Exchange agreement in Mathematics between University of Waterloo and University of Torino (ITALY)
Torino, first capital of Italy, birthplace of J.-L. Lagrange and Giuseppe Peano
University of Torino
Founded in 1404
Department of Maths
“Giuseppe Peano”
Exchange agreement with Waterloo since 2005
Plans in Maths

• Bachelor (3 years):
  Mathematics (Pure and Applied)
  Mathematics for Finance and Insurance

• Specialistica (2 years)
  (Logics, Algebra, Geometry, Teaching, History of Mathematics, Analysis, Probability and Statistics, Mathematical Physics, Numerical Analysis)

Stochastics and Data Sciences (in English)

• Ph.D. (3 years)
Courses

• CFU = credit
  a typical course is 6 CFU = 48h lectures
  (though some are 9 or 12 CFU)

• Usually, lectures in Italian (with some exception)
  but English can be agreed in advance
  Material in English, Exams may be taken in English
Campusnet

• All information about courses can be found on the site Campusnet (Italian and English)

• Bachelor
  http://www.matematica.unito.it http://matematicafinanza.campusnet.unito.it

• Master
  http://matematicalm.campusnet.unito.it http://www.master-sds.unito.it

• Ph.D.
  http://ssst.campusnet.unito.it
Campusnet

• It is quite difficult to navigate.  :-(

• The Torino coordinator, Professor Lorenzo Fatibene who is visiting Waterloo, and the Waterloo coordinator, Professor Raymond McLenaghan, are available to help.

• If you are interested, contact them
  • Lorenzo Fatibene (MC6526)
    phone: X30289
    lorenzo.fatibene@uwaterloo.ca or lorenzo.fatibene@unito.it
  • Ray McLenaghan (MC 6429)
    phone: X35456
    rgmclenaghan@uwaterloo.ca
See you in Torino!