

A. PERSONAL DATA

---

1. Name: Janice Barry
2. Rank/Position: Associate Professor
3. Department/School: School of Planning
4. Degrees
  - i. Doctor of Philosophy (2011), Community and Regional Planning, University of British Columbia
Dissertation: Building Collaborative Institutions for Government-to-Government Planning (Supervisors: Tony Dorcey and Leonie Sandercock)
  - ii. Master of Arts (2004), Canadian Studies & Native Studies, Trent University
Thesis: Collaborative Decision-Making and Persistent Land Use Conflicts (Supervisor: Stephen Bocking)
  - iii. Honours Bachelor of Science (2000), Trent University, Canada
Double Major: Environmental Science and Biology, with a recognized special emphasis in conservation biology
5. Honours and Awards
  - i. Nominee/Finalist (2021), Association of European Schools of Planning Best Paper Award
  - ii. Research Excellence Award (2021), Faculty of Environment, University of Waterloo, in recognition of outstanding research performance amongst tenure-track faculty in 2020
  - iii. Indigenous Initiatives Fund Award (2016), University of Manitoba, in recognition of innovative teaching and the development of a collaborative learning network for First Nation Land Use Planning, value: $46,550
  - iv. Teaching and Learning Enhancement Award (2016), University of Manitoba, in recognition of the development of a service-learning based approach with First Nations, value: $14,750
  - v. Outreach Award (2015), University of Manitoba, in recognition of efforts to support the community and land use planning goals of First Nations in Manitoba
  - vi. Nominee (2012), Association of European Schools of Planning Best Paper Award
  - vii. College for Interdisciplinary Studies Graduate Award (2019-2010), University of British Columbia, value: $2350
  - viii. BC Social Policy Research Award (2009), Province of British Columbia and University of British Columbia, value: $1500
  - ix. Pacific Century Graduate Fellowship (2008-2009), University of British Columbia, value: $17,000
  - x. Canadian Graduate Scholarship – Doctoral (2005-2008), Tri-Agency, value: $105,000
  - xi. PhD Tuition Waiver (2005-2009), University of British Columbia, value $3800-$4000/annum
  - xii. Canadian Graduate Scholarship – Masters (2003-2004), Tri-Agency, value: $17,500
6. Relevant Professional Employment
  - i. Associate Professor (2021-Present), School of Planning, University of Waterloo

- ii. Assistant Professor (2018-2021), School of Planning, University of Waterloo
Tenure-track appointment
- iii. Adjunct Professor (2018-Present), Department of City Planning, University of Manitoba
Honorary appointment to conduct graduate supervision
- iv. Assistant Professor (2013-2018), Department of City Planning, University of Manitoba
Tenure-track appointment
- v. Visiting Scholar (2017), Department of Geography, University of Otago
Developed a collaborative research program and conducted study tours with colleagues from University of Otago, Lincoln University, and University of Auckland
- vi. Lecturer (2012-2013), Department of Town and Regional Planning, University of Sheffield
Equivalent to a tenure-track position with teaching, research and service responsibilities
- vii. Postdoctoral Researcher (2010-2012), Urban Studies, University of Glasgow
Conducted research on the recognition of Indigenous rights in land use planning; also participated in various teaching activities, including guest lectures and graduate supervision
- viii. Sessional Instructor (2006-2007), School of Community and Regional Planning, University of British Columbia
Developed and co-instructed one undergraduate course (“Contemporary Issues in Planning”) and one Master’s course (“Planning History and Theory”)
- ix. Policy Planner (2003), Ontario Parks, Planning and Research, Peterborough, ON Designed and implemented a Needs Analysis of a provincial protected area program
- x. Assistant Park Planner (2001-2002), Ontario Parks, Northwest Zone, Thunder Bay, ON Coordinated recreational inventories of provincial parks; prepared preliminary planning statements; assisted with Park Management Plans
- xi. Planning Technician (2000-2001), Ontario Ministry of Natural Resources, Peterborough, ON Prepared preliminary planning documents for provincial protected areas; key member of a pilot project to develop recreation inventory guidelines

B. RESEARCH AND SCHOLARSHIP

---

1. Areas of Interest

(Mis)Recognition of Indigenous rights and title in state-based planning
Collaborative planning between Indigenous and non-Indigenous governments
Impact of land claims and treaty settlements on the planning of urban lands
Indigenous-led planning for community well-being and environmental stewardship
Promoting reconciliation through service-based learning
Politics and professionalization of participatory planning practice

2. Publication List

(a) Articles in Refereed Journals (published or accepted) * denotes student

- 1) Barry, J. & Agyeman, J. (2020). On belonging and becoming in the settler-colonial city: Co-produced futurities, placemaking, and urban planning in the United States. Journal of Race, Ethnicity and the City. DOI: 10.1080/26884674.2020.1793703

My contribution was 70%; I led the development of the argument and wrote the majority of the paper. Appeared in the inaugural issue of this journal.

