

Final Grades

In accordance with Policy 19 - Access To and Release of Student Information, the University does not release final examination grades or final course grades to students. Students must go to Quest to see all final grades. Any grades posted in Waterloo LEARN are unofficial.

Concerns About the Course or Instructor (Informal Stage)

We in the Psychology Department take great pride in the high quality of our program and our instructors. Though infrequent, we know that students occasionally find themselves in situations of conflict with their instructors over course policies or grade assessments. If such a conflict arises, the Associate Chair for Undergraduate Studies, Dr. Richard Eibach, is available for consultation and to mediate a resolution between the student and instructor. Contact information is as follows:

Official Version of the Course Syllabus Documents

Syllabus documents on LEARN may change as instructors develop a course, but they become final as of the first class meeting for the term. An exception: dates of debates and presentations may vary slightly if course size requires that we have 7 topics (14 teams). Enrolment can change until the end of the second week of the term. Teams will be capped at 6 members each.
