Final Examination Arrangements and Schedule

Please carefully review the information about writing exams for online courses, including dates, locations, how to make examination arrangements, writing with a proctor, and deadlines.

If you are taking any on-campus courses, you will automatically be scheduled to write your exam on campus. No action is required.

If you are taking only online courses, do one of the following:

- If your address in QUEST is within 100 km of an examination centre, you must choose an exam centre in Quest by Sunday, January 14, 2018. This must be done each term.
- If your address in Quest is more than 100 km from an exam centre, you must arrange for a proctor. Please review the guidelines and deadlines for writing with a proctor. This must be done each term.

Your online course exam schedule will be available in Quest approximately four weeks before your exam date(s). Instructions on how to find your schedule are posted on the Quest Help page.

University of Waterloo Senate-approved academic regulations related to assignments, tests, and final exams can be found on the Registrar's website.

Official Grades and Course Access

Official Grades and Academic Standings are available through Quest.

Your access to this course will continue for the duration of the current term. You will not have access to this course once the next term begins.

Contact Information

Announcements

Your instructor uses the Announcements widget on the Course Home page during the term to communicate new or changing information regarding due dates, instructor absence, etc., as needed. You are expected to read the announcements on a regular basis.

To ensure you are viewing the complete list of announcements, you may need to click Show All Announcements.

Discussions

A General Discussion topic* has also been made available to allow students to communicate with peers in the course. Your instructor may drop in at this discussion topic.

Course Description and Objectives

Description

This course is the first of three introductory core courses in the Peace and Conflict Studies Program at the University of Waterloo.

Among the questions we will explore in this course are the following:

1. What do we mean when we speak of "peace", "conflict", and "violence"? Are there different kinds of violence? Is peace simply an absence of direct violence, or is it something more than that? What is the relationship between peace and justice?
2. What are some of the different schools of thought to consider when analyzing sources of conflict between individuals, groups, and states? Why do analysts often disagree about sources of conflict and violence? What are the implications of these disagreements for policy-making and peace advocacy?
3. How do our understandings of conflict, violence, and peace relate to our understanding of power? Does power necessarily presuppose coercion and the threat of violence? What forms of power and influence are available to those who seek to refrain from or prevent violence?

The second of the three courses, PACS 202 (Conflict Resolution), delves more deeply into practical methods for resolving and controlling interpersonal, intergroup, and international conflicts. The third course, PACS 203 (History of Peace Movements), explores the role of civic activism in preventing and responding to armed conflicts and social injustices. (PACS 203 is not currently available via the Centre for Extended Learning at this time).

Objectives

By the end of this course, students should be able to

- discuss a range of issues using themes, theories and concepts related to peace and conflict studies;
- examine different perspectives on understanding and dealing with conflict;
- identify and describe diverse approaches to the promotion of peaceful change;
- evaluate strengths and weaknesses of various theories of peace and conflict; and
- apply concepts from the course to contemporary situations of peace and conflict.

This online course was originally created by Nathan Funk, and has been redeveloped by Rachel Reist and Alexandra Bly, with instructional design and multimedia development support provided by the Centre for Extended Learning. Further media production was provided by Instructional Technologies and Multimedia Services.

About the Course Authors

Course Author — Dr. Nathan Funk

© University of Waterloo

Dr. Funk earned his Ph.D. in International Relations (2000) from the American University School of International Service in Washington, DC. Before commencing his doctoral studies at American University, he completed a B.A in Global Community Studies at Gustavus Adolphus College in 1994. He has lived in the Middle East and South Asia, designed internet courses on peace and conflict resolution, worked on research and training projects for the United States Institute of Peace, and served as a member of the board of directors for two Canadian NGOs, Project Ploughshares and Peacebuild: The Canadian Peacebuilding Network, and is a founding board member of Peace and Conflict Studies Canada.

He has authored or co-authored a number of writings on international conflict resolution, with a special focus on unofficial ("track two") dialogue processes, Islamic-Western relations, identity conflict, and the role of cultural and religious factors in peacebuilding capacity development. His publications include Ameen Rihani: Bridging East and West (University Press of America, 2004), Islam and Peacemaking in the Middle East (Lynne Rienner Publishers, 2009), and "Building on What's Already There: Valuing the Local in International Peacebuilding" (International Journal, 2012).

Prior to his arrival at Conrad Grebel in 2004, he was Assistant Professor of International Relations at American University and Visiting Assistant Professor of Political Science and International Affairs at George Washington University.