- 2) Barry, J. & Thompson-Fawcett, M. (2020). Decolonizing the Boundaries between the ‘Planner’ and the ‘Planned’: Implications of Indigenous Property Development. Planning Theory & Practice. <https://doi.org/10.1080/14649357.2020.1775874>.
My contribution was 70%; I wrote majority of paper, designed and participated in most the New Zealand interviews, and conducted all of the Canadian research. Article was the journal’s nomination for the Association of European Schools of Planning’s Best Paper Award and reached the top five.
- 3) Barry, J. (2019). Being neighbourly: Urban reserves, treaty settlement lands, and the discursive construction of municipal–First Nation relations. The International Indigenous Policy Journal, 10(5) <https://doi.org/10.18584/iipj.2019.10.5.8515>
Selected for a Special Issue on “The Impact of Reserve and Reservation Systems on Indigenous Well-Being”.
- 4) Barry, J., Allen, E.* , Chandran, D.* , Cook, J.* , Curtis, B.* , Kostyniuk, A.* , Mikulec, P.* , Searle, M.* & Yau, D.* (2019). Unsettling Notions of Planning Competence: Lessons from Studio-Based Learning with Indigenous Peoples. Journal of Planning Education and Research. <https://doi.org/10.1177/0739456X19844571>
My contribution was 90%; I developed the idea, methods and theoretical framing; I also wrote the paper. The student co-authors contributed written reflections on their experiences and offered clarifying comments on early versions of the paper.
- 5) Barry, J., Horst, M., Inch, A., Legacy, C., Rishi, S., Rivero, J.J., Taufen, A., Zanotto, J.M., & Zitcer, A. (2018). Unsettling Planning Theory. Planning Theory 17: 418-438. <https://doi.org/10.1177/1473095218763842>
My contribution was 25%; I co-organized the workshop that led to this paper; I co-edited the four commentaries that were part of this piece and wrote an editorial response to one; also co-wrote the introduction and conclusion.
- 6) Thompson-Fawcett, M., Kitson, A.* , & Barry J. (2018). Enhancing cultural aspirations in urban design: The gradual transformation by Indigenous innovation. Urban Design International 24: 71–279. <https://doi.org/10.1057/s41289-018-0075-y>
My contribution was 15%; I secured the funding that supported half of the empirical work, co-designed and co-conducted several interviews, as well as reviewed and commented on drafts of the article.
- 7) Barry, J. (2015). Unsettling Planning Education through Community-Engaged Teaching and Learning: Reflections on the Indigenous Planning Studio. Planning Theory & Practice, 16(3): 430-434. <https://doi.org/10.1080/14649357.2015.1060688>
Invited contribution to a section on community-engaged teaching.
- 8) Porter, L. & Barry, J. (2015). Bounded Recognition: Urban Planning and the Textual Recognition of Indigenous Rights in Canada and Australia. Critical Policy Studies, 9: 22-40. <https://doi.org/10.1080/19460171.2014.912960>
My contribution was 45%; I conducted the Canadian case study and did the textual analysis. I co-developed the analytical framework and did a significant portion of the writing.
- 9) Saarikoski, H., Raitio, K. & Barry, J. (2013). Understanding ‘Successful’ Conflict Resolution: Policy Regime Changes and New Interactive Arena in the Great Bear Rainforest. Land Use Policy, 32: 271-280. <https://doi.org/10.1016/j.landusepol.2012.10.019>

My contribution was 40%; I contributed empirical data and co-developed the analytical framework and did a significant portion of the writing.

- 10) Barry, J. (2012). Indigenous State Planning as Inter-Institutional Capacity Development: The Evolution of ‘Government-to-Government’ Relations in Coastal British Columbia, Canada. Planning Theory & Practice 1: 213-231. <https://doi.org/10.1080/14649357.2012.677122>
- 11) Barry, J. & Porter, L. (2012). Indigenous Recognition in State-Based Planning Systems: Understanding Textual Mediation in the Contact Zone. Planning Theory 11: 170-187. <https://doi.org/10.1177/1473095211427285>
My contribution was 60%; I co-developed the theoretical arguments and developed the empirical case. Article was the journal’s nomination for the Association of European Schools of Planning’s Best Paper Award.
- 12) Barry, J. (2011). Mobilized Bias and Multi-Stakeholder Protected Area Planning in Ontario, Canada: A Socio-Institutional Perspective on Collaboration. Journal of Society and Natural Resources 24: 1116-1126. <https://doi.org/10.1080/08941920.2010.550083>

(b) Books

- 1) Porter, L. & Barry, J. (2016). Planning for Coexistence? Recognizing Indigenous rights through land-use planning in Canada and Australia. Abingdon, UK: Routledge.
My contribution was 50%; I conducted the Canadian case study and did the textual analysis. I co-developed the analytical framework and did half of the writing.
Considered for the 2017 Association of Collegiate Schools of Planning’s Paul Davidoff Book Award.

(c) Chapters in Books *denotes student

- 1) Kitson, A.*, Barry, J., & Thompson-Fawcett, M. (In Press). Urban Futurities: Identity, Place and Property Development by Indigenous Communities in the City. In: N. Postero, I. A. V. Nimatuj, K. Ruckstuhl, and J. A. McNeish (Eds.), A Critical Handbook on Indigenous Development. Routledge.
Invited contribution.
- 2) Barry J. (2016). Not stakeholders in these parts: Indigenous peoples and urban planning. In: Y. Beebeejaun (Ed), The Participatory City (pp. 23-29). Berlin: Jovis.
Invited contribution.
- 3) Barry, J. (2016). Government-to-Government Planning and the Recognition of Indigenous Rights and Title in the Central Coast Land and Resource Management Plan. In: R. Thomas (Ed), Planning Canada: A Case Study Approach (pp. 168-175). Toronto: Oxford University Press Canada.
One of 30 case study chapters selected for this introductory textbook on Canadian planning. The entire book won a 2017 Canadian Institute of Planners Award for Planning Excellence Merit.
- 4) Barry, J. (2015). From British City Centre to British Columbia’s Central Coast: The Transferability of the Institutional Capacity Development Framework. In: J. Hillier & J. Metzger (Eds), Connections: A Festschrift for Patsy Healey (pp. 313-327). Surrey: Ashgate.
Invited contribution to a volume celebrating the life works of Patsy Healey; all contributors were hand-picked by Patsy Healey, herself.

