Music 255
The Romantic Century: Beethoven and Beyond
Syllabus (Fall 2021)

Lectures: Synchronous, Tues & Thurs, 2:30-3:45pm ET via Zoom

Class Materials: Available on Music 255 Learn Site

Instructor: Dr. Laura Gray, Associate Professor, Music

Office Hours: By appointment for video conferencing, or by email anytime.

Email: ljgray@uwaterloo.ca

Course Delivery
This class will meet twice a week via Zoom. (Links to biweekly class meetings and all materials for the course can be found on the Music 255 LEARN website.) This site will provide the syllabus and schedule, video recordings of class meetings, lecture slides or handouts, video links of excerpts, audio links, assignment posts and other materials. Weekly announcements will also be posted on the course Learn site that will also include the class meeting zoom links for the week, so please check in regularly. Instructions about accessing course materials are posted under contents.

Course Description:
A study of various musical genres of the 19th century in cultural, political, social and artistic contexts. Topics include the development and expansion of principal instrumental and vocal forms, the formation of ethnic identity and the expression of nationalism in symphonic music and opera, fierce debates between proponents of abstract and programmatic music, and stylistic differences between the music of Beethoven, Schubert, Schumann, Liszt, Chopin, Wagner, Verdi, Brahms, and others.

Prerequisite: None, but Music 100 or Music 110 or the ability to read music are assets.
Course Goals and Learning Outcomes:
By the end of the semester you should be able to:

- demonstrate solid knowledge of a body of 19th-century musical works and genres
- place studied musical works into a broader historical context, making meaningful connections between music and social and artistic trends
- communicate your ideas clearly, accurately and responsibly in written work in assignments and reflection papers
- Listen to music thoughtfully and critically

Notes on Assignments and Assessments: Alterations & New Assignments:

2 Reflection Notes (2 x10% = 20%):

Reflection 1: Beethoven: Mortality & Meaning, Quartet Op. 132

- A written response to the article “Mortality & Meaning of Beethoven’s Late Quartet, Op. 132” by Masumi Per Rostad, violist of the Pacifica Quartet on the third movement and its connection with Beethoven’s health.
- Maximum: 250 words
- Instructions in Assignment module on Learn
- Due: Fri Oct 1

Reflection 2: Words & Music: Song analysis

- An analysis of a song that is familiar to you (popular, rock, folk, classical).
- Apply the same analytical considerations to your song as we did to Schubert’s Gretchen am Spinnrade and Schumann’s songs from Dichterliebe:
  - Who is the poet or lyricist?
• What is the structure of the lyrics? (Is there a chorus? Does it rhyme? Are the verses set with the same music, is it strophic?)
• Who is the composer of the music (may be the same as the composer of the text)?
• Does the music reinforce the words, add meaning and emotion to the words, or even undermine the text? What elements of the music convey the meaning and emotion?

• Include a link or file of the song
• Maximum: 250 words
• Instructions in Assignment module on Learn
• Due: Fri Oct 8

Brief Listening Quiz 1 (10%):
• A listening quiz focusing on the musical features of pieces studied in the first half of the course (weeks 1-5).
• The quiz and instructions will be posted on Learn well ahead of the deadline and available in the Assignments module.
• There will be audio files that correspond to unidentified excerpts on the quiz.
• The quiz is not directly administered or timed.
• Please submit to dropbox file.
• Due: Fri Oct 22

Brief Listening Quiz 2 (10%):
• A listening quiz focusing on the musical features of pieces studied in the second half of the course (weeks 6-12).
• The quiz and instructions will be posted on Learn well ahead of the deadline and available in the Assignments module.
• There will be audio files that correspond to unidentified excerpts on the quiz.
• The quiz is not directly administered or timed.
• Please submit to dropbox file.
• Due: Fri Nov 26

Written Assignment 1 (20%):
• A written response to one question that involves larger-scale questions of music, and artistic, philosophical and social trends in the first half of the nineteenth century.
• Questions and instructions will be posted on Learn well ahead of the deadline and available in the Assignments module.
• Approximately 3 pages.
• Please submit to dropbox file.
• Due: Fri Nov 5

Written Assignment 2 (20%):
• A written response to one question that involves larger-scale questions of music, and artistic, philosophical and social trends in the second half of the nineteenth century.
Questions and instructions will be posted on Learn well ahead of the deadline and available in the Assignments module.

