Welcome!

Welcome to the University of Waterloo Department of Music at Conrad Grebel University College. Whether you are taking only a few Music courses or completing a degree with a major or minor in Music, we hope that you will find your time with us stimulating and enriching and the community of students, staff and teachers of which you are now a part a supportive and friendly one.

This handbook contains important information about various aspects of the Music program. Please take time to read through it carefully. For more information about being a student at the University of Waterloo, consult the UW Undergraduate Calendar at http://ugradcalendar.uwaterloo.ca/page/uWaterloo-Undergraduate-Calendar-Access and the course offerings list available on the music website at https://uwaterloo.ca/music/courses.

Conrad Grebel University College has been home to the University of Waterloo Music program since the 1960s. UW began offering BA programs in Music in 1974 and, since that time, hundreds of students have graduated from the University of Waterloo with degrees in Music. The Music Department has grown to a size where it is large enough to create an interesting and vibrant community, but still small enough that it is possible to get to know each student, staff, and faculty member personally.

Our aim is to offer a Music program with a liberal arts character. This means balancing intensive study in the traditional musical disciplines of performance, theory, and history with courses addressing questions at the vital intersection of disciplines, such as popular music, jazz, world music, music and gender, music technology, music and film, and music and worship. The University of Waterloo, with its tradition of collaboration and innovation, and Grebel, as a multi-disciplinary and interdisciplinary College, provide a richly supportive culture for this approach to the study of Music.

Please let us know if you have questions. We are here to help. The Music Office is located in Room 1103. Office hours are Monday to Friday, 9:00am to 4:00pm. The Administrative Assistant to the Music Department is Claudia Van Decker and the Music Assistant is Angelica Allen. Academic counselling is available from the Undergraduate Officer, Professor Mark Vuorinen (Room 1104, ext 24220). The Chair of the Music Department is Professor Laura Gray (Room 1103a, ext 24247). Our best wishes for the 2016-17 academic year!

FACULTY TEACHING AND RESEARCH INTERESTS

Laura J. Gray received degrees in Music from Western, the University of British Columbia, and a Ph.D. in Music History from Yale University. Her main areas of research and publication include the music of the Finnish composer, Jean Sibelius, early 20th-century British music, the symphony, and early 20th-century music criticism and aesthetics. She has conducted research in Finland, England, and New York and presented scholarly papers nationally and internationally and has contributed to The Sibelius Companion, Sibelius Forum, MusicWorks, Studies in Music from The University of Western Ontario, Notes, and The Conrad Grebel Review. Most recently she presented papers on Sibelius at Stanford University and at the Sixth International Sibelius Congress in Hämeenlinna, Finland. Laura is currently working on a book on the so-called “Sibelius cult” in England in the 1930s. She teaches special interest courses on topics such as music and landscape, opera, and aesthetics, and has been the chair of Music for five years.

Kenneth Hull received a BA (Honours Philosophy) from University of Waterloo (1976), a BMus (1977) and MMus (Piano Literature and Performance; 1980) from University of Western Ontario, and a PhD in Historical Musicology from Princeton University (1989). He also holds an M.A. in Christian Spirituality from The General Theological Seminary in New York. His current research interests include Christian congregational song and the subjective dimension of congregational participation in corporate worship. He teaches courses in Christian hymnody and liturgy, nineteenth-century music, and the London (U.K.) and Leipzig (Germany) travel course. He is currently the convenor of a committee to produce a hymnal supplement for the Anglican Church of Canada. He was Convenor of the Music Subcommittee for the Canadian Anglican hymn book, Common Praise (1998). He has published in Brahms Studies, The Hymn, Liturgy Canada, Reformed Liturgy and Music, Anglican and Episcopal History and Liturgy and is editor of Brahms Fourth Symphony: A Norton Critical Score (March 2000).

Ken is also the founding artistic director of Spiritus Ensemble, a choral and instrumental group that performs Bach cantatas in a liturgical context. At Conrad Grebel University College Ken is the Director of the Church Music and Worship program. He is one of the primary organizers of the Hymn Society in the U.S. & Canada Annual Conference which will take place at Conrad Grebel from July 16 to 20, 2017.

Maisie Sum is an ethnomusicologist, educator, performer, and editorial board member of MUSIcultures. Recipient of the 2014 Jaap Kunst Prize for an article published in African Music Journal of the International Library of African Music, her research interests include the music traditions of Morocco and Indonesia, music associated with ritual, the impact of globalization on music traditions and identity, music, peace and conflict, musical rhythm and the brain, music and cognition, and music, health and wellbeing. As a member of Gamelan Gita Asmara (resident ensemble at The University of British Columbia) and Gamelan Giri Kedaton (resident ensemble at Université de Montréal), she has performed and studied Balinese music in Canada and Bali, Indonesia. At Conrad Grebel University College, University of Waterloo, Professor Sum is the general director of the UWaterloo Balinese Gamelan and teaches courses in music from a cross-cultural and interdisciplinary perspective.

