

Centre for Career Action now seeking Student Career Leaders!

“Develop your own career while guiding your peers to develop theirs.”

The Centre for Career Action is currently recruiting enthusiastic and career-oriented Student Career Leaders for the 2015-2016 academic year.

Does this sound like you? If so, please apply for one or both of the following opportunities:

1. Career advising
2. Marketing & communications

With either opportunity, you will gain access to mentorship and skills development coaching from a career advisor specializing in that area of expertise.

Requirements:

- » 5 hours/week minimum (choose your own schedule)
- » 2-term commitment (not necessarily consecutive)
- » 3-day mandatory training session (during week of Sept 7, 2015)
- » A helping attitude and ability to converse with and be sensitive to all student populations
- » Excellent writing and editing skills (Career advising role)
- » Public speaking experience is an asset (Marketing & communications role)

Application Procedure:

- » Deadline for Fall 2015 applications: Friday March 27, 2015
- » To apply, please go to: <https://uwaterloo.ca/career-action/student-career-leaders>
- » Have questions? Please contact Rebecca Burwell by e-mail (rburwell@uwaterloo.ca) or phone at 519-888-4567 x 31003
- » We strive to have a diverse team of SCLs, and encourage undergraduate and graduate students from all areas of study to apply

Michelle, Student Career Leader, critiques the résumé of Lucas, 2B ENV student.