Welcome!

Welcome to University of Waterloo’s Department of Music at Conrad Grebel University College. Whether you are taking only a few Music courses or completing a degree with a major or minor in Music, we hope that you will find your time here stimulating and enriching and the community of students, staff and faculty supportive and friendly.

This handbook contains important information about various aspects of the Music program. Please take time to read through it carefully. For more information about being a student at the University of Waterloo, consult the UW Undergraduate Calendar and the course offerings list available on the music website.

Conrad Grebel University College has been home to the University of Waterloo Music program since the 1960s and has offered BA degrees in Music since the 1970s, and over the years hundreds of students have graduated from Waterloo with degrees in Music. The Department of Music is large enough to create an interesting and vibrant community and yet small enough that each student can get to know staff and faculty personally.

As a department within the Faculty of Arts, the Music program espouses a strong liberal-arts orientation, exploring the role of music in human life. The traditional core areas of music history, theory, and performance are enriched by a global music dimension, with courses addressing questions at the vital intersection of disciplines. The University of Waterloo, with its tradition of collaboration and innovation, and Grebel, as a multi-disciplinary and interdisciplinary college, provide a richly supportive culture for this approach to the study of Music.

The Music Department includes a wide range of students from all faculties, providing vibrant interactions between students from diverse disciplines. Some students choose to major or minor in music, while others choose to take only a few music courses or participate in an ensemble. All ensembles are open to any student, staff, faculty, or community member, either as an extracurricular activity or for credit, with each ensemble presenting a concert at the end of term.

Please let us know if you have questions. We are here to help. The Music Office is located in Grebel Room 1103. Office hours are Monday to Friday, 9:00am to 4:00pm. The Administrative Assistant to the Music Department is Claudia Van Decker and the Music Assistant overseeing ensembles and noon-hour concerts is Angelica Allen. Academic counselling is available from the Undergraduate Officer, Professor Maisie Sum (Room 1102, ext 24219). The Chair of the Music Department is Professor Mark Vuorinen (Room 1103a, ext 24220). The general email is music@uwaterloo.ca.

Our best wishes for the 2019-20 academic year!

Members of the K-W Symphony Orchestra are available for studio instruction in most orchestral instruments.
Laura J. Gray received degrees in Music from Western, the University of British Columbia, and a Ph.D. in Music History from Yale University. Her main areas of research and publication include the music of the Finnish composer, Jean Sibelius, early 20th-century British music, the symphony, and early 20th-century music criticism and aesthetics. She has conducted research in Finland, England, and New York and presented scholarly papers nationally and internationally and has contributed to The Sibelius Companion, Sibelius Forum, MusicWorks, Studies in Music from The University of Western Ontario, Notes, and The Conrad Grebel Review. Most recently she presented papers on Sibelius at Stanford University and at the Sixth International Sibelius Congress in Hämeenlinna, Finland. Laura is currently working on a book on the so-called “Sibelius cult” in England in the 1930s. She teaches special interest courses on topics such as music and landscape, opera, and aesthetics, and has been the chair of Music since 2011.

Katherine Kennedy Steiner combines her interests in music, ritual practice, and communal identity in her research on medieval music. Her undergraduate degree at Wheaton College introduced her to the intricate beauty of early music. During her M.A.R. work at Yale Divinity School she learned about the ritual contexts in which most early music was performed. She went on to Princeton University to write a dissertation on music and liturgy in medieval St Andrews, offering new insight into an important collection of medieval polyphony. More broadly, Steiner researches the role of music in shaping communal identity through ritual practice and narrative history. Her published work includes an article on music for a Scottish saint in Plainsong and Medieval Music, and an edited volume of meditations on Scriptural songs, Come, Let us Sing to the Lord. She has held postdoctoral fellowships as a teaching scholar at Valparaiso University and as a Mellon Fellow at the Pontifical Institute for Mediaeval Studies. She has taught courses on Hildegard of Bingen, film music, Western music history, and liturgy. Her interest in contemporary worship led her to design a liturgy called Speravi, incorporating contemporary music into an ancient liturgy. She has also led early music vocal ensembles at Princeton University and the University of Notre Dame. At Grebel Katherine is the Director of the Church Music and Worship programme, and also the Director of the Chapel Choir.