Mark Vuorinen holds a Doctor of Musical Arts degree from the University of Toronto and Master of Music degree from Yale University’s School of Music and Institute of Sacred Music where he received full scholarship. A well-known Canadian conductor, Mark is the artistic director and conductor of Waterloo Region’s Grand Philharmonic Choir. Prior to joining the Faculty of Conrad Grebel University College, Mark was an active church musician for fifteen years, most recently at the Church of the Redeemer (Anglican), Toronto and is past Music Director of the Toronto Chamber Choir and Toronto Choral Artists. A recipient of many awards, Mark was named the E. Stanley Sedar Scholar at Yale University’s Institute of Sacred Music, is a recipient of the Elmer Iseler National Graduate Fellowship in Choral Conducting and received a 2016
National Choral Award from the Choral Canada (Association of Canadian Choral Communities) for his doctoral research on Estonian composer Arvo Pärt. At Conrad Grebel University College, Mark is the Director of the UW Chamber Choir and teaches courses in conducting. His musical interests dovetail with Grebel's intersection of religious studies, peace studies, and music. Mark is a frequent guest conductor, choral adjudicator and clinician. He is also the Undergraduate Officer, responsible for helping students with academic advising.

ARTIST-IN-RESIDENCE

I Dewa Made Suparta is Artist-in-Residence at Conrad Grebel University College, University of Waterloo. A performer, composer, and teacher of Balinese music, Dewa Suparta hails from a prominent musical family and is founding member of Gamelan Çudamani, an innovative ensemble renowned throughout Bali, Europe, and North America. He has composed, performed, and taught throughout Bali, has toured internationally, engaged in collaborations with international artists, and given workshops worldwide. Dewa Suparta held the position of Visiting Professor in the Faculty of Music at l’Université de Montréal from 2009 to 2013. Since 2009 he has been artistic director of Montreal’s Gamelan Giri Kedaton and a regular guest artist of Ottawa’s Gamelan Semara Winangun. As Grebel’s Artist-in-Residence, he is artistic director of the UWWaterloo Balinese Gamelan and has been instrumental in establishing the new Grebel Community Balinese Gamelan. Since his arrival, the Department of Music’s offerings in global music and community outreach activities have expanded to include courses in Balinese music and culture, a second world music ensemble (gamelan gender wayang, also referred to as chamber gamelan), workshops, and more.

MUSIC ENSEMBLES

The University of Waterloo Department of Music at Conrad Grebel University College invites students, faculty, staff and community members to join any of the seven musical ensembles that it sponsors and organizes. You can perform in any of the ensembles listed below for course credit or just for your own enjoyment. Regular attendance at rehearsals is required, and attendance at dress rehearsals and performances is mandatory. All of these groups will present at least one concert during the term. For more information about singing or playing in an ensemble, visit the Department of Music website (www.uwaterloo.ca/music), call the Music Office (885-0220 ext. 24226), or e-mail us at music@uwaterloo.ca. Sign-up for all Music Ensembles auditions are posted online two weeks before the start of each term, so please follow the links from our music website.

The following music ensembles are offered in 2016-17:

Chamber Choir: Directed by Mark Vuorinen, the Chamber Choir meets every Tuesday and Thursday in the Conrad Grebel University College Chapel from 4:00-5:30 p.m. beginning the first week of classes each Fall and Winter term. Recent concert highlights include performances of Benjamin Britten’s War Requiem, J.S. Bach’s St. Matthew Passion and the premiere of Psalm 150 by Canadian composer Timothy Corlis. The choir has given performances with the Grand Philharmonic Choir, Kitchener-Waterloo Symphony, the Cardinal Consort of Viols and have sung under the direction of Scottish composer and conductor Sir James MacMillan. The UWCC is an auditioned ensemble of the Department of Music at Conrad Grebel University College. Choristers are primarily undergraduate students representing all of the University of Waterloo's faculties.

University Choir: Directed by Gerard Yun, the University Choir meets every Monday evening in Conrad Grebel University College Chapel from 7-10pm, Sept-July. This large, choral ensemble performs works across a broad range of styles from international folk music, cross-cultural musics, and Canadian music, with extensive forays into the classical works for large choirs, including works such as Handel's Messiah, Brahms's Requiem, and Orff's Carmina Burana. Choir membership requires a vocal interview with the director. Please check the music department website for information and online signup. Membership reopens each school term with choir membership varying between 70-90 singers.
Chapel Choir: Directed by Catherine Robertson, the Chapel Choir meets every Monday from 3:30-5:20 p.m. and Wednesday from 3:30-5:30 p.m. in the Conrad Grebel University College Chapel beginning the first week of classes each fall and winter term. This group of about 20 singers participates in College chapel services (Wednesdays, 4:30-5:30 p.m.) and occasionally visits area churches or other venues.

World Music Ensemble – Balinese Gamelan: Directed by Prof. Maisie Sum and Grebel Artist-in-Residence, I Dewa Made Suparta, the ensemble meets on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 4:00 to 5:30PM. On the island of Bali, Indonesia the idea of community and the spirit of interaction are highly valued and extend to music-making. Being an aural/oral tradition, repertoire—from ritual pieces to modern compositions, instrumental or dance—is learned and played without the use of music notation; that is, through listening, watching, imitation and repetition. Students experience this communal process of creating a unified sound on a gamelan semaradana (one of several types of gamelan found in Bali) consisting of gongs, metallophones, and drums. All interested students are encouraged to come to the first rehearsal. No audition is required; however, your intention to join is highly recommended (via email). Selection will be necessary if enrolment limits are surpassed. Gamelan or percussion experience is not required.

