Optometry Student Society
Bylaws

LAW I

Meetings of the Society

1. The President of the Society shall call and chair all meetings of the Society in accordance with Robert's Rules of Order.
 - a) In the case of the President being unable to chair a meeting of the Society, the VP-Internal of the Society shall assume the duty.
 - b) In the case of both the President and VP-Internal being unable to chair a meeting of the Society, the VP-Communications of the Society shall assume the duty.
 - c) In the case of the President, VP-Internal, and VP-Communications being unable to chair a meeting of the Society, the VP-Finance of the Society shall assume the duty.
 - d) If no members of the Executive Committee are able to chair a meeting of the society, a designated chairperson, appointed by the President in accordance with Law IV, 2, e, shall assume the duty.
2. The President of the Society shall call a meeting of the Society:
 - a) at the direction of Council, or;
 - b) upon the presentation of a petition bearing bona fide signatures of ten percent (10%) of the voting members of the Society, or;
 - c) at his/her own discretion.
3. Notice of a meeting of the Society shall be posted to all voting members of the Society not less than forty-eight (48) hours in advance of said meeting. Notice shall include an agenda of the meeting.
4. In the event that a quorum (25%) is not present for a meeting of the Society, any business that was to be dealt with at said meeting shall be dealt with at a meeting of Council to be held not less than five (5) days after the meeting of the Society.
5. Extenuating circumstances requiring immediate action may cause the President to have a meeting of the Society called without having posted forty-eight (48) hours notice.
 - a) "Extenuating circumstances" must be outlined by the President upon calling the meeting to order. Should a majority of the voting members of the Union present at the meeting not agree that the situation dictates "extenuating circumstances" needed for such a meeting, that meeting will be immediately adjourned. A motion to this effect may be put forward at any point during the meeting by a voting member of the Union.

LAW II

Meetings of Council

1. The Council shall meet regularly and upon call of the President, not less than once each month. Meetings shall be chaired by the ranking member of the Executive Committee in the same manner as meetings of the Society (Law I, clause 1). The chair shall conduct the business of the meeting in accordance with Robert's Rules of Order.
2. All members of the Society shall be entitled to attend meetings of Council and, upon permission of the chairperson of the meeting, may be allowed a hearing by the meeting.

- a) If a member of the Society attends a Council meeting, that person must abide by the rules of order, and may be asked to leave if they fail to do so, at the discretion of the chairperson.
3. Law II, 2, notwithstanding, a motion to go in camera, if passed, shall close a meeting to all but the voting and non-voting members of Council. A motion passed by simple majority will allow for any person whom Council may request to remain throughout the in camera session.
4. Notice of the meeting of Council shall be given to members at least forty-eight (48) hours in advance of said meeting. Said notice shall include an agenda for the meeting.
5. Extenuating circumstances requiring immediate action may cause the President to have a meeting of Council called without having posted forty-eight (48) hours notice.
 - a) "Extenuating circumstances" must be outlined by the President upon calling the meeting to order. Should a majority of the voting members of Council present at the meeting not agree that the situation dictates "extenuating circumstances" needed for such a meeting, that meeting will be immediately adjourned. A motion to this effect may be put forward at any point during the meeting by a voting member of Council.
6. Quorum for a meeting of Council shall consist of fifty percent (50%) of the voting members from first three years. In the event that quorum is not present for the meeting, any business that was to be dealt with at said meeting shall be dealt with at a future meeting of Council to be held not more than three (3) days after said meeting was held.
7. At a meeting of Council in which at least a quorum of the voting members are present, motions may be passed by an affirmative vote from a simple majority of said members unless otherwise specified in the constitution or bylaws. Each voting member shall have one vote; if any person holds more than one office, they shall only have one vote (one member, one vote). If the person chairing the meeting is also a voting member of Council, he/she will only vote in the case of a tie.
8. A member is required to send a proxy to the meetings he/she will not attend. A member shall forfeit his/her position after missing two meetings without proxy or just cause in accordance with Law V.
9. The Student Council is not required to meet during the months of April, May, June, July, August or December.
10. Members of the Faculty may request or be requested to attend meetings of Council from time to time. Faculty members may be allowed a hearing at the discretion of Council. Council may require Faculty member(s) to leave the meeting should business be conducted in camera (in accordance with Law II, 3) or for any other reason.

LAW III

Elections

1. Electoral Officers:
 - a) The Chief Returning Officer shall coordinate all Society-affiliated elections.
 - b) Nominations for the position of the Chief Returning Officer will be submitted to the Executive committee, and the committee will appoint a Chief Returning Officer. Such nominations will outline qualifications and experience of the candidate along with any other information pertinent to the Executive Committee's decision.
 - c) In the event that the Chief Returning Officer is unable to perform his/her duties, the President of the Society shall act as Chief Returning Officer.
 - d) The Chief Returning Officer shall conduct the following elections throughout the course of each year:
 - i. the President-elect of the Society;
 - ii. the VP-Internal-elect of the Society;

- iii. the VP-Communications-elect of the Society;
- iv. the VP-Finance-elect of the Society;
- v. the first year Class President;
- vi. the first year Class Vice-President;
- vii. the first year sports, equipment, social, and environment representatives.