Maisie Sum is an ethnomusicologist, educator, performer, and editorial board member of MUSICultures. Recipient of the 2014 Jaap Kunst Prize for an article published in African Music: Journal of the International Library of African Music, her research interests include the music traditions of Morocco and Indonesia, music associated with ritual, the impact of globalization on music traditions and identity, music, peace and conflict, musical rhythm and the brain, music and cognition, and music, health and wellbeing. As a member of Gamelan Gita Asmara (resident ensemble at The University of British Columbia) and Gamelan Giri Kedaton (resident ensemble at l’Université de Montréal), she has performed and studied Balinese music in Canada and Bali, Indonesia. At Conrad Grebel, Professor Sum is the general director of the UWaterloo Balinese Gamelan and teaches courses in music from a cross-cultural and interdisciplinary perspective. She is also the Undergraduate Officer, responsible for helping students with academic advising.

Karen Sunabacka is a composer, cellist and music theorist. She graduated with a PhD in Music Theory and Composition from the University of California at Davis in 2008. She completed her MA in Music Composition from San Francisco State University (2003) and her BMus from the University of Manitoba (2000). She taught Theory and Composition and was the Music Department Chair at Providence University College from 2007-2017.

In demand as a composer she sometimes finds it difficult to find a balance between teaching, composing and keeping up with the latest science fiction and fantasy book, film, or tv series. Some recent compositions include English Horn Concerto in Memory of Beverly Clouston for Orchestre
Metropolitain (Montreal), #DryColdConversations for the Winnipeg Symphony Orchestra, We all Sing for Conrad Grebel University College, and I Wasn’t Meant for This for Park Sounds (a Viola d’Amore and Percussion duo based in Montreal). Along with pieces about the natural beauty and winds of the Prairies, Karen has recently been exploring her Métis and Manitoba heritage through her mother’s prose (Joyce Clouston). She’s written pieces about her Métis Grandmother (Lenore Clouston), her aunt Beverly Clouston and her great-great Grandmother Mathilda.

Mark Vuorinen (Associate Professor and Chair of Music) holds a Doctor of Musical Arts degree from the University of Toronto and Master of Music degree from Yale University’s School of Music and Institute of Sacred Music. A well-known Canadian conductor, Mark is the artistic director and conductor of Waterloo Region’s Grand Philharmonic Choir, and the professional chamber choir The Elora Singers.

Prior to joining the Faculty of Conrad Grebel University College, Mark was an active church musician for fifteen years, most recently at the Church of the Redeemer (Anglican), Toronto and is past Music Director of the Toronto Chamber Choir. A recipient of many awards, is a Laureate of the Ontario Arts Council’s Leslie Bell Prize. He was named the E. Stanley Sedar Scholar at Yale University’s Institute of Sacred Music, was a recipient of the Elmer Iseler National Graduate Fellowship in Choral Conducting and received a 2016 National Choral Award from the Choral Canada (Association of Canadian Choral Communities) for his doctoral research on Estonian composer Arvo Pärt.

At Conrad Grebel University College, Mark is the Director of the UW Chamber Choir and teaches courses in conducting. His musical interests dovetail with Grebel’s intersection of religious studies, peace studies, and music. Mark is a frequent guest conductor, choral adjudicator and clinician and is President of Choirs Ontario. He is the Department of Music Chair as of July 1, 2019.