Approximately 3 pages.

Please submit to dropbox file.

Due: Tues Dec 7

Concert Review (20%):

A review of a full in-person or online concert featuring music of the nineteenth century.

There will be a selection of several online (streamed or recorded/archived) concerts with links available on Learn and links to local in-person concerts as information is available.

If you are not sure whether an online or in-person concert is appropriate, please check with me to ensure that the repertoire is in keeping with the assignment.

Instructions will be available in the Assignments module.

Approximately 3-4 pages.

Due: Fri Dec 10

9. Additional materials will be available on the Learn site.

10. Readings Available on LEARN:

Class Expectations: MUTUAL RESPECT

Communicating with each other:
- In all of our communications, we need to treat each other with respect and conduct ourselves professionally (including students and your teacher too).
- Music can generate strong feelings and opinions and debate among people and sometimes online communications can include comments that we would not use in face-to-face conversations.
- If you have experienced any disrespectful behaviour in our class, please contact me so that we can resolve this.
- The Centre for Teaching Excellence has a helpful guide for appropriate communication practices.

Communicating with your teacher:
- Please keep in touch! I will endeavor to keep the lines of communication open and flowing.
- Please let me know if you are experiencing difficulties in meeting deadlines or managing your workload, or if there is something that I can do to improve your experience.
- You can contact me by email: ljgray@uwaterloo.ca to ask a question or set up a video or phone meeting.
- I will post weekly greetings and reminders about upcoming due dates, concerts, or other course news to help keep us all on track.
Due dates, Penalties and Attendance:

- Students are expected to attend synchronous lectures, although absence will not be penalized. (Please see the schedule below.)
- Students are expected to submit assignments by the time and day indicated on the class schedule and on each assignment. All due dates are Fridays 11:59pm ET with one exception.
- Please submit all assignments in the appropriate folder in the Dropbox on our class Learn site.
- Please be proactive and communicate with me about any difficulties meeting deadlines. I commit to being reasonable.
- Please see the accommodation for illness and self-declaring illness and follow the instructions if you are feeling unwell.

Privacy and Online Interaction or Recording:

- Students will receive ample notice of online synchronous or recorded session involving students. (See the “Notice of Recording” statement on Learn.)
- In the case of an online or recorded session, students may choose to disable their cameras and microphones and may choose to provide an appropriate pseudonym to protect their privacy.
- Students will not be disadvantaged by not attending a live session or participating in the recording due to privacy concerns by providing them with suitable alternatives (e.g., watching the recording at a later date with opportunity for questions)
- More information about ensuring privacy during any video recorded sessions can be found at this site.

UW Policies on Academic Integrity & Campus Resources:

Academic Integrity
In order to maintain a culture of academic integrity, members of the University of Waterloo are expected to promote honesty, trust, fairness, respect and responsibility. Check the Office of Academic Integrity webpage for more information.

Discipline
A student is expected to know what constitutes academic integrity, to avoid committing academic offences, and to take responsibility for their actions. Check the Office of Academic Integrity for more information. A student who is unsure whether an action constitutes an offence, or who needs help in learning how to avoid offences (e.g., plagiarism, cheating) or about “rules” for group work/collaboration should seek guidance from the course professor, academic advisor, or the Undergraduate Associate Dean. When misconduct has been found to have occurred, disciplinary penalties will be imposed under Policy 71 – Student Discipline. For information on categories of offenses and types of penalties, students should refer to Policy 71 - Student Discipline. For typical penalties check Guidelines for the Assessment of Penalties.

Grievance
A student who believes that a decision affecting some aspect of his/her university life has been unfair or unreasonable may have grounds for initiating a grievance. Read Policy 70 - Student Petitions and Grievances.
Section 4. When in doubt, please be certain to contact the department’s administrative assistant who will provide further assistance.

