Background

- Awarded through the tri-agency Canada Research Chairs Program (CRCP), the award recognizes the significant and impactful contributions that Marjorie Griffin Cohen, Louise Forsyth, Glenis Joyce, Audrey Kobayashi, Shree Mulay, Susan Prentice, Michèle Ollivier and Wendy Robbins have made to increase the level of equity in the CRCP and Canada’s research ecosystem more broadly, by way of their 2003 Canadian Human Rights complaints and their concerted efforts in the mediation processes, which led to both the 2006 Settlement Agreement and its addendum in 2019.

- The award recognizes the contributions of the entire group, while being named after the late Michèle Ollivier and Wendy Robbins, who passed away in 2010 and 2017, respectively, prior to the signing of the 2019 Addendum.
Objectives

• The objectives of the annual Robbins-Ollivier equity award are to:

  • fund bold and potentially game-changing projects that will challenge the status quo, spark change and take action to address persistent systemic barriers in the research ecosystem and academia;

  • recognize faculty members who contribute their time, expertise and lived experience to help address inequities in their institution, the research ecosystem and academia; and

  • provide opportunities for students and trainees to contribute to this important work.
Award Overview

| Value and Duration | • Total of $100,000 granted over one year (with possibility of a one-year extension in time only)
|                   | • Up to three awards per year |
| Nomination Deadline | July 29, 2022, 8 p.m. (eastern) |
| Results Announced  | Winter 2022-23 (to be confirmed) |

Detailed information available on the award website
Nominee Eligibility

To be eligible for nomination, the faculty member(s) must:

- be eligible to receive grant funding from the agencies;
- be holding a full-time academic appointment at the institution at the time of nomination and for the duration of the award; and
- be in good standing with CIHR, NSERC and SSHRC.

Current and former Canada Research Chairs (CRCs) are eligible, as are individuals who are not CRCs.

Institutional administrators who are eligible to hold grant funding from the agencies are also eligible to be nominated.
Award Funds

Eligible expenses include, but are not limited to:

• teaching/administrative release for the individual(s);
• student/trainee stipend(s) or salary;
• research costs according to the Chairs Administration Guide; and
• Potentially other costs not normally eligible given the objectives of the award to spark change.
Selection Criteria Overview

Project (60%)

- Evidence that the proposal is bold and potentially game-changing in terms of challenging the status quo and sparking change in the institution and/or the research ecosystem and academia.

Leadership and commitment of the nominee(s) toward equity (20%)

- Evidence of the nominee(s)’s leadership and commitment to making the research/academic environment/institution more equitable

Institutional nomination process and support for the initiative (20%)

- Evidence that the institution took measures to ensure that the internal nomination process was open and transparent
Internal Nomination Process

- UW may submit one institutional nomination for the award.

- We invite potential nominees (individuals and teams) to submit a one-page expression of interest by April 29, 2022, to research.equity@uwaterloo.ca

- To meet institutional nomination criteria for transparency and openness, we will engage the wider community through a new initiative where current UW community members can vote to show their support on proposed projects. Community votes will be submitted to the Internal Selection Committee for consideration with the nomination packages.

- An Internal Selection Committee of demonstrated equity champions from the campus environment will make the final selection for the institutional nomination.
Internal Nomination Stages

1) 1-page internal submission (voted on by community)
   - What are they going to do (identify/state the problem and/or proposed solution)
   - How they plan to work toward/achieve it (i.e., what steps are needed)
   - Why is it important and who is it important to/who does it benefit
   - How is it bold and game changing

2) 2-page internal submission, budget, and PI/team CV
   - Committee reviews and chooses a project based on the award criteria, the community votes, and the experience of the PI
   - Committee will provide feedback to the candidate

3) Development of the full proposal
   - Working with Awards Officer, Research Equity, consulting with internal faculty support