Instrumental Chamber Ensembles: Directed by Ben Bolt-Martin, Instrumental Chamber Ensembles meet at different times during the week, depending on the schedule of the members of your ensemble, beginning the first week of classes each fall and winter term. Instrumentalists interested in playing in small groups of approximately 3 - 8 players may join this group of ensembles. Musicians perform a wide variety of works from medieval times to the twentieth century.

Jazz Ensemble: The Jazz Ensemble is a full ensemble employing saxophones, trombones, trumpets, piano, bass, drums and other percussion. Rehearsals are Monday evenings 7-10 pm with sectionals as needed. To audition, sign up on the bulletin board outside the Music Office (CGUC 1103). Directed by Michael Wood, this ensemble has a concert at the end of the Fall and Winter terms. Time is spent on learning to succeed in the “business” of music.

Vocal Techniques: Taught by Stephanie Kramer, Vocal Techniques is structured in a lab format covering the foundations of singing – basic pedagogy, diction/phonetics, practice routines, and performance tips – designed to prepare students for more in-depth individual voice instruction. This course is also useful for pianists interested in vocal accompanying. The class begins the first week of term, and is held every Wednesday from 7-9 p.m. A vocal interview is required. Sign up on the sheet posted outside the Music Office. This ensemble is offered during the fall term only.

The Music Department also supports orchestra@uwaterloo, a large symphonic ensemble under the direction of Erna Van Daele. The orchestra rehearses on Thursday nights starting at 7:00 p.m. For more details, please visit their website: www.orchestra.uwaterloo.ca/prospective. If you are interested, come to the open rehearsal on Thursday, September 17 from 7:00 to 8:30 pm. Register on the website, www.orchestra.uwaterloo.ca so we can reserve music and a chair for you.
Music Ensemble Credits:
Each term of Music Ensemble is worth 0.25 units. Up to six terms of Music Ensemble may be taken for credit, but only four 0.25-unit courses may be counted towards any degree in the Faculty of Arts (the last two terms of ensemble, Music 316 and 317, in addition to any other non-music 0.25-unit courses, will not count towards any Arts degree.) Music Ensemble requirements for all Music plans must be met above the specified number of Music courses required (see plan requirements below).

If you wish to receive credit for Music Ensemble, you must register for it on Quest before the add period ends. The first term of Ensemble is Music 116 (with 117, 216, 217, 316, and 317 used for successive terms). Music Ensemble is normally taken above the usual 5-course full load, and each ensemble course is graded on a Credit/No Credit basis. Note that orchestra@uwaterloo is available for credit to Music Major and Minors only with the consent of the Undergraduate Officer.

Note: Admission to any ensemble offered through the University of Waterloo Music Department is based on audition and is at the discretion of the director.

CONCERTS & RECITALS

Attendance at recitals and concerts is a part of your music education and an expression of support for your fellow students. You are expected to attend concerts whenever possible.

The Noon Hour Concert series, sponsored by the University of Waterloo Department of Music at Conrad Grebel University College, presents performances by local and international musicians. These free concerts are presented in the fall and winter terms and feature classical, jazz, world music, and contemporary works. Noon Hour Concerts take place on most Wednesdays, 12:30-1:20pm, in the CGUC Chapel. These are posted outside the Music office and also on the web site at https://uwaterloo.ca/music/events.

Student recitals are scheduled for the end of each term. Students in Music 326, 327, 426, 427 and 428 are required to perform in recitals. Students in Music 226 and 227 are encouraged to perform.

Fall student recital dates: Nov 21, Nov 22, Nov 24, Nov 28.
Winter student recital dates: tba

Graduation recitals are given by all students registered for Music 428.

Ensemble Concerts are given at the end of Fall, Winter, and Spring terms. See the Grebel Music website: uwaterloo.ca/music/events.

MUSIC STUDIO COURSES

Music Studio courses offer individual instruction in voice, piano, organ, all orchestral instruments, saxophone, and guitar. The Music Studio courses are MUSIC 226, 227, 326, 327, 426, 427 and 428. Students who are applying to take Music Studio for the first time should read “Admission to Music Studio” carefully. Students who have already taken their first term of Music Studio should skip down to the section “Registering for Music Studio”.

Admission To Music Studio
Admission to Music Studio is by audition. The purpose of the auditions is to ensure that students have already attained a degree of accomplishment (typically Grade 8 Royal Conservatory or its equivalent) and show sufficient promise to merit this kind of instruction for credit. When there are more qualified students auditioning than there are places available, the faculty will select the most suitable candidates on a competitive basis.

Arranging your Audition
Students who wish to take Music Studio should contact the Music Department Administrative Assistant by phone (519-885-0220 extension 24226) or email (music@uwaterloo.ca) to arrange for an audition well before the audition dates. Auditions for Fall term are typically held on the Thursday and Friday of Orientation Week in September. For Winter and Spring terms, auditions are held on the first day of classes in January and May, respectively. See the Music website for exact audition dates: http://www.uwaterloo.ca/music/auditions. Auditioning students should bring a completed “Prospective Music Student Information Form” (available on the Music Office bulletin board and in pdf format on the website) with them to the audition.

