Keynote Address/Public Lecture:
Dr. Catherine Legg
Senior Lecturer
Waikato University (New Zealand)
“Scientific Integrity: A Pragmatist Examination of Theory and Practice in the Ethics of Inquiry”
Monday, April 25, 2016
7:00 pm, HH 1106

The keynote address/public lecture will be followed by a reception
RSVP by April 18, 2016 will be helpful, but those who have not will also be welcome
Please RSVP to: vbrett@uwaterloo.ca

Closing Plenary Address:
Dr. Heather Douglas
Waterloo Chair in Science and Society
University of Waterloo
“The Interplay of Evidence and Values in Science”
Wednesday, April 27, 2016
4:30 pm, HH 1106

For more details on the conference, including the program, visit https://uwaterloo.ca/philosophy/events/science-and-values-conference or email pragscival2016@gmail.com

This conference is made possible by the generous support of the Kerr-Lawson family, the Canadian Journal of Philosophy, University of Waterloo Department of Philosophy, Women’s Studies and the Faculty of Arts