MUSIC 140: POPULAR MUSIC

Winter 2024

Instructor: Simon Wood

Contact: j2wood@uwaterloo.ca

Course Objective: Music 140 is an introduction to western popular music. The course will briefly introduce the main precursors to this music before looking in depth at the important figures and styles from 1945 to the early1980s (depending on time). Various genres will be covered in an effort to show how trends in popular music change, and are in turn changed by, the historical movements of technology, economics, and demographics.

Required Texts:

Covach, John. What's That Sound: An Introduction to Rock and its History. 6th edition

Listening List: This course makes use of a set of songs that will be posted online. As music is the most significant element of this course, you will be tested on the content of the list. You are, therefore, strongly (and I really mean it!!) advised to listen to the songs on a regular basis. The songs can be found on the class site on Waterloo Learn.

There will be no brown M&Ms in the backstage area. Important announcements such as the cancellation of class due to illness will also be posted there, so please try to check the site before each class, just in case.
