosed in parentheses; whether or not the name of the author(s) should be enclosed within the parentheses depends on the context. The two possibilities are illustrated below.

It was shown by Newton (1687) and Prandtl (1904) that the width of the plume decreases under these conditions.

It has been shown that the width of the plume decreases under these conditions (Newton, 1687; Prandtl, 1904).

References to original sources for cited material should be listed together at the end of the paper; footnotes should not be used for this purpose. References should be arranged in alphabetical order according to the last name of the author, or the last name of the first-named author for papers with more than one author. Each reference should include the last name of each author followed by his/her initials. In all cases, titles of books, periodicals, and conference proceedings should be underlined or in italics. A sample list of references in which these forms are illustrated follows.

If you are using BibTeX to manage your bibliography, you can cite an article by typing `\cite{citekey}` which will show as Descartes (1637).