2. Eligibility to vote:

- a) For those elections in which a class officer is to be chosen, only those individuals who are members of the class for which the position(s) will be contested are eligible to vote.
- b) For all other elections/referenda, the electorate shall consist of all voting members of the Society.

3. Nominations for Election:

- a) Nominations for all class officer positions shall be called for at least four (4) days before, and close no later than one (1) day before the date on which the election is held.
- b) Nominations for Society Executive positions shall be called for at least seven (7) days before, and close no later than three (3) days before the date on which the election begins.
- c) All nominations must be made in writing to the Executive Committee and must bear the written or electronic signature of the nominee.
- d) Each nomination must be verified by the Chief Returning Officer to ensure that it satisfies the conditions of Law III, 3, b.

4. Election Timetable:

- a) The elections of first year Class President, Vice-President, as well as sports, equipment, social, and environment representatives shall be held no later than four (4) days after the first day of classes.
- b) The elections of President-elect, VP-Internal-elect, VP-Communications-elect, and VP-Finance-elect of the Society shall be held within the month of March.
- c) Notice of referendum must be given seven (7) days before a referendum can be held.

5. Election Procedures:

- a) The election of the Class President, Vice-President, and sports, equipment, social, and environment representatives shall be held during a first year class meeting, called by the Executive Committee.
- b) The election of the Society President-elect, VP-Internal-elect, VP-Communications-elect, and VP-Finance-elect shall be held over two (2) days during which classes are normally held, with polls open not less than two (2) hours.
 - i. Should the Chief Returning Officer see fit, he/she may hold the election online through the FEDS secure voting in place of holding an election on campus.
- c) All Society referenda shall be held over two (2) days during which classes are normally held, with polls open not less than two (2) hours.
 - i. For online elections, the polls shall be open over two (2) consecutive days.
- d) Referenda and elections for all Society Executives and for society council members shall be by secret ballot.
- e) For all elections for a single elected position, the candidate receiving the majority of the votes (greater than 50%) shall be declared elected. "All votes cast" shall not include those that are deemed spoiled by the Chief Returning Officer. Upon request from a candidate or scrutineer, the C.R.O. must be prepared to justify deeming it a spoiled ballot. If the candidate disagrees, he/she may make an appeal to Council, after which a recount of the votes will occur.
- f) In the event that only one nomination is put forth for a single elected position then that position shall be deemed won by acclamation.
- g) In the event that only four (4) Society members apply for the Executive Positions but two (2) of the nominees are applying for the same position, these individuals will be notified and made aware that if one (1) nominee concedes to the open position, both positions will be deemed won by acclamation.
- h) For elections in which there are multiple positions of the same type to be filled, candidates receiving the most votes will be elected to those positions in accordance with the number of positions available.

- i) In the event that the number of nominations put forth for the same position type is equal to or lesser than the number of positions available, those persons shall be acclaimed to those positions.
 - j) No paper posters, mass e-mails, or any other mass advertising methods shall be used for campaigning purposes by any candidates aside from their application and speech to the Society, which shall occur within 7 days before the election.
 - k) Counting of ballots in all elections shall be the duty of the Chief Returning Officer.
 - l) There shall be no voting by proxy, except for the fourth year students who are stationed away from the School on externships, who shall be allowed to vote online using the FEDS secure voting system.
 - m) All candidates and Executive Committee members shall have the right to observe the tally of all elections and the exact count may be revealed to the candidates and Executive Committee members only.
 - n) If a candidate desires a recount, he/she must indicate so in writing within forty-eight (48) hours of the closing of polls.
 - o) Notice as to the time and place of the polling shall be posted no later than twenty-four (24) hours prior to polls opening.
 - p) The Chief Returning Officer shall inform each candidate of all election regulations.
 - q) In the event of a tie, the results of the ballot will be annulled and a new vote will replace the previous one. This should occur not more than 7 days after the counting of the original ballot.
6. Constituted referenda shall require 2/3 of quorum in support of the motion in accordance with Article X of the Constitution in order to pass the motion.
7. All society referenda are subject to the same procedures outline in this law (Law III) where applicable.

- i) The Standing Committees shall meet regularly, make reports to Council regularly and make a financial statement available to the Executive VP-Finance for every event, and to Council once a year.

LAW VII

Ad Hoc Committees

The Executive President can create any Ad Hoc Committee as deemed necessary by the Executive and will be responsible for ratifying an Ad Hoc committee at next meeting of Council.

LAW VIII

Summer Operations

The council will go on a hiatus over the summer semester (May, June, July & August), however the Executive Committee continues on affairs, but is not required to hold meetings. The exiting Executive is responsible for transitioning the incoming Executive into their duties during this period. The incoming Executive assumes office May first (1st), and shall continue to be responsible for communicating any affairs relevant to the Society members from the faculty, School of Optometry and Vision Science, and the University of Waterloo.

LAW IX

Constitutional Clarifications

Definitions contained in the Constitution of the Students' Union may not change without a referendum. However, should an ambiguity be present in the Constitution or should the University change a procedure which affects a definition in the Constitution, a Bylaw or Constitutional Clarification may support that definition. Constitutional Clarifications are subject to the same processes of adoption/repeal/amendments as the Bylaws.