Course Author — Alexandra Bly

© University of Waterloo

Alexandra Bly holds a Master's degree in Peace and Conflict Studies from the University of Waterloo and an Honours Bachelor of Social Sciences in Conflict Studies and Human Rights from the University of Ottawa. She spent the final semester of her undergraduate degree working abroad in Hanoi, Vietnam as a student services officer at a vocational college. Broadly, her research interests have included: feminism, gender, social movements, and how civil society can be an advocate for change.

Alexandra is passionate about social justice, and has worked for various non-profit organizations that focus on issues such as women's rights, environmental justice, and sustainability. Currently, she is the Youth Representative on the Board of Directors for the national, environmental charity Sierra Club Canada Foundation. She is also a Development Assistant for the civil society organization the United Nations Association in Canada (UNA-Canada).

Course Author — Rachel Reist

© University of Waterloo

Rachel received a Master of Peace and Conflict Studies from the University of Waterloo in 2014 and currently works as the Academic Advisor and Internship Coordinator for Peace and Conflict Studies (PACS). Rachel has spent time living in Nicaragua, El Salvador and Washington, DC. During her time in Washington, Rachel worked with the international anti-militarization movement SOA Watch doing grassroots organizing and event coordination. Rachel continues to serve on the Board for SOA Watch as the representative for Canada.

Rachel's past research activities have focused on systems that impact poor health in developing countries, militarism and violence in Latin America, and developing effective non-profit board structures. In 2013 Rachel presented the paper "Undernutrition and Obesity in Developing Countries: Why is Vanessa eating Cheetos and Coke for Breakfast?" at the bi-national Peace and Justice Studies Association Conference. She is also passionate about the value and impact of international experience for students and as Internship Coordinator for PACS works with students as they pursue travel and internship opportunities for academic credit.

Grade Breakdown

The following table represents the grade breakdown of this course.

Activities and Assignments	Weight (%)
Introduce Yourself	Ungraded
Discussions (x 4)	15%
Short Papers (3 x 10%)	30%
Quizzes (x 4)	10%
Final Essay	20%
Final Examination	25%

Course Policies

Late Policy for Short Papers and Essay

Students who contact their designated marker or instructor well in advance of a due date to inform them about realistic complications that will postpone completion of a paper often receive favourable consideration.

Although exceptions may occasionally be made to account for unusual circumstances, there are standard penalties for papers that arrive late without prior clearance. Here are the deductions for late work:

- One day to one week late: -5%
- Eight days to two weeks late: -10%
- 15 days to three weeks late: -15%
- More than three weeks late: -20%

Please do not make the mistake of failing to submit a paper. Up until the final examination we will go by the motto "late is better than never." We recognize that life can be complicated and are willing to work with those who take the initiative in their communications and demonstrate commitment to getting the job done.

Turnitin

Turnitin.com: Text matching software (Turnitin®) will be used to screen assignments in this course. This is being done to verify that use of all materials and sources in assignments is documented. Students will be given an option if they do not want to have their assignment screened by Turnitin®. In the first week of the term, details will be provided about arrangements and alternatives for the use of Turnitin® in this course.

Note: students must be given a reasonable option if they do not want to have their assignment screened by Turnitin. See: Guidelines for Instructors for more information.

Opting Out of Turnitin

If you decide not to use Turnitin, you will need to contact your instructor by the end of Week 3 to make mutually agreeable, alternative arrangements to demonstrate the originality of your work. These may include submitting preliminary drafts and notes made during the preparation of your assignment, a detailed annotated bibliography of your sources, and/or a Skype or personal interview with your instructor in which they ask you questions about your essay content and sources.

Late Policy for Discussion Assignments

Late posts for the discussion activity will not be marked. The intent of the activity is that you are engaging with your classmates on the topic, which is not possible to do after the discussion board closes. There will be no makeup assignments for missed discussion activities.

Faculty of Arts Policies

Mental Health Services

Mental Health Services aim is to provide holistic programming and services to help you lead a healthy and balanced life. We strive to provide a secure, supportive environment for students of all orientations and backgrounds.

Students suffering from problems with anxiety, depression, problems with sleep, attention, obsessions or compulsions, relationship difficulties, severe winter blues, etc., may make an appointment by phone or in person. Appointments are usually available within two days of initial contact with one of our medical doctors. All contacts are completely confidential.

