

POSITION TITLE:	Residence Experience Peer Leader (SDS and WALC)
DEPARTMENT:	Student Experience and Housing
REPORTS TO:	Student Experience Coordinator
EFFECTIVE DATE:	August 25, 2025 – December 19, 2025

GENERAL ACCOUNTABILITY

Are you an outgoing senior Waterloo student who loves to help others and wants to enhance the student experience? A job as a Residence Experience Peer Leader may be the right fit for you!

Renison Student Experience and Housing is recruiting one (1) senior Waterloo student to serve as a Residence Experience Peer Leader (SDS) from August to December 2025. The chosen student staff will work approximately 4-6 hours per week both in person and occasionally virtually.

The Residence Experience Peer Leader will be a part of the Renison Student Experience and Housing team, which is tasked with building a strong Renison community, enhancing the student experience and fostering student development through targeted programming. These programming initiatives include Living Learning Communities (SDS, Warrior Academic Leadership Community, and BASE), Residence events, and Student Experience events. As a team, Peer Leaders will work in collaboration with other student leaders under the operational guidance of the Student Experience Coordinator. This specific position would provide leadership for support and programming for the Social Development Studies (SDS) Living-Learning Community that supports SDS students who live in Residence as well as the Warrior Academic Leadership Community (WALC) that supports Warrior Athletes who live in Residence.

Priority will be given to applicants who will be living in Renison Residence for the 2025/2026 academic year; however, it is not a requirement in order to apply for the position.

As a Residence Experience Peer Leader, we need you to:

- Be outgoing: you will be working with the Student Experience and Housing Team to deliver variety of programming initiatives. We need you to feel comfortable facilitating both in-person and some virtual events. During this, you will demonstrate a warm, welcoming attitude for every student. You will need to feel comfortable communicating with students to invite them to participate in events or engage in small talk conversations.
- Build a sense of community: Provide opportunities for students to participate in leadership and volunteer initiatives by developing opportunities for student leaders to be involved in such as student leadership committees (i.e. Renisix etc.). Support the concept of community living by encouraging cooperation, respect, and community spirit through their interactions and example. Foster and help develop interpersonal connections amongst all members of the Renison community.
- Be a positive role model: we need you to possess the skills needed to be a successful student, both personally and academically. You must exhibit awareness and knowledge of strategies for academic and personal success as a student.
- Be legally able to work in Canada: you must have a Social Insurance Number to fulfill the position.

NATURE & SCOPE

The position of Residence Experience Peer Leader is tasked with developing the student experience and fostering student development through targeted programming.

- Interpersonal Contacts: this position requires the incumbent to work collaboratively with a team of other Peer Leaders, Renisix Residence Student Leadership Committee, and the Student Experience Coordinator. The successful candidate must possess excellent interpersonal and mentorship skills to carefully understand, assess, and recommend supports and resources to support students in their personal and academic success through event planning and implementation.
- Decision-Making Authority: this position possesses decision-making authority based on established policy and procedure; complex and non-routine issues involve consultation with appropriate personnel.
- Level of Responsibility: this role has defined duties and responsibilities and receives direct supervision. The Peer Leader will be responsible for coordinating social and educational event programming for students.
- Physical and Sensory Demands: most of the time standing with some physical work will be required when preparing for events.
