HH 344 Wednesday – 9:30-12:30 pm

Office Hours: Tuesday: 1-2:20 pm

This course examines the connections and disconnects between conventional diplomacy and more unconventional forms of diplomacy. The course starts by an overview about what actors, sites and goals are traditionally understood to be the focal point of diplomatic study and practice. It will then analyze how these conceptions can be contested, both within and without the state system. One side of these unconventional activities pushes the goals of diplomacy both in terms of its efficiency (crisis management) and legitimacy (global governance). Another side however points to a more problematic dimension, with a de-stabilizing effect.

Required Texts:

Andrew F. Cooper , Brian Hocking and William Maley, Global Governance and Diplomacy: Worlds Apart ? (Palgrave, 2008). .

A number of this course's readings are peer-reviewed journal articles. These can be accessed via the University of Waterloo's library system. Please use the links outlined below and search using the journal title. As well, some of the newspaper and magazine articles may need to be accessed through Factiva, LexisNexis or another similar research database—which can be found via the UW Library website.

Optional Texts:

Andrew F. Cooper. Celebrity Diplomacy (Paradigm, 2008).

Course Requirements:

The student led discussions will focus on a critical analysis of some of the readings in the weekly readings. Students will be able to select their assignments by the second week. One of the assignments will be turned into a term paper. There will also be a mid-term test, with short questions defining and analyzing terms from the first half of the course.

Leadership of class presentation(s) – 40% - 20% for each of two presentations
Including an 4-8 page analysis - required BY 4:30 THE DAY BEFORE the class. E-MAIL COMMUNICATION IS FINE.

Paper: The essay assignment for the class will be an expansion of one of these analyses to between 18-25 pages (12 point font)

The paper is worth – 40% - based on one of the presentations

This paper will be due April 5

Mid-term test February 23 – 20%

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

All students in the program are expected to know what constitutes academic integrity, to avoid committing academic offences, and to take responsibility for their actions. When the commission of an offence is established, disciplinary penalties will be imposed in accord with Policy #71 (Student Academic Discipline). For information on categories of offences and types of penalties, students are directed to consult the summary of Policy #71 which is supplied in the Graduate Calendar (on the Web at <http://www.grad.uwaterloo.ca/ACMS/default.aspx?sectionID=5194>). If you need help in learning what constitutes an academic offence; how to avoid offences such as plagiarism, cheating, and double submission; how to follow appropriate rules with respect to “group work” and collaboration; or if you need clarification of aspects of the discipline policy, ask your course instructor for guidance. Other resources regarding the discipline policy are your academic advisor, the Department Chair, and the Graduate Associate Dean.

Students who believe that they have been wrongfully or unjustly penalized have the right to grieve; refer to Policy #70, Student Grievance.

(<http://www.grad.uwaterloo.ca/ACMS/default.aspx?sectionID=5194>).