(d) Other Publications - Book Reviews, Articles in Professional Journals & Reports *denotes student

- 1) Barry, J. & Turriff, K.* (2020). First Nation-Municipal Relationships: Best Practices and Emerging Challenges in the Context of COVID-19. Unpublished report prepared for the Region of Waterloo.
- 2) Barry, J. & McNeil, J.* (2019). Indigenous Rights and Planning: From Recognition to Meaningful Coexistence? Plan Canada 59(1): 52-56.
My contribution was 90%; I developed the focus and argument, compiled the supporting research and wrote the majority of the article. Invited contribution to an extended special issue celebrating 100 years of professional planning in Canada.
- 3) Hallbom, A.* , Halldorson, E.* , & Barry, J. (2018). Treaty Land Entitlement in the Winnipeg Metropolitan Region. Plan Canada 58(3): 10-12.
My contribution was 30%; I provided feedback to the student authors, provided additional research and edited drafts.
- 4) Barry, J., Cooper, S. & Blatz, M.*. (Eds.). (2018). Indigenous Community Planning: Building a Collection of Fact Sheets. Indigenous Planning Studio, University of Manitoba. <http://indigenousplanningstudio.ca/fact-sheets.html>
My contribution was 60%; I developed the original concept, supervised the student on the editorial team, and supervised and provided feedback to the student contributors.
- 5) Koch, M*. & Barry, J. (2017). Treaty Principles Are Planning Principles: Learning from the Experiences of Manitoban Planning Practitioners. Plan Canada 56(4): 22-24.
My contribution was 50%; I supervised the student co-author's thesis and developed the approach for her condensing her work into a short article, pulling out and further contextualizing the main arguments.
- 6) Barry, J. (2016). Book Review: "The Routledge handbook of planning research methods." Planning Theory & Practice, 17(3): 480–481.
- 7) Barry, J. (2015). Book Review: "Reclaiming Indigenous Planning". Journal of Planning Education and Research, 35(4), pp. 526-528.
- 8) Porter, L. & Barry, J. (2013). Planning with Indigenous Customary Land Rights: An investigation of shifts in planning law and governance in British Columbia, Canada and Victoria, Australia. Project Report.
My contribution was 50%; I conducted the Canadian case study and did the textual analysis. I co-developed the analytical framework and did half of the writing.
- 9) Barry, J. (2004). The Challenges of Collaborative Land Use Planning: A Case Study of the Kawartha Highlands Signature Site. In J.G. Nelson (Ed), Planning Parks and Protected Areas in Northern Ontario: Challenges, Opportunities and Needs, Proceeding of the Parks Research Forum of Ontario 2004 (pp. 221-227). Waterloo ON: Parks Research Forum of Ontario.
- 10) Barry, J. (2003). Collaborative Natural Resource Management and its Applicability to Protected Area Planning. In C.J. Lemieux, J.G. Nelson, T.J. Beechey & M.J. Troughton (Eds), Protected Areas and Watershed Management, Proceeding of the Parks Research Forum of Ontario 2003 (pp. 243-248). Waterloo ON: Parks Research Forum of Ontario.

3. Addresses at Conferences and Other Venues

(a) Invited Keynote Presentations

- 1) Barry, J. (2018). Indigenous Reconciliation and Land Use Planning. Government of Northwest Territories Land Use Planning Forum, Yellowknife, NWT.
- 2) Barry, J. (2018). Indigenous Reconciliation and the “Miserable Failure” of Canadian Planning, Hemson Simpson Lecture Series, Ryerson University.
- 3) Barry, J. (2017). Urban Reserves, Shared Servicing Agreements and the Emergence of New Indigenous Planning Relationships in Manitoba, Canada: Potential Lessons for New South Wales. The Planning System & Aboriginal Australia: Where are we at & how can we change it? The Henry Halloran Trust, University of Sydney, Australia.

(b) Invited Panel or Paper Presentations

- 1) Barry, J. (2021). Unsettling Settler-Colonial Urbanism: Planning, Placemaking & Indigenous Futurities. School of Geographical Sciences and Urban Planning Speakers Series, Arizona State University
- 2) Barry, J. (2020). (Panellist). Planning Decolonization. Ontario Professional Planners Institute Virtual Conference: Finding Place in Evolving Communities.
- 3) Barry, J. (2019). Settler Colonialism, Decolonization and Urban Planning. Geography Speakers Series, University of Western Ontario.
- 4) Barry, J. (2019). Settler Colonialism, Decolonization and Urban Planning. Department of Urban and Environmental Policy and Department of Studies in Race, Colonialism, and Diaspora. Tufts University, USA.
- 5) Barry, J. (2019). Indigenous recognition, reconciliation and cultural heritage: Are we planning in "a good way"? The Many Faces of Heritage: An Interdisciplinary Colloquium. Heritage Resources Centre, University of Waterloo.
- 6) Barry, J. (2019). Indigenous rights, urban planning, and the emergence of new forms of municipal colonialism, Seminar Series, Grenfell Campus, Memorial University.
- 7) Barry, J. (2019). Indigenous Recognition and the “Miserable Failure” of Canadian Planning. Association of Graduate Planners’ Planning Café, University of Waterloo.
- 8) Barry, J. (2019). Indigenous rights, urban planning, and the emergence of new forms of municipal colonialism. Faculty of Environment Dean’s Lecture Series. University of Waterloo.
- 9) Barry, J. (2019). (Panellist) Planning Practice and Reconciliation: Past Experiences and Future Opportunities, Canadian Institute of Planners Conference: Generations, Ottawa.
- 10) Barry, J. (2017). Unsettling Notions of Planning ‘Competence’: Lessons from Service-Learning with Indigenous Peoples, Centre for Urban Research, RMIT University, Australia.
- 11) Barry, J. (2017). Unsettling Notions of Planning ‘Competence’: Lessons from Service-Learning with Indigenous Peoples, School of Architecture and Planning Seminar Series (2017), University of Auckland, New Zealand.
- 12) Barry, J. (2017). Urban Reserves, Shared Servicing Agreements and the Emergence of New Indigenous Planning Relationships in Manitoba, Canada, Department of Geography Seminar Series, University of Otago, New Zealand.
- 13) Barry, J. (2017). Urban Reserves, Shared Servicing Agreements and the Emergence of New Indigenous Planning Relationships in Manitoba, Canada, Department of Faculty of Environment, Society and Design Seminar Series (2017), Lincoln University, New Zealand.