ARTIST-IN-RESIDENCE

I Dewa Made Suparta is Artist-in-Residence at Conrad Grebel University College, University of Waterloo. A performer, composer, and teacher of Balinese music, Dewa Suparta hails from a prominent musical family and is founding member of Gamelan Çudamani, an innovative ensemble renowned throughout Bali, Europe, and North America. He has composed, performed, and taught throughout Bali, has toured internationally, engaged in collaborations with international artists, and given workshops worldwide. Dewa Suparta held the position of Visiting Professor in the Faculty of Music at l’Université de Montréal from 2009 to 2013. Since 2009 he has been artistic director of Montreal’s Gamelan Giri Kedaton and a regular guest artist of Ottawa’s Gamelan Semara Winangun. As Grebel’s Artist-in-Residence, he is artistic director of the UWaterloo Balinese Gamelan and has been instrumental in establishing the new Grebel Community Balinese Gamelan. Since his arrival, the Department of Music’s offerings in global music and community outreach activities have expanded to include courses in Balinese music and culture, a second world music ensemble (gamelan gender wayang, also referred to as chamber gamelan), workshops, and more.
MUSIC ENSEMBLES

The University of Waterloo Department of Music at Conrad Grebel University College invites students, faculty, staff and community members to join any of the eight musical ensembles that it sponsors and organizes. You can perform in any of the ensembles listed below for course credit or just for your own enjoyment. Regular attendance at rehearsals is required, and attendance at dress rehearsals and performances is mandatory. Most of these groups will present at least one concert during the term. For more information about singing or playing in an ensemble, visit the Department of Music website (www.uwaterloo.ca/music), call the Music Office (885-0220 ext. 24226), or e-mail us at music@uwaterloo.ca. Sign-up for all Music Ensembles auditions are posted online at least two weeks before the start of each term, so please follow the links from our music website.

The following music ensembles are offered in 2019-20:

Chamber Choir: Directed by Mark Vuorinen, the Chamber Choir meets every Tuesday and Thursday in the Conrad Grebel University College Chapel from 4:00-5:30 p.m. beginning the first week of classes each Fall and Winter term. Recent highlights include performances of Benjamin Britten’s Rejoice in the Lamb, J.S. Bach’s St. John Passion, the Canadian Premiere of Considering Matthew Shepard. The choir has worked with internationally renowned musicians Ėriks Ešenvalds and Sir James MacMillan and has given performances with the Grand Philharmonic Choir, Kitchener-Waterloo Symphony, the Cardinal Consort of Viols. The UWCC is an auditioned ensemble of the Department of Music at Conrad Grebel University College. Choristers are primarily undergraduate students representing all of the University of Waterloo’s faculties.

University Choir: Directed by Liska Jetchick, the University Choir meets every Tuesday evening in Conrad Grebel University College Chapel from 7-10pm, during all three terms. This large, choral ensemble performs works across a broad range of styles from international folk music, cross-cultural musics, and Canadian music, with extensive forays into the classical works for large choirs, including works such as Handel’s Messiah, Brahms’s Requiem, and Orff’s Carmina Burana. Choir membership requires a vocal interview with the director. Please check the music department website for information and online signup. Membership reopens each school term with choir membership varying between 70-90 singers.

Chapel Choir: Directed by Katharine Steiner, the Chapel Choir meets every Monday from 3:30-5:20p.m. and Wednesday from 3:30-5:30 p.m. in the Conrad Grebel University College Chapel beginning the first week of each fall and winter term. This group of about 20 singers participates in College chapel services (Wednesdays, 4:30-5:30 p.m.) and occasionally visits area churches or other venues.

Vocal Techniques: Taught by Stephanie Kramer, Vocal Techniques is structured in a lab format covering the foundations of singing – basic pedagogy, diction/phonetics, practice routines, and performance tips – designed to prepare students for more in-depth individual voice instruction. This course is also useful for pianists interested in vocal accompanying. The class begins the first week of term, and is held every Wednesday from 7-9 p.m. A vocal interview is required. Sign up on the sheet posted outside the Music Office. This ensemble is offered during the fall term only.

