Spring 2017 Symposium
June 26th

ENGAGEMENT in INNOVATION

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Time</th>
<th>Event</th>
<th>Location</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 8:00 - 9:00 | Sign-In
- Coffee and Pastries
- Posters           | AHS Foyer         |
| 9:00 - 9:15 | Opening Remarks
- James Rush, Dean, Faculty of Applied Health Sciences
- Paul Stolee, Director, Network for Aging Research | AHS 1689         |
| 9:15 - 10:15| Keynote: Olive Bryanton, PhD (c)
Olive uses Photovoice to learn about and understand the realities of women 85 and older living in rural PEI. | AHS 1689         |
| 10:15 - 10:45| Posters
- Posters are located on the 2nd floor | AHS 2nd Floor Foyer |
| 10:45 - 11:15| Engagement in Innovation: The SHARP Group
Heather McNeil works with the SHARP group to engage older adults in innovation and research. | AHS 1689         |
| 11:15 - 12:15| Priority Setting
Participate in setting priorities for aging research that will be used to inform future NAR research and events
This will take place in the foyer, after brief instruction | AHS 1689         |
| 12:15 - 1:15 | Posters and Lunch | AHS Foyer         |