Audition Requirements
Students should prepare two contrasting pieces (or movements of longer works) by different composers to perform at the audition. Voice and piano students are encouraged (but not required) to perform their selected works from memory. The audition will include sight-reading and a brief interview by two faculty members. An accompanist will be provided for singers and instrumentalists free of charge. At least one piece must be accompanied, with the following exceptions: piano, guitar, organ. Please bring two copies of the music you will perform: one for the faculty hearing the audition and one copy of the accompaniment part (if applicable). Auditions are 15 minutes in length.

Audition Procedure
Plan to arrive at least one half hour prior to your scheduled audition time. Upon arrival, first go to the Music Office (Room 1104 at Conrad Grebel University College) where the Music Department Administrative Assistant can verify that you have the necessary paperwork. You will then be directed to a practice room in order to warm-up. Plan to arrive at your actual audition room 10 minutes early. Bring the required audition materials (the Prospective Music Student Information form and copies of your music) and your personal belongings with you to the audition.

Audition Results
Audition results will be emailed by the Music Office after all the auditions have been heard and the Music faculty has had an opportunity to confer (within 24 hours of the last audition).
REGISTERING FOR MUSIC STUDIO

Ensemble Participation Requirement
All students who enroll in Music Studio must participate in an ensemble for credit during that term. There is a separate audition to be admitted into an ensemble. See the Music Office bulletin board and the website for more information.

Studio Fee
In addition to tuition, there is a fee to take Music Studio. This fee covers the higher cost of providing one-on-one instruction to students as well as the use of a piano accompanist and masterclass instruction. The fee for Fall 2016 to Spring 2017 is $290.00.

Enrollment Procedure
1. Students who have been accepted by audition into Music Studio must then visit the Music Office in order to obtain a permission number that will allow them to add it to their timetable on Quest. Before you visit the Music Office, be sure to do the following:
2. Register online for Music Ensemble (MUSIC 116, 117, 216, 217, 316, or 317), which is the co-requisite for Music Studio. You must be registered for a Music Ensemble when taking Music Studio unless you have an exemption from the Undergraduate Officer.
3. Bring a copy of your timetable (printed in grid format off Quest) to give to the Music Department Administrative Assistant in the Music Office. This will be used to schedule you for masterclasses and student recitals.
4. Bring your Music Studio fee (cash or cheque payable to “Conrad Grebel University College”). A receipt for your payment will be provided.

When you visit the Music Office (Room 1103), provided you have done all of the above, you will be given a permission number in order to enroll in Music Studio on Quest. A lesson time will also be arranged at that time. Remember that you also must audition for and be accepted into a music ensemble in addition to having registered for the ensemble online.

COURSE INFORMATION

Availability of Music Studio Courses
The following limits apply to the number of Music Studio courses students may take:
- Honours, Joint Honours Music and Music and Business
  Six terms: MUSIC 226, 227, 326, 327, 426, and 427 or 428
- Music Four-Year General
  Five terms: MUSIC 226, 227, 326, 327, and 426
- Music Three-Year General
  Four terms: MUSIC 226, 227, 326, and 327
- Music Minor
  Three terms: MUSIC 226, 227, and 326*
- Music Studio as an elective
  Two terms: MUSIC 226 and 227

*MUSIC 326 is available to Music Minors only after the Minor has been declared and MUSIC 270 has been completed.

If a student changes his or her academic plan to one whose Music Studio course limit is lower than the number of courses already taken, only the lower number of courses may be counted toward the Music requirements for the degree (e.g., Honours to 4-year General).
Accompanists
All Music Studio students (except pianists) are entitled to one hour per term with an accompanist in order to prepare for recitals and juries. A sign-up list of available times with the accompanist will be posted outside the Music Office well in advance of these events. Times are scheduled in 30-minute blocks.

Evaluation
Music Studio students are evaluated based on their work and attendance at lessons, their jury performance (the jury is a performance-based “final exam” at the end of the term), and their attendance at Masterclass and student recitals. Your final Music Studio mark will be determined as follows:

- Instructor’s mark: 66.7%
- Jury mark (average of the 2 jurors’ marks): 33.3%

Failure to attend Masterclasses and at least two student recitals will reduce your final grade by up to 10%. A final mark of at least 65% must be obtained in order to proceed to the next term of Music Studio, except in the case of MUSIC 426 when the student is proceeding to MUSIC 428, where a mark of at least 80% is required from both the instructor and the jurors’ average.

Juries
The “jury” is the final exam for Music Studio. Juries are held on the weekday after the last day of classes each term. The jury schedule is posted on the bulletin board outside the Music Office at least two weeks prior to the scheduled jury date. The requirements for juries are as follows:

- Be prepared to perform two pieces (or movements from larger works) in contrasting styles and by different composers.
- Studies may not be used as jury pieces
- Vocalists and pianists are required to perform from memory. Other instrumentalists may use music at their jury.
- Do not play repeats for your jury performance.
- Bring two copies of your music for the jurors’ use.
- Bring a typed list of all repertoires you studied during the term, signed by your instructor.
- Arrive at least 10 minutes before your assigned time.
- Have your instrument tuned and ready to play before you enter the jury room.
- Leave coats and backpacks outside the jury room.
- You will receive a Teacher Evaluation form to fill out after your jury; please complete it and return it to the Music Office immediately following your jury.
- Jury results will be available in the Music Office only after final marks for the course have been posted. Your Teacher Evaluation must be returned before viewing jury results.