World Music Ensemble – Balinese Gamelan: Directed by Prof. Maisie Sum and Grebel Artist-in-Residence, I Dewa Made Suparta, the ensemble meets on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 4:00 to 5:30PM. On the island of Bali, Indonesia the idea of community and the spirit of interaction are highly valued and extend to music-making. Being an aural/oral tradition, repertoire—from ritual pieces to modern compositions, instrumental or dance—is learned and played without the use of music notation; that is, through listening, watching, imitation and repetition. Students experience this communal process of creating a unified sound on a gamelan semaradana (one of several types of gamelan found in Bali) consisting of gongs, metallophones, and drums. All interested students are encouraged to come to the first rehearsal. No audition is required; however, your intention to join is highly recommended (via email). Selection will be necessary if enrolment limits are surpassed. Gamelan or percussion experience is not required. This ensemble runs each fall and winter term, with an additional intensive course in spring.

Instrumental Chamber Ensembles: Directed by Ben Bolt-Martin, Instrumental Chamber Ensembles meet at different times during the week, depending on the schedule of the members of your ensemble, beginning the first week of classes each fall, winter, and spring term. Instrumentalists interested in playing in small groups of approximately 3 - 8 players may join this group of ensembles. Musicians perform a wide variety of works from medieval times to the twentieth century. Although the majority of the groups feature stringed instruments, we also welcome wind instruments in these ensembles.

Orchestra@uwaterloo: Directed by Daniel Warren, this large symphonic ensemble performs classical pieces. The orchestra rehearses on Thursday nights starting at 7:00 p.m. It starts with an open rehearsal every term, and then additional audition times are available following the open rehearsal. The orchestra meets each fall, winter, and spring term. Orchestra@uwaterloo is re-formed each term based on auditions. Undergraduate students form the majority of the orchestra's 60–70 musicians, though it also has faculty, staff, graduate students, and alumni. It presents an academic cross-section of the university, with the Math and Engineering Faculties particularly well-represented.

Jazz Ensemble: The Jazz Ensemble is a full ensemble employing saxophones, trombones, trumpets, piano, bass, drums and other percussion. Rehearsals are Monday evenings 7-10 pm with sectionals as needed. To audition, sign up on the bulletin board outside the Music Office (CGUC 1103). Directed by Michael Wood, this ensemble has a concert at the end of the fall and winter terms. Time is spent on learning to succeed in the “business” of music.

Music Ensemble Credit
Each term of Music Ensemble is worth 0.25 units. Up to six terms of Music Ensemble may be taken for credit, but only four 0.25-unit courses may be counted towards any degree in the Faculty of Arts (the last two terms of ensemble, Music 316 and 317, in addition to any other non-music 0.25-unit courses, will not count towards any Arts degree.) Music Ensemble requirements for all Music plans must be met above the specified number of Music courses required (see plan requirements below).

If you wish to receive credit for Music Ensemble, you must register for it on Quest before the add period ends. The first term of Ensemble is Music 116 (with 117, 216, 217, 316, and 317 used for successive terms). Music Ensemble is normally taken above the usual 5-course full load, and each ensemble course is graded on a Credit/No Credit basis. Note: Admission to any ensemble offered through the University of Waterloo Music Department is based on audition and is at the discretion of the director.
CONCERTS & RECITALS

Attendance at recitals and concerts is a part of your music education and an expression of support for your fellow students. You are expected to attend concerts whenever possible.

These free concerts are presented in the fall and winter terms and feature classical, jazz, world music, and contemporary works. Noon Hour Concerts take place on most Wednesdays, 12:30-1:20pm, in the CGUC Chapel. These are posted outside the Music office and also on the web site at https://uwaterloo.ca/music/events.

Student recitals are scheduled for the end of each term. Students in Music 326, 327, 426, 427 and 428 are required to perform in recitals. Students in Music 226 and 227 are encouraged to perform.

⇒ Fall student recital dates: Nov 20 or 22, 21, 25 and 26.

Winter student recital dates: tba

Graduation recitals are given by all students registered for Music 428.

Ensemble Concerts are given at the end of Fall, Winter, and Spring terms. See the Grebel Music website: uwaterloo.ca/music/events.

