AFFILIATED WITH THE UNIVERSITY OF WATERLOO

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

In a nurturing environment, the Sakura Japanese Language School develops thoughtful and creative students who are open to exploring the world and gaining knowledge of Japanese language and culture.

OUR PURPOSE

- To provide an environment for students to enjoy learning in Japanese while fostering the four language skills
- To expose students to Japanese culture and to develop a broad perspective for living in a multicultural society

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Students will be able to communicate in Japanese through reading, writing, listening, and speaking
- Students will learn to accept and respect different languages and cultures

OUR PROGRAM

- Is open to students born between 2006-2013
- Maintains a small student to teacher ratio
- Conducts classes in Japanese
- Employs qualified and experienced teachers
- Uses original handouts and textbooks certified by Government of Japan
- Provides child-friendly desks and chairs
- Offers Japanese calligraphy, musical instruments, computer programs, and hands-on activities
- Holds school events that aid in learning traditional Japanese culture