Lockers
Instrument storage lockers are available in the Residence Games Room across from the practice room area. Lockers are available free of charge to current Music students, with priority given to students needing to store instruments. Lockers must be booked each term through the Music Department Assistant, Angelica Allen. They come in 3 sizes, the smallest being useful for keeping your sheet music safe as well as flutes, etc. A limited number of spaces are available for cellos and other large instruments.

Lessons
Each term consists of nine hours of individual instruction, typically given as twelve weekly 45-minute lessons. Occasionally, an instructor may structure the nine hours of instruction in fewer, longer lessons. The instructor is not obligated to reschedule if a student misses lesson.

Masterclass
‘Masterclass’ refers to group performance classes. In addition to individualized instruction, all Music Studio students are required to attend scheduled masterclasses. For example, a group of instrumental students might meet with a studio instructor for two hours one day to perform for each other, receive constructive critique, and learn new techniques.

MUSIC 428: Graduation Recital
Honours and Joint Honours Music students may wish to perform a graduation recital as part of their degree. This is done by taking MUSIC 428. Admission to MUSIC 428 is determined by the marks received in MUSIC 426. You must receive a mark of at least 80% in MUSIC 426 from both your instructor and the average of the two jurors’ marks. Students wishing to enroll in MUSIC 428 should indicate their intention at the time of their 426 jury. A proposed recital program should be submitted to the Music Department for approval by the second week of the term. A form for this purpose can be obtained from the Music Office when you enroll in Studio, along with a sheet on further information and tips. The recital should consist of 20-30 minutes of music, and a variety of style periods should be represented. A minimum of 1/3 of the recital program should be music not performed by the student at a previous jury. All music, with the exception of chamber music, must be memorized by pianists and vocalists. Orchestral instrumentalists need memorize concertos only. The MUSIC 428 recital is evaluated by Music faculty in lieu of a jury.

Practice Rooms
Practice space and pianos are provided at Conrad Grebel University College as facilities allow. Priority for practice room space is given to current Music Studio students, followed by Music majors and CGUC student residents. Practice rooms may be reserved by current Music Studio students for up to 2 hours per day (sign-up sheets posted on each practice room door). There are two sets of practice rooms. Rooms 1114 A to C are on the lower level, and have Upright Yamahas. Rooms 2407 A to E are on the 2nd floor across from the Resident Student Lounge. There are four Upright Yamahas and one Kawai baby grand in the 2nd floor set of practice rooms. Instrumental Chamber Ensembles may book practice time in one of the following rooms: Room 1209, 1206, 1205, or 1203. Water only in practice rooms, no food.

Proficiency Level
All Music majors are required to perform at least a Grade 10 RCM level by the time they have completed MUSIC 327.

Recitals
Music Studio students typically perform in a student recital for their peers and the greater public at the end of each term. Participation in a student recital is encouraged, but not required for students in MUSIC 226 and 227 (consult your instructor). Student recital participation is required for MUSIC 326, 327, 426, 427 and 428. Student recitals are scheduled for Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, or Thursday at 12:30 p.m. near the end of term. Recitals take place in the CGUC Chapel and normally last no more than 50 minutes. Students are expected to attend the entire recital in which they perform. Students will be assigned a recital date based on their class schedule and will receive a recital permit which needs to be completed in consultation with their studio instructor and returned no later than two weeks prior to the recital date.

Studio Instructors
See “Faculty and Staff” on the music website for a list of studio instructors.
The Music Department offers annual special topics courses to enrich the course offerings available to students.

Note: If 390 has already been taken, then register for 391.

New this year:  Special Topics in Global Music:  Music 392
A study of a selected topic in global music.

NEW COURSES:

Music in Cultural Contexts  MUSIC 110
An intensive study of music from around the globe and throughout the ages, employing several approaches in studying how music reflects and responds to its diverse social, political, and historical contexts. This will be team taught by three different faculty members.

Music Cognition  Music 231
The study of music from a behavioural science perspective. Topics include auditory perception, creativity and aesthetic experience, emotive human responses, and the social psychology of music activities. Recent research in the field of music cognition will be explored in detail.

Music as a Global Phenomenon  Music 232
A survey of music studied in cross-cultural perspective with regard to its sound, performance practices, meanings, and functions from selected world traditions found in the diverse cultures of Africa, Asia, Latin America, North America, Europe, and the Middle East.

Musical Rhythm in Global Perspective  Music 233
A multidisciplinary survey of rhythm in selected musics examined in terms of scientific, symbolic, and experiential knowledge that connects it to the concepts of time, history, biology, evolution, anthropology, philosophy, psychology, and contemporary globalized culture.

Music for Vocal Ensemble  Music 262
A survey of the great masterpieces for vocal ensemble from Medieval times to the present studied through reading, lecture, and listening. Principle choral genres of each historical era are studied and discussed including works performed by the Grand Philharmonic Choir during the term.

Music and Landscape  Music 333
This course explores how landscape is represented in music from Vivaldi and Beethoven to popular genres and Canadian music. Topics include the role of landscape and music in cultural identity, ways in which music evokes space and place, music and the environment, soundscape, and site-specific music.