- 14) Barry, J. (2016). Urban Reserves and the Possibilities for Nation-to-Nation Urban Planning: A View from Manitoba, School of Community and Regional Planning Seminar Series, University of British Columbia.
- 15) Barry, J. (2016). (Un)Learning Planning Competencies: Reflections from the Indigenous Planning Studio, Teaching and Learning Conference, University of Manitoba
- 16) Barry, J. (Panellist). (2015). When irresistible forces meet immovable subjects: facing the challenging subject of opposition in planning, Association of Collegiate Schools of Planning, Houston, USA.
- 17) Barry, J. (Panellist). (2015). Planning Together: First Nations, Municipalities and the Nation-to-Nation Relationship, Canadian Association of Planning Students (CAPS) Conference, Winnipeg, MB.
- 18) Barry, J. (2014). Understanding the 'Contact Zone' for Land Use Planning: Lessons from the Recognition and Mis-recognition of Indigenous Rights and Title in British Columbia, Canada. Faculty of Environment, Society and Design Seminar Series, Lincoln University, New Zealand.
- 19) Barry, J. (2014). Understanding the 'Contact Zone' for Land Use Planning: Lessons from the Recognition and Mis-recognition of Indigenous Rights and Title in British Columbia, Canada. Department of Geography Seminar Series (2014), University of Otago, New Zealand.
- 20) Barry, J. (Panellist). (2014). Cities as Indigenous places: coexistence, rights and self-determination for Indigenous peoples, Institute of Australian Geographers/ New Zealand Geographical Society Conference, Melbourne, Australia.
- 21) Barry, J. (2013). Planning with Indigenous Land Rights in British Columbia, Canada and Victoria, Australia: Potential Lessons and Insights for the Sámi Context? "Magnificent mountain environment for future generations" Research Project Meeting, Umea, Sweden (via videoconference).
- 22) Barry, J. (2012). Bounded recognition, land use planning and the rights of Indigenous Peoples: A Way of Framing Gypsy and Traveller Planning Conflicts? Economic and Social Research Seminar Series - Creating space and place for Roma, Gypsies and Travellers: resolving conflict, University of Leicester, UK.
- 23) Barry, J. (2012). Bounded recognition: urban planning texts and the rights of Indigenous peoples in British Columbia, Canada and Victoria, Australia. Planning & Environmental Management Seminar Series, University of Manchester, UK.
- 24) Barry, J. (2012). Adaptive Collaborative Arrangements & Rigid 'Texts'? Indigenous peoples and strategic natural resource planning in British Columbia, Canada, Town and Regional Planning Seminar Series, University of Sheffield, UK.

(c) Pre-Screened Conference Presentations *denotes student

- 1) Barry, J. & Legacy, C. (2020). Between Virtue and Profession: Urban Planning and the Public Participation Industry, Association of Collegiate Schools of Planning Virtual Conference.

My contribution was 70%; I was the presenting author, developed the conceptual framing of the piece, and wrote the majority of the paper.

- 2) Barry, J. (2018). The Public Interest, Legal Pluralism and Indigenous Law: Exploring the Possibilities for a New Ethical ‘Pivot’ for Planning. Association of Collegiate Schools of Planning, Buffalo, NY.
- 3) Barry, J., Thompson-Fawcett, M., & Kitson, A.* (2017). Blurring the Boundaries of ‘Planner’ and ‘Planned’: Exploring the Meaning and Governance Implications of Indigenous Property Development, Association of Collegiate Schools of Planning Annual Conference, Denver, CO.
My contribution was 70%; I development and presented the conference paper; I also secured the funding to support this work, participated in the New Zealand fieldwork and conducted the Canadian research.
- 4) Kitson, A.*, Barry, J., & Thompson-Fawcett, M. (2017). Indigenous-Municipal Co-Determination of New Patterns of Urban Development. Association of Collegiate Schools of Planning Annual Conference, Denver, CO.
My contribution was 20%; I developed the abstract for this conference paper, secured the funding for the project, and participated in data collection. I also mentored the student author while on sabbatical in New Zealand.
- 5) Thompson-Fawcett, M., Kitson, A.*, & Barry, J. (2017). Enhancing Cultural Aspiration in Urban Design: The Gradual Transformation by Indigenous Innovation. Association of Collegiate Schools of Planning Annual Conference, Denver, CO.
My contribution was 10%; I secured the funding that supported half of the empirical work, designed the interview schedule and co-conducted several interviews.
- 6) Barry, J. (2016). Unsettling Notions of Planning ‘Competence’: Lessons from Service-Learning with Indigenous Peoples, Association of Collegiate Schools of Planning Annual Conference, Portland, USA.
- 7) Barry, J. & Porter, L. (2015) Indigenous Peoples and the Struggle for Coexistence in Planning: Agonism as a decolonizing praxis?, Association of Collegiate Schools of Planning Annual Conference, Houston, TX.
My contribution was 70%; I presented and developed the conference paper: I refined the conceptual framing, using data that I was directly involved in collecting and analyzing.
- 8) Barry, J. (2015). “Won’t you be my neighbour?” Urban Reserves, Treaty Settlements Lands and the Discursive Construction of Indigenous-Municipal Planning Relations”, Association of American Geographers Annual Conference, Chicago, USA.
Although the conference is not pre-screened, this paper was part of a series of pre-organized and pre-screened sessions on “Settler Colonialism and the City”. Not all of the papers that were submitted to these sessions were accepted.
- 9) Barry, J. (2014). “Won’t you be my neighbour?” Urban Reserves, Treaty Settlements Lands and the Discursive Construction of Indigenous-Municipal Planning Relations, Association of Collegiate Schools of Planning Annual Conference, Philadelphia, PA.
- 10) Barry, J. & Porter, L. (2013). Bounded Recognition: Urban Planning and the Textual Recognition of Indigenous Rights in Canada and Australia. Association of European Schools of Planning and Association of Collegiate Schools of Planning Joint Congress, Dublin Ireland.

