- Class activities: Full marks are awarded for preparation (have assigned readings ready to reference in print on electronic copies, and have one idea ready to discuss) and participation through note taking (demonstrate through having a pencil and notebook ready) and eyes up. Two classes are dropped out of 12.
- Memorize a song: choose a song (at least eight lines long) not discussed in class to memorize and present to the class. You may present by saying the text or singing it with accompaniment. Give a brief (1 minute) explanation of why you chose it.
- Song Analysis: Write analyses of two hymns of different styles. Include an aesthetic, stylistic, and theological examination and suggest appropriate liturgical uses. Each analysis should be 3 pages double-spaced. The Songs for Song Analysis and Preparation Worksheet are preparatory pieces for this paper.
- Final project: Podcast, Paper, or Song Festival
  - Podcast project: you and a partner (assigned) will plan and record two ten-minute podcasts that introduce a great church song worth knowing more about. The podcast should be conversational but informative, and also give some personal information about what drew you to the song. Discuss both the text and the music, and why they fit together well. The best podcasts in the class will be broadcast along with a recording of the song performed by the Chapel Choir of the University of Waterloo.
  - Term Paper: A research paper examining the hymn repertory of a particular congregation. Research questions should be: how does the hymn repertory reflect the historical, cultural, and theological identity of the congregation? The paper should be 10 pages including bibliography and a repertory list.
  - If 80% of the class agrees, we will plan a public Song Festival together. This song festival will be supported by the Conrad Grebel Chapel Choir. Each student will choose a song to introduce and then sing together. Introduce should be short (5 minutes) and informative, providing the same introduction as described for the Podcast project. Students will be graded on their song choice, introduction, and participation in planning.
ASSIGNMENT SCREENING

Text matching software (Turnitin) will be used to screen assignments in this course. This is being done to verify that use of all material and sources in assignments is documented. In the first week of the term, details will be provided about the arrangements for the use of Turnitin and alternatives in this course. See Administrative Policy below for more information and links.

ADMINISTRATIVE POLICY

LATE POLICY

Class activities are part of class and therefore cannot be turned in late. All other assignments have a one week automatic extension. After one week you will receive 2% deduction from the final grade unless you have made an agreement with me prior to the due date.

GENERATIVE AI

This course includes the independent development and practice of specific skills, such as analyzing text and music, and applying contextual study to song interpretation and performance. Therefore, the use of Generative artificial intelligence (GenAI) trained using large language models (LLM) or other methods to produce text, images, music, or code, like Chat GPT, DALL-E, or GitHub CoPilot, is not permitted in this class. Unauthorized use in this course, such as running course materials through GenAI or using GenAI to complete a course assessment is considered a violation of Policy 71 (https://uwaterloo.ca/secretariat/policies-procedures-guidelines/policy-71) (plagiarism or unauthorized aids or assistance). Work produced with the assistance of AI tools does not represent the author's original work and is therefore in violation of the fundamental values of academic integrity including honesty, trust, respect, fairness, responsibility and courage (ICAI, n.d.).

You should be prepared to show your work. To demonstrate your learning, you should keep your rough notes, including research notes, brainstorming, and drafting notes. You may be asked to submit these notes along with earlier drafts of their work, either through saved drafts or saved versions of a document. If the use of GenAI is suspected where not permitted, you may be asked to meet with your instructor or TA to provide explanations to support the submitted material as being your original work. Through this process, if you have not sufficiently supported your work, academic misconduct allegations may be brought to the Associate Dean.

In addition, you should be aware that the legal/copyright status of generative AI inputs and outputs is unclear. More information is available from the Copyright Advisory Committee: https://uwaterloo.ca/copyright-at-waterloo/teaching/generative-artificial-intelligence

ACADEMIC FREEDOM AT THE UNIVERSITY OF WATERLOO

Policy 33, Ethical Behaviour (https://uwaterloo.ca/secretariat/policies-procedures-guidelines/policy-33) states, as one of its general principles (Section 1), “The University supports academic freedom for all members of the University community. Academic freedom carries with it the duty to use that freedom in a manner consistent with the scholarly obligation to base teaching and research on an honest and ethical quest for knowledge. In the context of this policy, ‘academic freedom’ refers to academic activities, including teaching and scholarship, as is articulated in the principles set out in the Memorandum of Agreement between the FAUW and the University of Waterloo, 1998 (Article 6). The academic environment which fosters free debate may from time to time include the presentation or discussion of unpopular opinions or controversial material. Such material shall be dealt with as openly, respectfully and sensitively as possible.” This definition is repeated in Policies 70 and 71, and in the Memorandum of Agreement, Section 6