Perspectives in Music and Peace  MUSIC 335
This course examines music’s role in peace and conflict from a variety of perspectives through listening, reading, discussion, and using examples from around the world. Topics include the use of music in dissent and resistance, and as an instrument of propaganda, conflict, and peacebuilding.
DIRECTED STUDIES: MUSIC 380 and 381

Upper-year Music majors and minors are eligible to propose a course of directed studies (Music 380 or 381), which entails individual study of a specialized topic under the guidance of a full-time member of the music faculty.

The purpose of the directed studies course is to permit students to pursue a topic of the student's own choosing. Students might be interested in pursuing further studies beyond an existing course they have taken (e.g. composition, piano literature, medieval music, women in music, psychology of music, etc.). Alternatively, the student might wish to propose studies in areas not served by the existing music curriculum (e.g. arranging, analysis, biography, etc). A Directed Studies course may involve a regime of reading, listening, score analysis, or a project of the student's devising. A major goal of the Directed Studies courses is to encourage students to read scholarly writings on music and to increase their familiarity with musical repertoire.

Since supervision is at the discretion of the faculty member, the student needs to show sufficient initiative, independence, and resourcefulness to attract the voluntary participation of a faculty member.

Students are encouraged to speak to the Undergraduate Officer and submit a directed-studies proposal before the term in which they would like to take the course.

Admission to Music 380 and Music 381 requires Music Department consent.

HONOURS RESEARCH SEMINAR (MUSIC 491)
and
SENIOR HONOURS THESIS (MUSIC 492)

Music 491 and 492 are open to senior Honours Music majors through Department consent.

Music 491: Honours Research Seminar (0.5 units) is offered each fall term and is designed to give students an opportunity to develop and hone research and writing techniques through individual research projects and regular meetings with other students and faculty. In a small-group setting, students are guided through each stage of research and essay-writing: deciding on a topic and scope, developing a brief proposal, accessing and assessing appropriate sources, creating an outline, and writing and editing the paper. Students will also share what they have learned with their peers through a brief in-class presentation and regular progress reports.

Music 492: Senior Honours Thesis (0.5 units): Students may wish to write a Senior Honours Thesis over two terms rather than a term paper. This can be done by taking Music 491 followed by 492 in a subsequent term. Students are encouraged, however, to identify their intention of writing a thesis in Music 492 in the first few weeks of Music 491, so that a suitable faculty advisor can be found and so that the project’s scope and topic can be adapted accordingly.

The length of the thesis should be between 5000 and 7500 words. The final copy should be typed, double spaced, and include footnotes or endnotes and bibliography. The grade for Music 492 is based on the final essay submission and is assigned by the faculty advisor and a second reader.

The student is expected to demonstrate at the end of Music 492:
1. sufficient familiarity with some of the basic and most essential literature on the subject (primary and secondary sources)
2. clarity on the main issues and the related issues to the subject
3. the ability to make a reasonably learned exposition of the question(s) under discussion
4. some comprehensiveness, inclusion of knowledge from various fields of music, and awareness of their methodologies.

Music 491 and 492 are recommended for all Honours Music students intending to pursue graduate studies.

MUSIC COURSES AT WILFRID LAURIER UNIVERSITY

Music Majors and Minors may take Music courses at WLU under the following circumstances:

- an equivalent course is not offered at UW, or an unavoidable scheduling conflict exists.

Cross-Registration Form/Letter of Permission Form

To register for a WLU course students must complete and submit a Cross-Registration Form (found on the Registrar’s Web page at http://registrar.uwaterloo.ca/forms/).

Restrictions

Certain restrictions apply to courses in the area of Performance and Music Education:

Courses in Performance (such as the summer Intensive in Voice, Diction for Singers, Acting for Singers) may be taken in lieu of, but not in addition to, the maximum number of Music Studio courses allowed in your particular programme. (See "Availability of Music Studio Courses" above.)
FINANCIAL AID AND SCHOLARSHIPS

Financial Aid

A number of bursaries are available for Music majors who demonstrate financial need. Application forms for aid can be obtained from the Music Administrative Assistant or at https://uwaterloo.ca/grebel/financial-aid-awards/academic-student-awards#Music. Applications for financial aid are dealt with in the order received; students may apply at any time. Financial forms should be returned to the Chair of the Scholarships and Bursaries Committee (Paul Penner) at Conrad Grebel University College.

Bursary recipients are required to take at least two music courses per term during the period for which the bursary is awarded.

Scholarships

Jean Caya Music Awards & Rudolf and Hedwig Rempel Music Awards
The Music Department offers several new awards of approximately $2000 each year. Awards are renewable for a total of four years, provided that the recipient maintains good standing in an Honours Music, Joint Honours Music or Music and Business degree plan.

Awards are offered to students entering their first or second year who are either intending to major in Music (if entering first year) or who have declared Music as their major (if entering second year). Recipients must be enrolled in at least two music courses per term during each academic year for which the award has been made.

Students entering first year: The award is based on an audition for Music Studio, an interview, and the secondary school transcript. Contact the Music Department Office (to arrange an audition and to indicate your interest in the award).

