Joint Appointments

- A joint appointment will be between no more than 2 departments.
- One department has to have more than 50% of the appointment.
- Start up grants of faculty members with joint appointments will be shared on a pro-rated basis between the 2 departments.
- The Chair of the department in which the faculty member has more than 50% of his/her appointment is responsible for providing office space.
- The Chair of the department in which the faculty member has more than 50% of his/her appointment is responsible, in consultation with the other chair, for determining the individual’s work load and graduate supervision duties.
- The Faculty member is a member of both departments and as a result can attend meetings of both departments; can vote in both departments; is on the mailing list for both departments; receives information distributed to faculty members of both departments.
- The Chair of the department in which the faculty member has more than 50% of his/her appointment is responsible for carrying out the annual evaluation but this has to be done in consultation with the other chair.
- The Chair of the department in which the faculty member has more than 50% of his/her appointment is responsible for carrying out the evaluation for a renewal of a probationary term, and for promotion and tenure proceedings.
- The Chair of the department in which the faculty member has less than 50% of his/her appointment is required to give information to the other chair when a joint appointment is being considered for renewal of probationary term, tenure and promotion.
- The faculty member with a joint appointment can sit on the DACA and the departmental T&PC of the department in which he/she has more than 50% of his/her appointment but not on committees of the department in which he/she has less than 50% of the appointment.
- The faculty member with a joint appointment can sit on the Faculty appointment committee and the Faculty T&PC of the department in which he/she has more than 50% of his/her appointment but not on committees of the Faculty in which he/she has less than 50% of the appointment.

Geoff

12 November, 2010