My contribution was 60%; I presented and wrote the majority of the conference paper; I conducted the Canadian case study and did the textual analysis. I co-developed the analytical framework and did a significant portion of the writing.

- 11) Barry, J. & Porter, L. (2011). Indigenous Recognition in State-Based Planning Systems: Understanding Textual Mediation in the Contact Zone. Association of Collegiate Schools of Planning, Salt Lake City, UT.
My contribution was 70%; I presented and wrote the majority of the conference paper, using a conceptual and methodological framework that I co-developed.
- 12) Barry, J. (2009). The Evolution of ‘Government-to-Government’ Planning in the British Columbian Rainforest: A Punctuated Process of Institutional Change. Association of Collegiate Schools of Planning Annual Conference, Crystal City, VA.
- 13) Barry, J. (2008). Bridging Institutional Analysis & Collaborative Resource Management Theory: Lessons from the Kawartha Highlands. Association of European Schools of Planning and Association of Collegiate Schools of Planning Joint Congress, Chicago, IL.

(d) Other Conference Presentations *denotes student

- 1) Barry, J. & Thompson-Fawcett, M. (2020). Decolonizing the Boundaries between the ‘Planner’ and the ‘Planned’: Exploring the Governance Implications of Indigenous Property Development. Canadian Association of Geographers Conference, Victoria, BC (conference cancelled due to COVID-19).
My contribution was 70%; I development and presented the conference paper; I also secured the funding to support this work, participated in the New Zealand fieldwork and conducted the Canadian research.
- 2) Hallbom, A.* & Barry, J. (2019). Discourse, Policy, or Leadership? Urban Reserves and First Nation-Municipal Intergovernmental Relations. Canadian Association of Geographers Conference, Winnipeg, MB.
My contribution was 50%; I was presenting author and developed the entire presentation, using data from my own research and data collected by my graduate student/first author as part of a wider SSHRC project.
- 3) Tembo, S.* & Barry, J. (2019) Indigenous reconciliation, planning and Canada’s ‘Big Cities’: Exploring the Pathways Not Taken. Canadian Association of Geographers Conference, Winnipeg, MB.
My contribution was 50%; I developed the initial idea and methodological approach for this project; my student then developed the ideas as part of her Master’s thesis; she developed and gave the presentation; I provided the overall structure for the talk and gave editorial comments.
- 4) Barry, J. & Agyeman, J. (2019). On Belonging and Becoming in the Settler-Colonial City: Lessons for US Urban Planning. Urban Affairs Association, Los Angeles, CA.
My contribution was 70%; I developed and delivered the presentation based on arguments from a draft manuscript for which I am the lead author.
- 5) Barry, J. (2017). Urban Reserves, Intergovernmental Agreements and the Emergence of New Forms of Municipal Colonialism. Canadian Association of Geographers Conference, York University.
Invited paper to a pre-organized session on land use conflicts and planning.

- 6) Barry, J. & Porter, L. (2016). (Un)settling planning practice: Lessons from the experiences of Indigenous peoples, Moving beyond conflict in planning: towards a critical consensus politics?, RMIT University Europe, Barcelona, Spain.
My contribution was 70%; I presented and wrote the majority of the conference paper, using data that was collected and analyzed with co-author.
- 7) Barry, J. (2014). “Won’t you be my neighbour?” Urban Reserves, Treaty Settlements Lands and the Discursive Construction of Indigenous-Municipal Planning Relations”, Institute of Australian Geographers/New Zealand Geographical Society Conference, Melbourne, Australia.
- 8) Barry, J. (2012). Adaptive Collaborative Arrangements & Rigid ‘Texts’? Indigenous peoples and strategic natural resource planning in British Columbia, Canada. Interpretive Policy Analysis Conference, Tilburg, The Netherlands.
- 9) Barry, J. (2011). Indigenous-State Planning as Inter-Institutional Capacity Development: The Evolution of ‘Government-to-Government’ Relations in Coastal British Columbia. Interpretive Policy Analysis Conference, Cardiff, Wales.
- 10) Barry, J. & Porter, L. (2011). Indigenous People and Planning: Indigenous Recognition in Planning Texts and Practices in British Columbia, Canada and Victoria, Australia. Interpretive Policy Analysis Conference, Cardiff, Wales.
My contribution was 70%; I presented and wrote the majority of the conference paper, using a conceptual and methodological framework that I co-developed.
- 11) Barry, J. (2009) The Evolution of ‘Government-to-Government’ Planning in the British Columbian Rainforest: A Punctuated Process of Institutional Change. International Symposium on Society and Resource Management, Vienna, Austria.
- 12) Porter, L. & Barry, J. (2010). Recognising Indigenous Rights in Land Use Planning Governance. Challenging Orthodoxies. Critical Governance Conference, University of Warwick, England.
My contribution was 45%; I developed an earlier version of this presentation and co-developed the conceptual and methodological framework.
- 13) Barry, J. (2007). Deepening the Discourse on Co-Planning with Aboriginal Peoples: A Synthesis of Existing Models of Indigenous Justice and Communicative Planning Theory. International Symposium on Society and Resource Management, Park City, UT.
- 14) Barry, J. (2005). Collaborative Decision-Making and Persistent Land Use Conflict: The Kawartha Highlands Case Study. International Symposium on Society and Resource Management, Ostersund, Sweden.
- 15) Barry, J. (2004). Exploring Collaborative Decision-Making and Persistent Land Use Conflict: The Kawartha Highlands Case Study. Parks Research Forum of Ontario, Thunder Bay, ON.
- 16) Barry, J. (2003). Applicability of Collaborative Natural Resource Management to Planning and Management of Ontario’s Protected Areas. Parks Research Forum of Ontario, London, ON.

