PMath 646 - Introduction to Commutative Algebra -

Course Description

Module theory: classification of finitely generated modules over PIDs, exact sequences and tensor products, algebras, localization, chain conditions. Primary decomposition, integral extensions, Noether's normalization lemma, and Hilbert's Nullstellensatz. If time permits, other topics will be covered.