

GRADUATE READING COURSE FORM

Note: Normally, you can only take ONE reading course during your Political Science MA/PhD program.

Student Name: _____

ID#: _____

Instructor: _____

Term & Year: _____

Course Number: _____

Topic Title of Reading Course (30 characters max)

Arrangements for the course, faculty and Graduate Chair approval must be completed no later than two weeks after the beginning of the term. Credit will not be granted for a reading course retroactively.

Is this your first reading course in your MA/PhD program? YES NO

Requirements:

1. Student's reasons for taking this course (please attach):
 - A. How does this course relate to your program and your MRP / Thesis
 - B. Explain why the regular graduate courses offered are unsuitable to your program of study
2. Please attach the course outline. The following items should be included:
 - A. Subject matter to be covered
 - B. A bibliography and list of resource materials
 - C. The amount and frequency of student-faculty interaction/discussion planned
 - D. The course requirements agreed upon (i.e. Essays, term papers, examinations, etc.)
3. If doing the work of an undergraduate course is one of the components of the graduate reading course you are proposing:
 - A. Attach a copy of the undergraduate course outline
 - B. Indicate what additional readings, writing assignments, etc., you will be required to do in order to receive graduate course credit for this course (please attach).

Student signature

Date

Instructor signature

Date

Graduate Chair signature

Date