MUSIC STUDIO COURSES

Music Studio courses offer individual instruction in voice, piano, organ, all orchestral instruments, saxophone, and guitar. The Music Studio courses are MUSIC 226, 227, 326, 327, 426, 427, and 428. Students who are applying to take Music Studio for the first time should read “Admission to Music Studio” carefully. Students who have already taken their first term of Music Studio should skip down to the section “Registering for Music Studio”.

Admission To Music Studio
Admission to Music Studio is by audition. The purpose of the auditions is to ensure that students have already attained a degree of accomplishment (typically Grade 8 Royal Conservatory or its equivalent) and show sufficient promise to merit this kind of instruction for credit. When there are more qualified students auditioning than there are places available, the faculty will select the most suitable candidates on a competitive basis.

Arranging your Audition
Students who wish to take Music Studio should contact the Music Department Administrative Assistant by phone (519-885-0220 extension 24226) or email (music@uwaterloo.ca) to arrange for an audition well before the audition dates. Auditions for Fall term are typically held during Orientation Week in September. For Winter and Spring terms, auditions are held in the first day of classes in January and May, respectively. See the Music website for exact audition dates: http://www.uwaterloo.ca/music/auditions. Auditioning students should bring a completed “Prospective Music Student Information Form” (available on the Music Office bulletin board and in pdf format on the website) with them to the audition.

Audition Requirements
Students should prepare two contrasting pieces (or movements of longer works) by different composers to perform at the audition. Voice and piano students are encouraged (but not required) to perform their selected works from memory. The audition will include sight-reading and a brief interview by two faculty members. An accompanist will be provided for singers and instrumentalists free of charge. At least one piece must be accompanied, with the following exceptions: piano, guitar, organ. Please bring two copies of the music you will perform: one for the faculty hearing the audition and one copy of the accompaniment part (if applicable). Auditions are 15 minutes in length.

Audition Procedure
Plan to arrive at least one half hour prior to your scheduled audition time. Upon arrival, first go to the Music Office (Room 1104 at Conrad Grebel University College) where the Music Department Administrative Assistant can verify that you have the necessary paperwork. You will then be directed to a practice room in order to warm-up. Plan to arrive at your actual audition room 10 minutes early. Bring the required audition materials (the Prospective Music Student Information form and copies of your music) and your personal belongings with you to the audition.

Audition Results
Audition results will be emailed by the Music Office after all the auditions have been heard and the Music faculty has had an opportunity to confer (within 24 hours of the last audition).

Accompanists
Accompanist for auditions is provided free of charge. All Music Studio students (except pianists) are entitled to one hour per term with an accompanist in order to prepare for recitals and juries. A sign-up list of available times with the accompanist will be posted outside the Music Office well in advance of these events. Times are scheduled in 30-minute blocks.
Lessons
Each term consists of nine hours of individual instruction, typically given as twelve weekly 45-minute lessons. Occasionally, an instructor may structure the nine hours of instruction in fewer, longer lessons. The instructor is not obligated to reschedule if a student misses lessons.

Proficiency Level required
All Music majors are required to perform at least a Grade 10 RCM level by the time they have completed MUSIC 327.

Evaluation
Music Studio students are evaluated based on their work and attendance at lessons, their jury performance (the jury is a performance-based "final exam" at the end of the term), and their attendance at Masterclass and student recitals. Your final Music Studio mark will be determined as follows:

- Instructor’s mark: 66.7%
- Jury mark (average of the 2 jurors’ marks): 33.3%

Failure to attend Masterclasses and at least two student recitals will reduce your final grade by up to 10%. A final mark of at least 65% must be obtained in order to proceed to the next term of Music Studio, except in the case of MUSIC 426 when the student is proceeding to MUSIC 428, where a mark of at least 85% is required from both the instructor and the jurors’ average (Note: if taken Music 246 is taken before Winter 2020, then

