Your optometrist may ask you about smoking because it is linked to diseases that can cause blindness.

Your optometrist can refer you to services that can help you quit.

We ask because it’s our job to help you look after your sight.