Praise for A WRINKLE IN TIME

MAY SARTON: "A Wrinkle in Time held, moved, and delighted me from beginning to end. What a triumph those three children are! Meg is just about my favorite heroine and Charles Wallace cannot (so to speak) be denied, only marvelled at. Madeleine L'Engle has the sovereign touch for this sort of thing, the poet's touch, imagination opening the door into wisdom. A lovely book!"

EVA LE GALLIENNE: "I read A Wrinkle in Time with great interest and found myself completely absorbed in it, but I was particularly impressed by the way it continued to haunt me. I couldn't get it out of my mind—it has a curious magic, it casts a spell over one. It is a most exciting and original work—but, apart from the actual story, it has things to say that are immensely valuable, stimulating and provocative."

JEAN KERR: "I must tell you how much I admire Madeleine L'Engle's A Wrinkle in Time. It's a perfectly charming story, beautifully written and full of wry and delicious touches."

MODERN BOOKS FOR MODERN BOYS

FIGHTING SHIPS OF THE U. S. A.

by Lieut. Comdr. Victor Blakelee

This informing book on the United States Navy, written by a naval commander, will thrill boys and answer many a question about the equipment of the Navy. It includes up-to-date material on all of the various types of ships, as well as Navy planes. It describes every phase of Navy life and the training of sailors, from the enlisted men to the Naval Academy, War College, and reserve officers. There are also chapters on the Marines, the Coast Guard, and the Navy Department. There is a chart showing the strength in ship numbers of the various navies of the world. With many fine illustrations in color and single-tone by Charles Rumer. Introduction by Admiral William F. Pratt. $1.00

WAR IN THE AIR

by John B. Walker

Methods of air combat, and planes and pilots in action. The text is illustrated by diagrams and dramatic color pictures. "The remarkably fine illustrations by Barry Barr alone make this a rare treasure, for they depict fighting scenes with such clarity that the layman begins to realize what it's all about. Altogether this is one of the best volumes of its kind we have yet seen." — Southern Flight. $1.00

FIGHTING PLANES OF THE WORLD

by Major Bernard A. Lav

Descriptive of the quantity and quality of the military aircraft of 40 nations. Forty colored plates and twenty in black and white clearly designate various types of planes used by each nation. Several full-page illustrations in color show air battles and parachute invasions. $1.00