4. Record of Research Applications

Project Title	Funder	Date	Role	Requested	Received
Awechigewin: Developing a Virtual Approach to Community-Based Planning with Michipicoten First Nation	Mitacs Accelerate, Indigenous Special Call	01/2021	Principal Investigator	$15,000	$15,000
Niwiigwaaminaanin: Co-Design for On-Reserve Housing	SSHRC Partnership Development Grant	11/2020	Co-Investigator	$188,140	$188,140
Transformative Climate Risk Management in the Americas	New Frontiers in Research Fund - Transformation	07/2020 (Letter of Intent)	Co-Investigator	$24,000,000	Not Awarded
Between Virtue and Profession: Urban Planning and the Public Participation Industry in Canada and Australia	SSHRC Insight Development Grant	02/2020	Principal Investigator	$73,577	$73,577
Sewá:ko (arriving home): Indigenous housing and building for the next seven generations	New Frontiers in Research Fund - Exploration	12/2019 (Final Stage)	Co-Principal Investigator	$200,000	$200,000
Six Miles Deep: Mapping Histories of Environmental Transformation in the Grand River Territories of the Haudenosaunee	SSHRC Partnership Development Grant	11/2019	Co-Investigator	$200,000	$200,000
Linking Six Nations Land Stewardship, Climate Action and Housing Provision on the Haldimand Tract	UW Interdisciplinary Trailblazers	11/2019	Principal Investigator	$79,888	$79,888*
Indigenous development alternatives: An urban youth perspective from Bolivia	Economic & Social Research Council New Investigator Grant (UK)	03/2019	International Advisor (equiv. to Collaborator)	£237,687 ($402,000)	£237,687
Six Miles Deep: Six Nations of the Grand River histories of land use and reclamation in the Haldimand Tract	UW Interdisciplinary Trailblazers	03/2019	Co-Investigator	$80,000	Not funded
Designing the future: Co-creating a methodology for community-based housing design in Nishnawbe Aski Nation Territory	SSHRC Connection Grant, Special Call: Indigenous Research	09/2018	Co-Investigator	$49,684	$49,684
Whose Metrics? Creating community-based indicators to reimagine First Nations housing systems	SSHRC Partnership Development Grant	11/2018	Co-Investigator	$198,793	$198,793
Indigenous Peoples, Municipalities and the Emergence of New Urban Planning Contact Zones: The Examples of Manitoba, Canada	SSHRC Insight Development Grant	02/2016	Principal Investigator	$66,040	$58,540

Project Title	Funder	Date	Role	Requested	Received
& Canterbury, Aotearoa New Zealand
(Un)settling planning practice: Lessons from the experiences of Indigenous peoples	University of Manitoba / SSHRC, Travel Grant	02/2016	Principal Investigator	$850	$850
First Nation-Municipal Collaboration and the 'Ruling Relations' of Urban Land Use Planning	SSHRC Insight Development Grant	02/2015	Principal Investigator	$73,928	Not funded
Dene First Nations health research - planning for a future without cancer	CIHR, Collaborative Health Research Projects	05/2014 (LOI)	Co-Investigator	$400,000	Not Funded
First Nation-Municipal Collaboration and the 'Ruling Relations' of Urban Land Use Planning	SSHRC Insight Development Grant	02/2014	Principal Investigator	$71,890	Not funded
Ecosystem-based management and community benefits: collaborative research in the Nanwakolas Region	SSHRC Insight Grant	10/2013	Co-Investigator	$498,626	Not Funded
Urban Reserves and the Potential for Collaborative First Nation-Municipal Planning: Understanding the Manitoba Experience Thus Far	University of Manitoba Research Grants Program	10/2013	Principal Investigator	$6900	$6900
Indigenous Recognition in State-Based Planning Systems: Understanding Textual Mediation in the Contact Zone	School of Social & Political Sciences Support Fund, University of Glasgow	03/2011	Principal Investigator	£720 ($1210)	£720
Indigenous Recognition in State-Based Planning Systems: Understanding Textual Mediation in the Contact Zone	Urban Studies Research Award, University of Glasgow	01/2011	Principal Investigator	£960 ($1620)	£960
Indigenous-State Planning as Inter-Institutional Capacity Development: The Evolution of 'Government-to-Government' Relations in Coastal British Columbia	School of Social & Political Sciences Support Fund, University of Glasgow	01/2011	Principal Investigator	£740 ($1250)	£740

*awarded as an UW Indigenous Research Award

C. SERVICE

1. Committees

Level	Year	Activity
University	2018-Present	Indigenization Working Group (renamed 'Indigenous Priorities Action Committee' in 2021), Faculty Association of the University of Waterloo
	2016	University of Manitoba Senate, University of Manitoba (Elected)