Recitals
Music Studio students typically perform in a student recital for their peers and the greater public at the end of each term. Participation in a student recital is encouraged, but not required for students in MUSIC 226 and 227 (consult your instructor). Student recital participation is required for MUSIC 326, 327, 426, 427 and 428. Student recitals are scheduled for Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, or Thursday at 12:30 p.m. near the end of term. Recitals take place in the CGUC Chapel and normally last no more than 50 minutes. Students are expected to attend the entire recital in which they perform. Students will be assigned a recital date based on their class schedule and will receive a recital permit which needs to be completed in consultation with their studio instructor and returned no later than two weeks prior to the recital date.

Juries
The “jury” is the final exam for Music Studio. Juries are held on the weekday after the last day of classes each term. The jury schedule is posted on the bulletin board outside the Music Office at least two weeks prior to the scheduled jury date. The requirements for juries are as follows:

- Be prepared to perform two pieces (or movements from larger works) in contrasting styles and by different composers.
- Studies may not be used as jury pieces
- Vocalists and pianists are required to perform from memory. Other instrumentalists may use music at their jury.
- Do not play repeats for your jury performance.
- Bring two copies of your music for the jurors’ use.
- Bring a typed list of all repertoires you studied during the term, signed by your instructor.
- Arrive at least 10 minutes before your assigned time.
- Have your instrument tuned and ready to play before you enter the jury room.
- Leave coats and backpacks outside the jury room.
- You will receive a Teacher Evaluation form to fill out after your jury; please complete it and return it to the Music Office immediately following your jury.
Jury results will be available in the Music Office only after final marks for the course have been posted. Your Teacher Evaluation must be returned before viewing jury results.

Masterclass

‘Masterclass’ refers to group performance classes. In addition to individualized instruction, all Music Studio students are required to attend scheduled masterclasses. For example, a group of instrumental students might meet with a studio instructor for two hours one day to perform for each other, receive constructive critique, and learn new techniques.

MUSIC 428: Graduation Recital

Honours and Joint Honours Music students may wish to perform a graduation recital as part of their degree. This is done by taking MUSIC 428. Admission to MUSIC 428 is determined by the marks received in MUSIC 426. You must receive a mark of at least 85% in MUSIC 426 from both your instructor and the average of the two jurors’ marks. Students wishing to enroll in MUSIC 428 should indicate their intention at the time of their 426 jury. A proposed recital program should be submitted to the Music Department for approval by the second week of the term. A form for this purpose can be obtained from the Music Office when you enroll in Studio, along with a sheet on further information and tips. The recital should consist of 20-30 minutes of music, and a variety of style periods should be represented. A minimum of 1/3 of the recital program should be music not performed by the student at a previous jury. All music, with the exception of chamber music, must be memorized by pianists and vocalists. Orchestral instrumentalists need memorize concertos only. The MUSIC 428 recital is evaluated by Music faculty in lieu of a jury. Your final Music Studio mark will be determined as follows:

Practice Rooms

Practice space and pianos are provided at Conrad Grebel University College as facilities allow. Priority for practice room space is given to current Music Studio students, followed by Music majors and CGUC student residents. Practice rooms may be reserved by current Music Studio students for up to 2 hours per day (sign-up sheets posted on each practice room door). There are two sets of practice rooms. Rooms 1114 A to C are on the lower level, and have Upright Yamahas. Rooms 2407 A to E are on the 2nd floor across from the Resident Student Lounge. There are four Upright Yamahas and one Kawai baby grand in the 2nd floor set of practice rooms. Instrumental Chamber Ensembles may book practice time in one of the following rooms: Room 1209, 1206, 1205, or 1203. Water only in practice rooms, no food.

Lockers

Instrument storage lockers are available in the Practice rooms on the second floor. REGISTERING FOR MUSIC STUDIO

Ensemble Participation Requirement
All students who enroll in Music Studio must participate in an ensemble for credit during that term. There is a separate audition to be admitted into an ensemble. See the Music Office bulletin board and the website for more information.