ACCOMMODATING RELIGIOUS AND SPIRITUAL OBSERVANCES
The University of Waterloo has a duty to accommodate religious, spiritual, and other creed-based beliefs and practices (https://ugradcalendar.uwaterloo.ca/page/Acad-Regs-Accommodations) under the Ontario Human Rights Commission (2015) Policy on preventing discrimination based on creed (https://www.ohrc.on.ca/en/policy-preventing-discrimination-based-creed). Students may seek accommodations for missed course components on religious, spiritual, or other creed grounds. In such cases the students should please consult the instructor within two weeks of the announcement of the due date for which the accommodation is being sought.

ANTI-RACISM STATEMENT

The University of Waterloo does not tolerate racism or any other form of discrimination and expects campus community members to contribute to a culture where all members feel safe and valued. Any member of the campus community who has experienced racism or discrimination at the University is encouraged to review available processes for addressing their concerns under Policy 33 – Ethical Behaviour and to seek guidance from the Equity Office via email at equity@uwaterloo.ca (https://uwaterloo.ca/presidents-anti-racism-taskforce/part-report/equity@uwaterloo.ca) or through their website (https://uwaterloo.ca/equity-diversity-inclusion-anti-racism/)

CROSS-LISTED COURSES

Please note that a cross-listed course will count in all respective averages no matter under which subject code it has been taken. For example, a PHIL/PSCI cross-list will count in a Philosophy major average, even if the course was taken under the Political Science subject code.

DECLARING ABSENCES

For all of the following categories of absence students are responsible for getting in touch with their course instructors as soon as possible to discuss possible accommodations for the missed course component(s). The course instructor will determine how the missed work is accommodated. Absences will be accommodated according to the academic regulations section of the undergraduate calendar (https://ugradcalendar.uwaterloo.ca/page/Acad-Regs-Accommodations).

If you are unable to complete a course component due to self-declared COVID-related reasons (https://uwaterloo.ca/quest/help/students/how-do-i/self-declare-absence-undergraduate-students#public-health) or a two-day short-term absence (https://uwaterloo.ca/registrar/current-students/undergraduate-student-short-term-absences) then you should submit a self-declaration of absence through Quest (https://uwaterloo.ca/quest/help/students/how-do-i/self-declare-absence-undergraduate-students).

If your absence is due to an illness not pandemic-related (https://uwaterloo.ca/arts/undergraduate/student-support/accommodations-illness-or-extenuating-circumstances#VIF), then a UW Verification of Illness form (https://uwaterloo.ca/arts/undergraduate/student-support/accommodations-illness-or-extenuating-circumstances#VIF) completed by a health professional, must be uploaded and submitted through the Verification of Illness or Extenuating Circumstances Process (https://uwaterloo.ca/arts/undergraduate/student-support/accommodations-illness-or-extenuating-circumstances#submit-other). The VIF is the only acceptable documentation for an absence due to illness. Do not submit the VIF or any other medical documentation to your instructors, teaching assistants, or other course personnel.

If your absence is due to other extenuating circumstances (https://uwaterloo.ca/arts/undergraduate/student-support/accommodations-illness-or-extenuating-circumstances#submit-other) (e.g., bereavement), then you must submit all documentation related to the absence (e.g., obituary) through the Verification of Illness or Extenuating Circumstances Process (https://uwaterloo.ca/arts/undergraduate/student-support/accommodations-illness-or-extenuating-circumstances#submit-other).

Submission through the VIF or Extenuating Circumstances System, once approved, will notify your instructors of your absence.

If your absence is due to a religious or spiritual observance (https://ugradcalendar.uwaterloo.ca/page/Acad-Regs-Accommodations) please inform the instructor within two weeks of the announcement of the due date for which the accommodation is being sought. However, you are responsible for contacting instructors to discuss accommodation arrangements.