Faculty	2018	Canada Research Chair Search Committee, Faculty of Environment, University of Waterloo
	2017-2018	Indigenous Scholar Search Committee, Faculty of Architecture & Faculty of Engineering, University of Manitoba
	2015-2018	Nominating Committee, Faculty of Architecture, University of Manitoba
	2014-2018	Curriculum Committee, Faculty of Architecture, University of Manitoba
	2015-2016	Faculty Executive Committee, Faculty of Architecture, University of Manitoba
	2013-2016	Library Committee, Faculty of Architecture, University of Manitoba
Department/ School	2020-Present	School of Planning Curriculum Committee, University of Waterloo
	2020-Present	School of Planning Committee on Anti-Racism, Indigenization, Equity, Diversity and Inclusion, University of Waterloo
	2020	School of Planning Fall Orientation Committee, University of Waterloo
	2019	School of Planning Director Nominating Committee, University of Waterloo (Elected)
	2013-2018	City Planning Graduate Admissions Committee, University of Manitoba (Served as Committee Chair in 2016)
	2013	City Planning Headship Search Committee, University of Manitoba

2. Other University Service

Level	Year	Activity
University	2018-Present	Designated Dissertation Chairs Pool, Graduate Studies and Postdoctoral Affairs, University of Waterloo
	2017	Organizer, Information Session on Indigenous Planning, Miigizi Agamik/ Aboriginal Student Centre, University of Manitoba (fundraised to bring in an Indigenous practitioner and hosted the event)
	2014-Present	Guest Lecturer: 2020 : ARCH 520, University of Waterloo 2019 &amp; 2021 : WS 365: Research as Resistance, University of Waterloo 2014 : MDP 7705: Environment and Sustainability, University of Winnipeg; NRI 7222: Human Dimensions of Natural Resource Management, University of Manitoba
Faculty	2019-2021	Space Captain, Cities Research Cluster, Faculty of Environment, University of Waterloo
	2014	Organizer, Faculty of Architecture Atmosphere Conference , University of Manitoba (organized and hosted keynote speaker, who I also arranged to speak at the Canadian Association of Planning Students Annual Conference)
	2014	Organizer, Faculty of Architecture Cultural Events , University of Manitoba (organized and hosted keynote speaker)
	2013-2015	Guest Lecturer: 2016 : EVAR 4004/ARCH 7070: Architecture Studio, University of Manitoba 2015 : EVAR 4004/ARCH 7070: Architecture Studio, University of Manitoba
Department/ School	2019-Present	Faculty Liaison to the Association of Graduate Planners' Speakers Series, University of Waterloo
	2011-Present	Guest Lecturer: 2020 : PLAN 104; PLAN 233, University of Waterloo 2019 : PLAN 104; PLAN 233, University of Waterloo 2018 : PLAN 104; PLAN 801/802, University of Waterloo

		2017: CITY 7030: Planning Theory, University of Manitoba 2011: Social Research and Investigation; Research Methods and Dissertation Design, Urban Studies, University of Glasgow
	2013	Undergraduate Admissions Tutor, Department of Town and Regional Planning, University of Sheffield (involved working with the central admission office to review all application and to coordinate departmental open houses for prospective students and their families)
	2012-2013	Year Tutor, Department of Town and Regional Planning, University of Sheffield (involved meeting with over 100 undergraduate students each semester and being their main point of contact when issues arise in any of their courses)
	2012	Speaker, Research in Progress Seminar Series, University of Sheffield
	2011	Speaker, Urban Studies Workshop Series, University of Glasgow
	2010-2012	Co-Organizer and Moderator, Urban Studies Workshop Series, University of Glasgow

3. Community Service

Type	Year	Activity
Committee Membership	2021-Present	Ontario Professional Planners Institute, Indigenous Planning Advisory Committee
	2020-Present	Research Methods and Community Engagement Advisor, Michipicoten First Nation Land Use Planning Committee, Wawa, ON
	2015-2016	Program committee, Manitoba Planning Conference (non-academic conference for practicing planners and municipal councillors)
	2014-2016	Board member, Peg City Car Coop, Winnipeg, MB
Community Event Organization	11/2014	Co-organizer, Coming to a Common Place: Indigenous Peoples and Urban Design”, Faculty of Architecture/Campus Planning Workshop, University of Manitoba, Winnipeg, MB.
	03/2014	Organizer, Indigenous Design and Planning Network Gathering (for First Nation & other allied practitioners), University of Manitoba, Winnipeg, MB
	12/2013	Organizer, Indigenous Design and Planning Network Gathering (for First Nation & other allied practitioners), University of Manitoba, Winnipeg, MB
Community Knowledge Dissemination Seminars and Workshops	09/2020	Co-developed and Co-presented Webinar and Seminar Discussion, First Nation-Municipal Relationships: Best Practices and Emerging Challenges in the Context of COVID-19 , Region of Waterloo
	03/2019	Guest speaker at Lunch and Learn on Indigenous Planning, Shared Value Solutions (planning consultancy), Guelph, ON
	03/2019	Workshop facilitation, Nishnawbe Aski Nation Environment, Climate Change & Housing Symposium, Thunder Bay, ON
	02/2019	Knowledge dissemination meeting about urban reserves with municipal planners, Corner Brook, NL
	02/2019	Knowledge dissemination meeting about urban reserves with Qalipu First Nation, Corner Brook, NL
	10/2017	Knowledge dissemination workshop, Indigenous Peoples, Municipalities and the Emergence of New Urban Planning Contact Zones , Winnipeg, MB
	04/2017	Seminar presentation to local government officials (also video recorded), Auckland, New Zealand
	03/2017	Seminar presentation to state-level government employees at the Department of Environment for New South (also video recorded), Sydney, Australia

