Course Objective: Music 246 is a historical and aesthetic survey of the styles, trends, and important figures in the development of narrative film music, from the invention of moving pictures to the present day. The course will also include a discussion of the technical process of creating film music, as well as a review of the role of popular music in film.

The material will be presented through a series of audio recordings supported by a class-notes outline, audio and video examples, along with a few things that can be found on YouTube.

Term Test:
The tests will be in multiple-choice format and will be presented online through the Quiz section of the course webpage. The tests are NOT cumulative and will cover the preceding three weeks of class material (Test 1 covers weeks 1 to 3, Test 2 covers weeks 4 to 6, etc.). Each test should only require one hour to complete, but they will be available for two hours to allow for any accommodations as well as any technical issues. TEST FOUR IS NOT AN EXAM but will cover the final three weeks of class. It will be the same format as test one to three.

IF YOU MISS A TEST, PLEASE NOTIFY ME IMMEDIATELY.

Please note that all marks are final – adjustments or deferred tests will be granted in the case of documented illness or family emergency.

Viewing:
Students must view one film every week, as indicated in the Course Schedule. Questions will be posted on the course web site that will act as a guide to your viewing. Most of these films can be found through online streaming services. As a UW student, you have access to the Criterion Collection, and excellent online collection of hundreds of films. Most of the films we will be watching this term can be accessed through this site. On campus you should be able to link to the site here. Off campus you need to connect using this link and enter your last name and WatCard barcode number.

Web Page: This course will make use of a WATERLOO LEARN website. This site will provide general information for the course, study guides and grades for term tests. Important announcements such as the cancellation of class due to illness will also be posted there, so please try to check the site before each class, just in case.
General Faculty and University Policy:

Academic Integrity
Academic Integrity: In order to maintain a culture of academic integrity, members of the University of Waterloo are expected to promote honesty, trust, fairness, respect and responsibility.

Discipline: A student is expected to know what constitutes academic integrity, to avoid committing academic offences, and to take responsibility for his/her actions. A student who is unsure whether an action constitutes an offence, or who needs help in learning how to avoid offences (e.g., plagiarism, cheating) or about “rules” for group work/collaboration should seek guidance from the course professor, academic advisor, or the Undergraduate Associate Dean. When misconduct has been found to have occurred, disciplinary penalties will be imposed under Policy 71 – Student Discipline. For information on categories of offenses and types of penalties, students should refer to Policy 71 - Student Discipline.

Grievance: A student who believes that a decision affecting some aspect of his/her university life has been unfair or unreasonable may have grounds for initiating a grievance. Read Policy 70 - Student Petitions and Grievances, Section 4.

Appeals: A student may appeal the finding and/or penalty in a decision made under Policy 70 - Student Petitions and Grievances (other than regarding a petition) or Policy 71 - Student Discipline if a ground for an appeal can be established. Read Policy 72 - Student Appeals.

Other sources of information for students:

Academic Integrity website (Arts)

Academic Integrity Office (UWaterloo)

Accommodation for Students with Disabilities

Note for students with disabilities: The AccessAbility Services office, located in Needles Hall Room 1132, collaborates with all academic departments to arrange appropriate accommodations for students with disabilities without compromising the academic integrity of the curriculum. If you require academic accommodations to lessen the impact of your disability, please register with the AS office at the beginning of each academic term.

Covid 19: For this term, all course activity will take place online. Therefore, any changes to on-campus activity due to Covid 19 should not have any impact on the course delivery and evaluations. However, for those who seek more information on policies regarding Covid 19 should consult the University’s Covid Information Page.
