

H. Election and Introduction of the new Board of Directors by the Chair of the Nominating Committee and comments (Sue Fraser)

Rose Vogt worked for the Federation of Students in 1984 as part of the team opening Federation Hall. In 1998 Rose began a 20-year career with the Graduate Student Association. Rose served as the 2018-19 UW Staff Association President prior to her retirement. She is looking forward to serving on the UWRA Board of Directors

-----

David Taylor was a faculty member in the School of Computer Science for 38 years, during which time he served as Associate Dean (Undergraduate) for seven years and was Director of the School for four years. David's interest in pension and benefits will be a valued asset to the UWRA Board.

-----

A more detailed bio for our two new board members will appear in the next edition of WATtimes.