Appeals
A decision made or penalty imposed under Policy 70 - Student Petitions and Grievances (other than a petition) or Policy 71 - Student Discipline may be appealed if there is a ground. A student who believes they have a ground for an appeal should refer to Policy 72 - Student Appeals.

Note for Students with Disabilities
The AccessAbility Services office, located on the first floor of the Needles Hall extension (NH 1401), collaborates with all academic departments to arrange appropriate accommodations for students with disabilities without compromising the academic integrity of the curriculum. If you require academic accommodations to lessen the impact of your disability, please register with the AS office at the beginning of each academic term.

Chosen/Preferred First Name:
If you want professors and interviewers to call you by a different first name, take a minute now to verify or tell us your chosen/preferred first name by logging into WatIAM. Your chosen/preferred first name listed in WatIAM will be used broadly across campus (e.g., LEARN, Quest, WaterlooWorks, WatCard, etc). Note: Your legal first name will always be used on certain official documents. For more details, visit Updating Personal Information.

Accommodation for Illness:
The University has made the University of Waterloo Verification of Illness form for students a self-declaration, which means students do not need a doctor’s note for accommodation if they become ill. Students are encouraged to contact their professors via email to let them know of their illness. Students should also self-declare on Quest if they want to receive academic accommodations for testing positive.

UW Coronavirus Information
Please find information about COVID-19 protocols at this link.

The Writing and Communication Centre:
The Writing and Communication Centre is an academic support unit that supports students, staff, and faculty as they build communication excellence at the University of Waterloo. Writing a paper? Designing a portfolio? Giving a presentation? We’re here to help you to work through all stages of the communication process. Visit www.uwaterloo.ca/writing-centre

Territorial Acknowledgement
We acknowledge that we are living and working on the traditional territory of the Attawandaron (also known as Neutral), Anishinaabe and Haudenosaunee peoples. The University of Waterloo is situated on the Haldimand Tract, the land promised to the Six Nations that includes ten kilometres on each side of the Grand River.

For more information about the purpose of territorial acknowledgements, please see the CAUT Guide to Acknowledging Traditional Territory.

Academic freedom at the University of Waterloo
Policy 33, Ethical Behaviour states, as one of its general principles (Section 1), “The University supports academic freedom for all members of the University community. Academic freedom carries with it the duty to use that freedom in a manner consistent with the scholarly obligation to base teaching and research on an honest and ethical quest for knowledge. In the context of this policy, 'academic freedom' refers to academic activities, including teaching and scholarship, as is articulated in the principles set out in the Memorandum of Agreement between the FAUW and the University of Waterloo, 1998 (Article 6). The academic environment which fosters free debate may from time to time include the presentation or discussion of unpopular opinions or controversial material. Such material shall be dealt with as openly, respectfully and sensitively as possible.” This definition is repeated in Policies 70 and 71, and in the Memorandum of Agreement, Section 6.
Intellectual Property
Students should be aware that this course contains the intellectual property of their instructor.

Intellectual property includes items such as:

- Lecture content, spoken and written (and any audio/video recording thereof)
- Recordings of synchronous lectures.
- Lecture handouts, presentations, and other materials prepared for the course (e.g., PowerPoint slides)
- Questions from various types of assessments (e.g., assignments, quizzes, tests, final exams)
- Work protected by copyright (e.g., any work authored by the instructor or TA or used by the instructor or TA with permission of the copyright owner).

Course materials and the intellectual property contained therein, are used to enhance a student’s educational experience. However, sharing this intellectual property without the intellectual property owner’s permission is a violation of intellectual property rights. For this reason, it is necessary to ask the instructor for permission before uploading and sharing the intellectual property of others online (e.g., to an online repository).

Permission from an instructor or the University is also necessary before sharing the intellectual property of others from completed courses with students taking the same/similar courses in subsequent terms/years. Doing so without expressed permission is considered a violation of intellectual property rights.

Please alert the instructor if you become aware of intellectual property belonging to others (past or present) circulating, either through the student body or online. The intellectual property rights owner deserves to know (and may have already given their consent).
