Class Schedule and Location: Mon & Wed, 1:30-2:50pm, Conrad Grebel University College: 1208

Course Description: This course explores the vast repertoire of vocal ensemble music through an historical lens, examining the lives and music of composers who made significant contributions throughout a variety of historical and stylistic periods. The course will progress from early Medieval examples to music of the 21st Century through listening, reading and lecture. By the end of the course, students will identify musical details that define a specific period of vocal music history, discuss prominent composers and their music, and identify, by listening, music from a variety of styles and genres.

Evaluation:
Listening Quiz (3x): 15% (5% each)
Midterm Test: 15%
Concert Review: 10%
Essay Proposal: 5%
Essay Mini-Presentation 5%
Essay: 20%
Final Exam (TBA): 30%

Course Reading: Readings, taken from the books below, are available on reserve in the Milton Good Library.

Online resources:

www.cpdl.org - The Choral Public Domain Library is a website with thousands of editions of choral works that are no longer under copyright. PDF files are downloadable/printable and represent works by hundreds of composers from virtually every era.

www.imslp.org - The Petrucci Music Library is a free public domain music library. You can find scores of many of the pieces being studied in MUS290.

Music listening:

The Milton Good Library has CD recordings of the repertoire being studied in this course. Additionally, a listening list will be compiled online via www.naxosmusiclibrary.com - Login in on campus, or from home using the libraries ‘Connect from home.” Click on the folder MUS290: Choral Music.

Academic Integrity: To maintain a culture of academic integrity, members of the University of Waterloo are expected to promote honesty, trust, fairness, respect and responsibility.

Discipline: Students are expected to know what constitutes academic integrity, to avoid committing academic offences, and to take responsibility for their actions. A student who is unsure whether an action constitutes an offence, or who needs help in learning how to avoid offences (e.g., plagiarism, cheating) or about “rules” for group work/collaboration should seek guidance from the course professor, academic advisor, or the Undergraduate Associate Dean. When misconduct has been found to have occurred, disciplinary penalties will be imposed under Policy 71 – Student Discipline. For information on categories of offenses and types of penalties, students should refer to Policy 71 - Student Discipline, http://www.adm.uwaterloo.ca/infosec/Policies/policy71.htm

Grievance: Students who believe that a decision affecting their university life has been unfair or unreasonable may have grounds for a grievance. Read Policy 70 – “Student Petitions and Grievances”, Section 4, http://www.adm.uwaterloo.ca/infosec/Policies/policy70.htm

Appeals: A student may appeal the finding and/or penalty in a decision made under Policy 70 – “Student Petitions and Grievances” (other than regarding a petition) or Policy 71 – “Student Discipline” if a ground for an appeal can be established. Read Policy 72 – “Student Appeals”, http://www.adm.uwaterloo.ca/infosec/Policies/policy72.htm
