Committed to creating and sustaining a healthy workplace: We will act with integrity in our actions and choices.

Committed to inclusivity, equity and fairness: We will respect each other and work towards a just environment at Renison University College.

With mutual goodwill: We will trust each other’s competence and best intentions.

Committed to transparency, accountability and mutual understanding: We will communicate clearly and responsibly.

Holding the responsibilities of our particular roles: We will work toward our common objectives through respectful collaboration.

We will follow policies, procedures and processes that reflect Renison’s Shared Commitments and Institutional Mission.