Vis\-ual Information Processing Workshop

Dr. Dawn Dunford

This workshop will introduce practitioners to break down what visual information processing is, and what skills are needed to interpret visual input. We will also review perceptual tests that evaluate visual information processing skills, and then how to remediate any visual deficits. The workshop also provides an optional hands-on experience in the administration, scoring and interpretation of each test.