on-site, easy to talk to and always happy to listen (free coffee and cookies too)

“What made me pick Renison was the Social Development Studies program. I thought it was so unique that I could study and live in the same place. Living in the same building where your classes are is super convenient for the cold winter days in Waterloo!”

- AMANDA, Honours Social Development Studies and Honours Psychology, former Renison resident

WHY MAKE RENISON YOUR HOME?

Recently renovated and community-based facilities

- > Nine floors with their own traditions: Treetop, Oasis, Animal, Euphoria, Fubar, Moose Crossing, Loft, Midway, and Timbuktu
- > Renovations of the cafeteria and traditional rooms completed in fall 2014
- > Eight lounges: you can relax, study, watch TV, or play pool, foosball and table tennis
- > On-site library (voted “Best place to study on campus”) with book delivery service from Waterloo’s main campus libraries

Nutritious and diverse food choices

- > All-inclusive meal plan lets you swipe your card six times a day in our cafeteria
- > We can cater to special dietary needs - everyone is welcome
- > Cook some of your own meals with the food and equipment in “My Pantry” (with lessons taught by our very own chef)
- > Meals packed and set aside for you to pick up if you don’t have time to eat over the lunch/dinner hours
- > International menu options and “themed” college dinners to keep things interesting
- > Late dinners after 10pm can be ordered

Get social with other students

- > A student life coordinator helps develop student leadership opportunities and works with student groups to organize volunteer experience, charitable fundraising activities, and social events such as talent shows, carnivals, and trivia nights
- > Celebrate the start and end of the year with two semi-formal dances
- > Join an intramural team like dodgeball, ultimate frisbee, or volleyball
- > Join one of three living-learning communities: Social Development Studies, Warrior Academic Leadership Community and Bridge to Academic Success in English

RESIDENCE ROOMS

A New upgraded traditional room: Most residents live in large double rooms on friendly residence floors with shared bathroom facilities.

B Interconnecting rooms: “The Link” residence wing houses 50 students in air-conditioned single or double rooms with interconnecting bathrooms.

“WALC helped surround me with like-minded, driven, focused, high-calibre athletes who became friends and role models. They encouraged me to represent my team the best I can.”

- KRISTEN, Honours Psychology, varsity volleyball, former member of the Warrior Academic Leadership Community (WALC)

“Within a large university you may be a number, but at Renison you are a person that everyone knows.”

- STEPH, Kinesiology, varsity hockey, former member of the Warrior Academic Leadership Community (WALC)
