

Report to the UWRA AGM from the Nominations Committee

Given the possibility that there would be no AGM because of the pandemic rules, as Chair of the Nominations Committee I invited current members of our Board to continue for another year, either in their current roles or in a different one. Apart from Dale Weber, who signalled that he would not be able to continue, everyone else agreed to do so. Even with Dale leaving, we still have a full complement of members. We have been opportunistic in recruiting, inviting people to join who are able to make important contributions even though there were no vacancies.

Alan George
Chair, Nominations Committee