

Physician Assisted Dying

A conversation

With The Rev'd Douglas Graydon

24 September 2016

10 am to noon

Renison University College, 240 Westmount Rd. N., Waterloo

Free event,
including parking and light refreshments, but please register at
www.tinyurl.com/RIMConversation

Douglas is the Coordinator of Chaplaincy Services with the Diocese of Toronto and has 20+ years of end of life care experience.

Help clarify your values, thoughts, and feelings about physician assisted dying.

Explore the role of the congregation in death and dying.

Check-in and refreshments begin at 9:30 am.

You are welcome to continue the conversation over lunch (bring your own or purchase one in the Renison cafeteria).

Brought to by:

Renison University College and the Deanery of Waterloo

For more information, contact:

Marilyn Malton

mmalton@uwaterloo.ca

519-884-4404 ext. 28628

www.tinyurl.com/RIMConversation

Affiliated with