	12/2015	Presentation on Ownership, Control, Access & Possession of Indigenous Data to Nisichawayasihk Cree Nation Land Use Planning Workshops, Nelson House, MB
	10/2014	Presentation on First Nation Land Use Planning to Nisichawayasihk Cree Nation Land Use Planning Workshops, Nelson House, MB
	10/2013	Presentation on Comprehensive Community Planning to Frontier Foundation Northern Housing Conference, Winnipeg MB
Media Contributions	10/2018	Winnipeg Free Press , “Poverty to Prosperity: First Nations in other provinces have used a helping hand from tax advantages to establish urban reserves producing economic growth, transforming Indigenous lives and benefitting surrounding communities”
	08/2018	Otago Daily Times (New Zealand newspaper), “Maori urban design principles suggested for city buildings”
	07/2017	The Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, Manitoba “Parker Lands consultations would give Métis a say on ancestral land”
	04/2017	South Sydney Herald (Australian newspaper), “Development and Indigenous self-determination”
	11/2016	The Guardian , “Can Indigenous culture ever coexist with urban planning?”
	11/2016	Foreground (publication of Australian Institute of Landscape Architects), “What does planning for Indigenous land rights and coexistence look like?”
	10/2016	ArchitectureAU (online publication associated with the Institute of Australian Architects), “New book to connect urban planners and Indigenous communities”
Other	06/2020	Webinar moderator, Land Use Planning on Reserve Land, Canadian Institute of Planners Indigenous History Month Continuous Professional Learning Sessions
	05/2016	Session moderator, Scenario Planning for Uncertain Futures, Manitoba Planning Conference , Brandon, MB
	02/2014	Panel moderator, Planning with First Nations: Growing Relationships from Respect to Trust, Manitoba Planning Conference , Brandon, MB

D. PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

1. Professional Planning Designations

- i. Full Member and Registered Professional Planner, Ontario Professional Planning Institute (2018-Present)
- ii. Full Member, Canadian Institute of Planners (2018-Present)
- iii. Candidate Member, Manitoba Professional Planning Institute (2015-2018)
- iv. Candidate Member, Canadian Institute of Planners (2015-2018)

2. Positions Held or Service to Professional Societies

- i. Doctoral Committee, Association of Collegiate Schools of Planning (2021-Present)
- ii. Panellist, Early Career Round Table, Canadian Association of Geographers, 2019 Conference (started to organize the panel for the 2020 conference, before cancelled due to COVID-19)
- iii. Conference Session Organizer, Association of American Geographers

- a. Paper Panel: Settler-Colonial Governance & The Dispossessionary Ordering of Indigenous Lands, Association of American Geographers Annual Conference 2018, New Orleans, LA.
- iv. Conference Session Organizer, Association of Collegiate Schools of Planning
  - a. Pre-screened Round Table (2020): Indigenous Peoples' Engagement in Urban Property Development: The paradoxes and ambiguities in settler-colonial contexts, Association of Collegiate Schools of Planning Virtual Conference (had to cancel when scheduled at 3:00 local time for half the participants)
  - b. Pre-Conference Workshop and Pre-Screened Round Table: Unsettling Planning Theory, Association of Collegiate Schools of Planning Conference 2016, Portland, OR.
  - c. Pre-screened Paper Panels: (Un)Learning Planning Competencies, Association of Collegiate Schools of Planning Conference 2016, Portland, OR.
  - d. Pre-screened Round Table (2013): Recognising marginalised property rights in planning: beyond (neo)liberal conceptions of property, Association of European Schools of Planning and Association of Collegiate Schools of Planning Joint Congress, Dublin, Ireland.
  - e. Pre-screened Round Table (2011): Indigenous People and Planning, Association of Collegiate Schools of Planning Conference, Salt Lake City, UT.
- v. Conference Session Organizer, Interpretative Policy Analysis Network
  - a. Paper Panel (2012): Planning as a collaborative act / the plan as a collaborative actor, Interpretive Policy Analysis Conference, Tilburg, The Netherlands.
- vi. Discussant and Conference Session Chair, Association of Collegiate Schools of Planning (2020; 2019, 2018, 2013)

3. Refereeing

(a) Journals

Aboriginal Policy Studies (2020); American Indian Quarterly (2017); Canadian Planning and Policy (2021; 2019); Critical Policy Studies (2012); International Planning Studies (2020); International Journal of Indigenous Policy (2021); International Journal of Urban and Regional Research (2021); Journal of Planning Education and Research (2019; 2019; 2017); Local Environment (2021, 2019); Journal of Planning Literature (2016); Journal of Urban Design (2019; 2018); Journal of Race, Ethnicity and the City (2020); Planning Theory & Practice (2019; 2018; 2015; 2014; 2012); Planning Theory (2016; 2013)

(b) Book Manuscripts

Routledge (2018)

(c) Grant Applications

Marsden Fund, Royal Society Te Apārangi, Aotearoa New Zealand (2020); Mitacs (2021, 2020, 2019); Polar Canada (2019)

4. Editorial Duties

- i. Editorial Board Member, Canadian Policy and Planning Journal (2018-Present)

- ii. Editorial Board Member, Local Environment: The International Journal of Justice and Sustainability (2015-Present)

E. CONTRACTS AND CONSULTING

---

- i. Land Use Planning Pilot Initiative – Student Work Placement. Contribution Agreement between Brokenhead Ojibway Nation and Janice Barry, University of Manitoba. 2013-2015, $22,000
- ii. Partnership Agreement between Nisichawayasihk Cree Nation and Janice Barry/University of Manitoba Indigenous Planning Studio. 2014, $6000