The Joseph and Wolf Lebovic Chair of Jewish Studies Presents

Pope Francis and the Jews

A FRIENDSHIP REVISITED

PROF. MICHAEL HIGGINS

is a world renowned expert, columnist, and CBC consultant on Vatican affairs. Formerly President of St. Jerome's University, he is currently vice president for Mission and Catholic Identity at Sacred Heart University in Fairfield, Connecticut.

What is the attitude of the current Pope Francis toward the Jews? Where does he stand in relation to his immediate predecessors — John Paul II and Benedict XVI — on both theological and political grounds regarding such existentially crucial issues as the State of Israel, rising anti-semitism, and the Vatican's own relationship with Jews and Judaism?
