PARTICIPANTS WILL:

• Start with 3 weeks of classroom learning, negotiation training and guest lecturers at SFU’s Burnaby campus as well as field studies to observe military training throughout BC and Alberta

• Week 4 in Ottawa: Engage decision makers at the Department of National Defence, Global Affairs Canada and Canadian Joint Operations Command

• Week 5 in Brussels: Observe and engage NATO and EU experts and diplomats at NATO HQ, SHAPE, EU Military Staff HQ and European External Action Services

• Week 6 in Riga: Visit a live NATO operation to observe a multinational deployment of troops and visit NATO’s Strategic Communications Centre of Excellence

• Week 7 in Rome: Receive hands-on diplomatic training at NATO Defense College

Like a dynamic practicum or apprenticeship, the NATO Field School prepares you for entry-level employment in foreign affairs, defence policy, and various national and international security sectors as well as international NGO sectors.
