

Volunteer and Paid Research Assistant Positions in OB/HRM Summer 2015

Dr. Ivona Hideg (www.wlu.ca/sbe/ihideg)

Lab website: <https://sites.google.com/site/ivonahideg/>

Graduate students: Samantha Hancock and Anja Krstic

Research Areas: Diversity and equity in the workplace; gender and cultural diversity; emotions and emotion regulation in the workplace

Duties:

- Managing recruitment and scheduling of participants
- Running lab studies
- Helping with surveys
- Other duties depending on your interests (e.g., literature review, data analysis, etc.)

Time commitment: Approximately 5 - 8 hours per week (flexible schedule)

Qualifications:

- We are looking for a reliable, detail-oriented, and highly motivated individual
- Applicants should have a strong interest in organizational behaviour, industrial-organizational psychology, and social psychology research
- Prior research experience is not necessary but is an asset

Benefits:

- High quality research experience in a business school lab and exposure to organizational psychology
- Training in all aspects of research (in particular suited for students planning to pursue graduate studies)
- References
- Opportunity for conference presentations
- Potential for a paid research assistant position in Fall 2015
- Applicants with previous applicable RA experience would be considered for immediate paid position

Application Process

If you're interested in this position, please send the following documents to edgelablaurier@gmail.com

1. Resume
2. Unofficial transcript
3. Cover letter explaining your interest in this position
4. Availability for Summer 2015