Phone: (519) 885-0220 ext. 24226
Email: music@uwaterloo.ca

Students entering second year: The award is based on academic performance during first year, Music Studio marks (or performance on the Music Studio audition, if Studio has not yet been taken), and assessment by the Music faculty. Contact the Music Undergraduate Officer to indicate your interest in the award.

Dr. Mark Vuorinen, Music Undergraduate Officer
Phone: (519) 885-0220 ext. 24220 Email: mvuorinen@uwaterloo.ca

Clemens Scholarships in Music
Several awards are given annually to upper year Music majors. Awards are based on the following criteria: academic excellence, achievement in performance, and overall contribution to the Music program. Recipients must be enrolled in at least two music courses per term during the academic year for which the award has been made. No application is necessary.

Agnes Giesbrecht Choral Music Scholarship
This award of approximately $1000 supports and promotes choral music and training among students enrolled in the Music program. The recipient will be a member of the Chapel Choir and serve as assistant to the Chapel Choir Director during the academic year for which the award is given. The award is based on the student's academic record, active involvement in the Music program, vocal ability, and interest in choral music, including the Russian Mennonite choral music tradition.
Ford-Harrison Church Music Award
The award is available to students enrolled in one of the Church Music and Worship academic plans to offset expenses related to tuition fees or enrichment activities in the area of church music and worship. Application is by letter to the Director of the Church Music and Worship program.

Faculty of Arts Upper Year Scholarship
At the discretion of the department, this scholarship is awarded to music majors with a minimum overall average of 83%. Recipients must have taken at least 10 term courses at University of Waterloo.

Music and Culture Travel Award
Wilbur Maust was a member of the Music faculty at Conrad Grebel University College from 1977 to 1996. During his tenure, he led music and culture tours to Vienna and donated funds to make this experience possible for students. One award of up to $750 is given annually to support a Music student who wishes to participate in a University of Waterloo Department of Music “Music and Culture” travel course. The recipient will be nominated by the Music Department and chosen by the College Scholarships and Bursaries Committee, giving preference to the following criteria:

1. Students who are enrolled in a Music and Culture course (Music 355) for credit.
2. Students with financial need will be given priority, all else being equal.
3. Students who have demonstrated involvement in the Music program (eg. Music majors and minors).

SERVICES AVAILABLE TO MUSIC STUDENTS
The Cafeteria is available to everyone every day, except for Wednesday supper. Meal times are as follows: Breakfast (7:30am-10:30am); Lunch (11:30am-1:30pm); and Supper (5:00pm-6:30pm). The microwave in the cafeteria is also available for student use. The Common Ground Coffee Bar in the Upper Atrium also carries snacks and drinks. Please note that the cafeteria and coffee bar are cash-only.

The Milton Good Library is located on the third floor and is a great place to study. You can find Music Course Reserves, music scores, and other resources for projects and papers. The Milton Good Library has two group study rooms available by reservation. Library hours are: Monday to Thursday 8:30am - 10:00pm; Friday 8:30am- 6:00pm; Saturday 1:00pm- 5:00pm
Closed Sundays and Statutory Holidays

Parking passes are available for purchase to full-time music majors. Forms can be picked up at the Grebel Main Office. A limited number of instrument lockers are available. Please see Music Office.

LIVING-LEARNING PROGRAM
As a first year Music Student either living in the Grebel Residence or as a Grebel Associate, you may apply to be part of the Living-Learning program with other music students. A limited number of spaces are available.

Why be part of a Living-Learning program? Experience the best of both worlds: be part of a diverse residence community of 142 students from all faculties and programs, while enjoying the benefits of growing with a small group of Music students and faculty. You will participate in academic events, benefit from the experience of peer leaders as you plan your goals, and make a difference as you share what you are learning with the wider Grebel community. In Grebel's Music Living-Learning program, you will:

- Live with other students who are interested in Music.
- Get to know Music faculty and staff outside class.
- Learn from the experiences of upper year Music students. Find out about courses, activities, and opportunities.
- Participate in discussions about music, culture, theory, and more.
- Be part of various musical productions, programs, and activities.

STUDENT SUCCESS OFFICE

The Student Success Office services are available to all University of Waterloo Students.

- Workshops are offered on campus to help improve your academic performance and study skills, manage stress or prepare for your future.

- Make a success coaching appointment with an upper year peer success coach to get help setting goals and learn about strategies that can help you with everything from time management to test taking skills.

- Can't make it to campus? Check out our online resources that you can access anywhere. We offer everything from an online time management workshop to tip sheets on note taking and life skills.

- Peer mentorship programs can connect you with upper-year mentors who act as a non-judgmental, approachable and knowledgeable first resource and support system.

- Complimentary drop-in tutoring is available each term for a variety of courses. Students enrolled in any of the courses listed may attend to get academic support.

- On Tutor Connect you can search for a tutor or register to be a tutor for a specific course.

- Don't see what you're looking for? Contact success@uwaterloo.ca. We're always happy to hear your suggestion.

ASSOCIATE STUDENT STATUS

As a Music student, you will be spending much of your time at Conrad Grebel University College. You may want a fuller participation in the student life of the college than just taking courses. The College’s Associate Student programme may provide the kind of involvement you would like.