University Policies

Submission Times

Please be aware that the University of Waterloo is located in the Eastern Time Zone (GMT or UTC-5 during standard time and UTC-4 during daylight saving time) and, as such, the time that your activities and/or assignments are due is based on this zone. If you are outside the Eastern Time Zone and require assistance with converting your time, please try the Ontario, Canada Time Converter.

Accommodation Due to Illness

If your instructor has provided specific procedures for you to follow if you miss assignment due dates, term tests, or a final examination, adhere to those instructions. Otherwise:

Missed Assignments/Tests/Quizzes

Contact the instructor as soon as you realize there will be a problem, and preferably within 48 hours, but no more than 72 hours, have a medical practitioner complete a Verification of Illness Form.

Email a scanned copy of the Verification of Illness Form to your instructor. In your email to the instructor, provide your name, student ID number, and exactly what course activity you missed.

Further information regarding Management of Requests for Accommodation Due to Illness can be found on the Accommodation due to illness page.

Missed Final Examinations

If this course has a final exam and if you are unable to write a final examination due to illness, seek medical treatment and have a medical practitioner complete a Verification of Illness Form. Email a scanned copy to the Centre for Extended Learning (CEL) at extendedlearning@uwaterloo.ca within 48 hours of your missed exam. Make sure you include your name, student ID number, and the exam(s) missed. You will be REQUIRED to hand in the original completed form before you write the make-up examination.

After your completed Verification of Illness Form has been received and processed, you will be emailed your alternate exam date and time. This can take up to 2 business days. If you are within 150 km of Waterloo you should be prepared to write in Waterloo on the additional CEL exam dates. If you live outside the 150 km radius, CEL will work with you to make suitable arrangements.

Further information about Examination Accommodation Due to Illness regulations is available in the Undergraduate Calendar.

Academic Integrity

In order to maintain a culture of academic integrity, members of the University of Waterloo community are expected to promote honesty, trust, fairness, respect, and responsibility. If you have not already completed the online tutorial regarding academic integrity you should do so as soon as possible. Undergraduate students should see the Academic Integrity Tutorial and graduate students should see the Graduate Students and Academic Integrity website.

Proper citations are part of academic integrity. Citations in CEL course materials usually follow CEL style, which is based on APA style. Your course may follow a different style. If you are uncertain which style to use for an assignment, please confirm with your instructor or TA.

For further information on academic integrity, please visit the Office of Academic Integrity.

Discipline

A student is expected to know what constitutes academic integrity to avoid committing an academic offence, and to take responsibility for his/her actions. A student who is unsure whether an action constitutes an offence, or who needs help in learning how to avoid offences (e.g., plagiarism, cheating) or about “rules” for group work/collaboration, should seek guidance from the course instructor, academic advisor, or the undergraduate Associate Dean. For information on categories of offences and types of penalties, students should refer to Policy 71 - Student Discipline. For typical penalties, check Guidelines for the Assessment of Penalties.

Appeals

A decision made or penalty imposed under Policy 70 - Student Petitions and Grievances, (other than a petition) or Policy 71 - Student Discipline, may be appealed if there is a ground. A student who believes he/she has a ground for an appeal should refer to Policy 72 - Student Appeals.

Grievance

A student who believes that a decision affecting some aspect of his/her university life has been unfair or unreasonable may have grounds for initiating a grievance. Read Policy 70 - Student Petitions and Grievances, Section 4. When in doubt please be certain to contact the department’s administrative assistant who will provide further assistance.

Final Grades

In accordance with Policy 46 - Information Management, Appendix A - Access to and Release of Student Information, the Centre for Extended Learning does not release final examination grades or final course grades to students. Students must go to Quest to see all final grades. Any grades posted in Waterloo LEARN are unofficial.

AccessAbility Services

AccessAbility Services, located in Needles Hall, collaborates with all academic departments to arrange appropriate accommodations for students with disabilities without compromising the academic integrity of the curriculum. If you require academic accommodation to lessen the impact of your disability, please register with AccessAbility Services at the beginning of each academic term and for each course.

Accessibility Statement

The Centre for Extended Learning strives to meet the needs of all our online learners. Our ongoing efforts to become aligned with the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act \(AODA\) are guided by University of Waterloo accessibility Legislation and policy and the World Wide Web Consortium's \(W3C\) Web Content Accessibility Guidelines \(WCAG\) 2.0. The majority of our online courses are currently delivered via the Desire2Learn Learning Environment. Learn more about Desire2Learn’s Accessibility Standards Compliance.