Studio Fee
In addition to tuition, there is a fee to take Music Studio. This fee covers the higher cost of providing one-on-one instruction to students as well as the use of a piano accompanist and masterclass instruction. The fee for Fall 2019 to Winter 2020 is $306.00.

Enrollment Procedure
1. Students who have been accepted by audition into Music Studio must then visit the Music Office in order to obtain a permission number that will allow them to add it to their timetable on Quest. Before you visit the Music Office, be sure to do the following:
2. Register online for Music Ensemble (MUSIC 116, 117, 216, 217, 316, or 317), which is the co-requisite for Music Studio. You must be registered for a Music Ensemble when taking Music Studio unless you have an exemption from the Undergraduate Officer.
3. Bring a copy of your timetable (printed in grid format off Quest) to give to the Music Department Administrative Assistant in the Music Office. This will be used to schedule you for masterclasses and student recitals.
4. Bring your Music Studio fee (debit, cash or cheque payable to “Conrad Grebel University College”). A receipt for your payment will be provided.

When you visit the Music Office (Room 1103), provided you have done all of the above, you will be given a permission number in order to enroll in Music Studio on Quest. A lesson time will also be arranged at that time. Remember that you also must audition for and be accepted into a music ensemble in addition to having registered for the ensemble online.

SPECIAL TOPICS COURSES: Music 390 & Music 392

The Music Department offers annual special topics seminar courses to enrich the course offerings available to students.

DIRECTED STUDIES: Music 380 and 381

Upper-year Music majors and minors are eligible to propose a course of directed studies (Music 380 or 381), which entails individual study of a specialized topic under the guidance of a full-time member of the music faculty.

The purpose of the directed studies course is to permit students to pursue a topic of the student's own choosing. Students might be interested in pursuing further studies beyond an existing course they have taken (e.g. composition, piano literature, medieval music, women in music, psychology of music, etc.). Alternatively, the student might wish to propose studies in areas not served by the existing music curriculum (e.g. arranging, analysis, biography, etc). A Directed Studies course may involve a regime of reading, listening, score analysis, or a project of the student's devising. A major goal of the Directed Studies courses is to encourage students to read scholarly writings on music and to increase their familiarity with musical repertoire.

Since supervision is at the discretion of the faculty member, the student needs to show sufficient initiative, independence, and resourcefulness to attract the voluntary participation of a faculty member.

Students are encouraged to speak to the Undergraduate Officer and submit a directed-studies proposal before the term in which they would like to take the course.

Admission to Music 380 and Music 381 requires Music Department consent.
HONOURS RESEARCH SEMINAR: Music 491
and
SENIOR HONOURS THESIS: Music 492

Music 491 and 492 are open to Music majors (level at least 3A) through Department consent.

Music 491: Honours Research Seminar (0.5 units) is designed to give students an opportunity to develop and hone research and writing techniques through individual research projects and regular meetings with other students and faculty.

Music 492: Senior Honours Thesis (0.5 units): Students may wish to write a Senior Honours Thesis over two terms rather than a term paper. This can be done by taking Music 491 followed by 492 in a subsequent term. Students are encouraged, however, to identify their intention of writing a before embarking on Music 491, so that a suitable faculty advisor can be found and so that the project’s scope and topic can be adapted accordingly.

The length of the thesis should be between 5000 and 7500 words. The final copy should be typed, double spaced, and include footnotes or endnotes and bibliography. The grade for Music 492 is based on the final essay submission and is assigned by the faculty advisor and a second reader.

The student is expected to demonstrate at the end of Music 492:
1. sufficient familiarity with some of the basic and most essential literature on the subject (primary and secondary sources)
2. clarity on the main issues and the related issues to the subject
3. the ability to make a reasonably learned exposition of the question(s) under discussion
4. some comprehensiveness, inclusion of knowledge from various fields of music, and awareness of their methodologies.

Music 491 and 492 are recommended for all Honours Music students intending to pursue graduate studies.