When students choose to become Associate student members of the College, it is understood that they want to be part of the Grebel community. They are given most of the same privileges and responsibilities as residents, and they are regarded as full time participants in the College's academic, social and religious life. This gives students the freedom to feel at home and, in turn, it gives the Grebel community the freedom to ask for input from the Associates. The fall retreat and the weekly Community Suppers provide Associates with invaluable opportunities to meet and identify with the rest of the CGUC community.

Not only does the programme attract new students, but also returning students, many of whom once lived in residence and want to continue their involvement with Grebel instructors, friends, and activities. The Associate programme is very popular, and membership is limited to 65 students.

Grebel Associates are entitled to:

- Invitations to all Grebel activities, including fall and winter orientation events, Student Council events, Community Suppers, Chapel, and end-of-term banquets.
- Participation in athletic teams, student societies, and student government offices, as outlined in the Student Council's constitution.
- Use of Grebel facilities, including the study lounge, television lounges, games room, lockers and a mailbox.
- Receive newsletters, college newspaper, address/phone lists, etc.
- Access to parking sticker (as available) at student cost.
- Opportunity for part-time employment at the college.

Applications are available from the College Main Office. Applications should be returned to:

   Director of Student Services
   Conrad Grebel University College
   Waterloo, ON  N2L 3G6

MUSIC SOCIETY

MuSoc, or the UW Music Society, is around to further the musical community at and around the University of Waterloo. We aim to support the musical groups on campus through our concert calendar, while also hosting events which allow the music students to get to know each other, and learn the faces of our department.

SPECIALIZATIONS
The following specializations are open to all students majoring in Music. Music students may elect to complete either the Music in Global Context Specialization or the Music and Peace Specialization, but not both.

Church Music and Worship Specialization
The Church Music and Worship Specialization requires successful completion of 3.0 academic course units:

- MUSIC 222, MUSIC 322
- MUSIC 363/CMW 363/RS 357, MUSIC 364/CMW 364/RS 358
two of:
  - CMW 201 and CMW 202 (0.25 unit each)
  - RS 152 or RS 250
  - RS 235 or RS 236
  - RS 240/HIST 235

Notes:
1. All courses listed above in the Church Music and Worship Specialization that are taken by a student will count towards the student's Music major average. If achievement in the non-major courses causes a drop below the major average requirements students will normally be allowed to continue in the Music major but without the specialization.

2. Courses should be chosen in consultation with the Director of the plan. Alternative courses may be approved by the Director.

Music in Global Context Specialization
The Music in Global Context Specialization requires successful completion of six courses (five half-credit courses and two quarter-credit courses):

- MUSIC 232, MUSIC 233
- three of MUSIC 231, MUSIC 333, MUSIC 334, MUSIC 355, MUSIC 392
- enrolment in two of MUSIC 116, MUSIC 117, MUSIC 216, MUSIC 217, MUSIC 316, MUSIC 317, specified as World Music Ensemble

Music and Peace Specialization
The Music and Peace Specialization requires successful completion of five courses:

- MUSIC 335
- three of MUSIC 231, MUSIC 232 or MUSIC 233, MUSIC 334, MUSIC 355, an additional PACS course from the list below but not already taken
- one of PACS 201, PACS 202, PACS 203

Note:
All courses listed above in the Music and Peace Specialization that are taken by a student will count towards the student's Music major average. If achievement in the non-major courses causes a drop below the major average requirements students will normally be allowed to continue in the Music major but without the specialization.
Music Minor

Students enrolled in any degree program may pursue a minor designation in Music.

The Music Minor requires successful completion of a minimum of four academic course units (eight courses) in Music with a minimum cumulative average of 65%, including:

- MUSIC 110, MUSIC 270
- six additional MUSIC courses selected in consultation with the Music Department
- participation in at least two terms of Music Ensemble: MUSIC 116, MUSIC 117, MUSIC 216, MUSIC 217, MUSIC 316, MUSIC 317; which may not be counted as part of the eight course requirement.

Note: Students electing to take Music studio must arrange for an audition before the Music faculty. Normally a level of performance equal to Grade Eight standing at the Royal Conservatory of Music of Toronto is expected for admission to Music studio. Students pursuing a Music Minor may take a maximum of three terms of Music studio.

Church Music and Worship Minor & Diploma

Students enrolled in any degree program may pursue a minor designation in Church Music and Worship.

The Church Music and Worship Minor requires successful completion of a minimum of four academic course units (eight courses) with a minimum cumulative average of 65%, including:

- CMW 363/MUSIC 363/RS 357
- CMW 364/MUSIC 364/RS 358
- one of MUSIC 253, MUSIC 254, MUSIC 262
- one of RS 130/JS 131, RS 235, RS 236
- one of HIST 235/RS 240, HIST 348/RS 344, HIST 379/RS 343, RS 348
- one of RS 151, RS 152, RS 250, RS 257, RS 286
- two of the following (not already selected above):
  - CMW 201 and CMW 202 (two terms of Worship Practicum)
  - MUSIC 222, MUSIC 232, MUSIC 233, MUSIC 376
  - MUSIC 253, MUSIC 254, MUSIC 262 (if not chosen above)

Notes

1. Courses should be chosen in consultation with the Director of the plan. Alternative courses may be approved by the Director.
2. No one course may fulfill more than one requirement within the Church Music and Worship plan.
