Learn to Skate Head / Assistant Instructor

The Zone Training - Waterloo, ON

Urgently hiring
Waterloo, ON
Part-time
$15 - $18 an hour

Job Summary

The Learn to Skate Instructor is responsible for teaching basic skating skills to children, ages 3-8. Employees within this job classification must work very well with primary ages and they must have strong interpersonal skills to communicate with the participants’ parents. The Assistant Instructor is required to ensure the program is delivered as intended by management and that it meets or exceeds client standards. Head Instructors have additional responsibility and will progress into this role once they have experience in an Assistant role.

Pay rate is dependent on experience and flexibility with scheduling. Head Instructor rate could potentially be higher based on experience.

Typical Duties and Responsibilities

* Arrive 15 minutes early to set up training materials and greet participants
* Supervise the warm-up skate while the Head Instructor takes attendance
* Help lead the class through warm-up, basic skating activities and games
* Lead a small group of 3-5 participants through skill-specific development drills for a portion of the class (approximately 15 minutes)

Qualifications & Requirements

* Must have experience figure skating or playing hockey at a competitive level
* Must have knowledge of skating fundamentals and development tactics
* Able to present themselves professionally and communicate appropriately with all customers and staff members
* Strong planning and time management skills
* Must be physically able to skate for 50 minutes continuously multiple times in a day, up to 5 hours in a row
* Able to work and train in cold on-ice conditions
* First-Aid/CPR required
* Uniform purchase required
