

POSITION TITLE:	Student Experience Peer Leader
DEPARTMENT:	Student Experience and Housing
REPORTS TO:	Student Experience Coordinator
EFFECTIVE DATE:	August 31 – December 18, 2026

GENERAL ACCOUNTABILITY

Are you an outgoing senior Waterloo student who loves to help others and wants to enhance the student experience? A job as a Student Experience Peer Leader may be the right fit for you!

Renison Student Experience and Housing is recruiting three (3) senior Waterloo students to serve as a Student Experience Peer Leaders from late August to late December 2026. The chosen student staff will work approximately 4-6 hours per week both in person and occasionally virtually.

The Student Experience Peer Leaders will be a part of the Renison Student Experience and Housing team, which is tasked with building a strong Renison community, enhancing the student experience and fostering student development through targeted programming. These programming initiatives include Living Learning Communities (SDS), Residence events, and Student Experience events. As a team, Peer Leaders will work in collaboration with other student leaders under the operational guidance of the Student Experience Coordinator.

In addition to supporting all students who live, learn, and thrive at Renison, each Student Experience Peer Leader has a specific portfolio of focus:

- Student Experience Peer Leader – Residence portfolio: This position is to support all residence students coming to Renison, with a specific focus on incoming first-year students. This role will provide leadership for support and programming for the Social Development Studies (SDS) Living-Learning Community that supports SDS students who live in Residence. This position is responsible for the leadership and oversight of the residence student committee (Renisix) and coordinating programming initiatives with the leadership committee members. Help train and mentor student leadership committee members by facilitating student leadership committee meetings regularly to plan to program initiatives and facilitating events alongside the committee. This role is ideal for a student living in Renison Residence.
- Student Experience Peer Leader – Daytime Degree/RASC portfolio: This position is to support all academic students coming to Renison, with a specific focus on incoming first-year SDS students. This position is responsible for the leadership and oversight of the Renison Academic Student Committee (RASC) and coordinating programming initiatives with the leadership committee members. Help train and mentor student leadership committee members by facilitating student leadership committee meetings regularly to plan to program initiatives and facilitating events alongside the committee.
- Student Experience Peer Leader – Daytime Degree/First-year Peer Mentorship portfolio: This position is to support all daytime degree students taking courses at Renison within the School of Social Sciences and Humanities (RSSSH), the School of Social Work (SSW), and the School of Global Engagement and Education (SGEE). This role will provide programming initiatives to help support and enhance their connection with other students and Renison. This position will also support the development of a new peer mentor program for new incoming first-year students.

💡 When you submit your application for the position, you will be expected to indicate which role's portfolio you would like to apply. You can apply for any/all portfolios that you feel you are qualified.

As a Student Experience Peer Leader, we need you to:

- Be outgoing: you will be working with the Student Experience and Housing team to deliver variety of programming initiatives. We need you to feel comfortable facilitating both in-person and some virtual events. During this, you will demonstrate a warm, welcoming attitude for every student. You will need to feel comfortable communicating with students to invite them to participate in events or engage in small talk conversations.
- Build a sense of community: Provide opportunities for students to participate in leadership and volunteer initiatives by developing opportunities for student leaders to be involved in such as student leadership committees (i.e. RASC, Renisix, etc.). Support the concept of community living by encouraging cooperation, respect, and community spirit through their interactions and example. Foster and help develop interpersonal connections amongst all members of the Renison community.
- Be a positive role model: we need you to possess the skills needed to be a successful student, both personally and academically. You must exhibit awareness and knowledge of strategies for academic and personal success as a student.
- Be legally able to work in Canada: you must have a Social Insurance Number to fulfill the position.
