INTRODUCTION:
This course is of importance to those with interests in the field of human resources as well as to managers in all functional areas of an organization who need to build and develop the knowledge, skills and attitudes to effectively manage people. Strategic Human Resources Management must cope with administration, transactions, transformation, security, uncertainty, organizational development, strategy formulation, HR scorecards, innovation, HRM in the cloud, motivation, justice, horizontal and vertical alignment and other ideas and realities that challenge HRM.

Organizations gain sustainable competitive advantage through people thus making Human Resources Management an important partner in the strategic planning and decision making process. Overall, you will gain an understanding of why effective human resource practices are critical to the success of any organization and be introduced to the strategic planning role that Human Resources Professionals now play in organizations.

LEARNING OUTCOMES:
Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

• Understand both external and internal factors influencing organizational strategies and the benefits of strategic planning;
• Understand how the “global world around us” including the economy, competition, legislation and other environmental influences affect the importance of Strategic Human Resources Management;
• Gain a better understanding and knowledge regarding various HR topics including motivation and well-being of employees, leadership styles, restructuring, strategic HRM, culture, and various organizational designs;
• Understand why the HR Professional is an important business partner; and
• Understand how effective SHRM can contribute to the overall success of the organization.

REMOTE DELIVERY (WINTER 2021 TERM):

• Each week a PowerPoint presentation will be posted that aligns to a chapter from the text.
• You are required to read the chapter carefully and then review the corresponding PowerPoint.
• The weekly PowerPoints will highlight text information and I will provide a narrative on some slides to assist in your knowledge capture and topic understanding.
• You are responsible to check the weekly schedule which outlines your weekly activities, assessments and due dates.
• To ensure effective communications I am available for office hours. Please email me and we can book a time to discuss your inquiry.

APPRASING STUDENT PERFORMANCE:

Important NOTE: The due dates are not negotiable and need to be honored. Late assignments will not be accepted and will result in no mark being allocated for that particular assignments.
TAKE HOME ASSESSMENTS (4 X 25%):

The take home assessments will allow you the opportunity to respond to a number of short answer questions from the chapters being reviewed. For example, take home assessment #1 deals with chapter 1, 2, 3. Short answer questions will be taken from these chapters. The questions will be designed so that you can apply the learnings and demonstrate understanding. Here are some examples of questions:

1. Describe and explain the Four Dimensions of HRM. 2. Explain the concept of McDonaldization to the concept of social work.

The take home assessment will be posted on LEARN. The dates are listed on the weekly schedule. You are required to complete and return the assessment in word format to a drop box in LEARN. Late assessments will not be accepted. Clear directions will be given once assignments are posted.

Academic Integrity

In order to maintain a culture of academic integrity, members of the University of Waterloo are expected to promote honesty, trust, fairness, respect and responsibility. Check the Office of Academic Integrity website for more information.

https://uwaterloo.ca/academic-integrity/academic-misconduct

Discipline

A student is expected to know what constitutes academic integrity, to avoid committing academic offences, and to take responsibility for their actions. Check the Office of Academic Integrity for more information. A student who is unsure whether an action constitutes an offence, or who needs help in learning how to avoid offences (e.g., plagiarism, cheating) or about “rules” for group work/collaboration should seek guidance from the course professor, academic advisor, or the Undergraduate Associate Dean. When misconduct has been found to have occurred, disciplinary penalties will be imposed under Policy 71 – Student Discipline. For information on categories of offenses and types of penalties, students should refer to Policy 71 - Student Discipline. For typical penalties check Guidelines for the Assessment of Penalties.

Concerns about a Course Policy or Decision: We in the Psychology Department take great pride in the high quality of our program and our instructors. Though infrequent, we know that students occasionally find themselves in situations of conflict with their instructors over course policies or grade assessments. If such a conflict arises, the Associate Chair for Undergraduate Affairs (Richard Eibach) is available for consultation and to mediate a resolution between the student and instructor: Email: reibach@uwaterloo.ca; Ph 519-888-4567 ext. 38790

Grievance

A student who believes that a decision affecting some aspect of his/her university life has been unfair or unreasonable may have grounds for initiating a grievance. Read Policy 70 - Student Petitions and Grievances,
Section 4. When in doubt, please be certain to contact Richard Eibach, the Associate Chair for Undergraduate Affairs who will provide further assistance; reibach@uwaterloo.ca.

Appeals

A decision made or penalty imposed under Policy 70 - Student Petitions and Grievances (other than a petition) or Policy 71 - Student Discipline may be appealed if there is a ground. A student who believes they have a ground for an appeal should refer to Policy 72 - Student Appeals.

Note for Students with Disabilities: The AccessAbility Services office, located on the first floor of the Needles Hall extension (NH 1401), collaborates with all academic departments to arrange appropriate accommodations for students with disabilities without compromising the academic integrity of the curriculum. If you require academic accommodations to lessen the impact of your disability, please register with the AS office at the beginning of each academic term.

Turnitin.com: Text matching software (Turnitin®) may be used to screen assignments in this course. Turnitin® is used to verify that all materials and sources in assignments are documented. Students' submissions are stored on a U.S. server, therefore students must be given an alternative (e.g., scaffolded assignment or annotated bibliography), if they are concerned about their privacy and/or security. Students will be given due notice, in the first week of the term and/or at the time assignment details are provided, about arrangements and alternatives for the use of Turnitin in this course.

It is the responsibility of the student to notify the instructor if they, in the first week of term or at the time assignment details are provided, wish to submit alternate assignment.

Cross-listed Course (if applicable)

Please note that a cross-listed course will count in all respective averages no matter under which rubric it has been taken. For example, a PHIL/PSCI cross-list will count in a Philosophy major average, even if the course was taken under the Political Science rubric.

Accommodation for course requirements for Psychology courses.

Chosen/Preferred First Name

Do you want professors and interviewers to call you by a different first name? Take a minute now to verify or tell us your chosen/preferred first name by logging into WatIAM. Why? Starting in winter 2020, your chosen/preferred first name listed in WatIAM will be used broadly across campus (e.g., LEARN, Quest, Waterloo-Works, WatCard, etc.). Note: Your legal first name will always be used on certain official documents. For more details, visit Updating Personal Information.

Important Notes:

- If you included a preferred name on your OUAC application, it will be used as your chosen/preferred name unless you make a change now.
- If you don’t provide a chosen/preferred name, your legal first name will continue to be used.

Territorial Acknowledgement

We acknowledge that we are living and working on the traditional territory of the Attawandaron (also known as Neutral), Anishinaabe and Haudenosaunee peoples. The University of Waterloo is situated on the Haldimand Tract, the land promised to the Six Nations that includes ten kilometres on each side of the Grand River. For more information about the purpose of territorial acknowledgements, please see the CAUT Guide to Acknowledging Traditional Territory.

Academic freedom at the University of Waterloo Policy 33, Ethical Behaviour states, as one of its general principles (Section 1), “The University supports academic freedom for all members of the University community. Academic freedom carries with it the duty to use that freedom in a manner consistent with the scholarly obligation to base teaching and research on an honest and ethical quest for knowledge. In the context of this policy, 'academic freedom' refers to academic activities, including teaching and scholarship, as is articulated in the principles set out in the Memorandum of Agreement between the FAUW and the University of Waterloo, 1998 (Article 6). The academic environment which fosters free debate may from time to time include the presentation or discussion of unpopular opinions or controversial material. Such material shall be dealt with as openly, respectfully and sensitively as possible.” This definition is repeated in Policies 70 a
