UWRA FALL RECEPTION 2018 was held on Wednesday September 19, 2018 at the University Club on campus.

Approximately 63 members and guests attended the Fall Reception. An appreciative thank you message was sent to our guest speaker Dr. Steven Mock for his well-received presentation entitled Young at heart: The age you feel affects well-being in later life. Dr. Mock is a developmental psychologist and professor in the department of Recreation at the University of Waterloo.

Other invited guests included representatives from Human Resources, Faculty and Staff Associations as well as UW senior administrators. Complimentary cheese, cold canapés, and hot hors d'oeuvers were served. All paid up members of UWRA received a complimentary beverage. Annual membership sign-up was available for $15.00 and Lifetime Memberships for $130.00.

Invitations to the 2018 UWRA Fall Reception were given to new retirees at the May 9, 2018 University of Waterloo celebration of their retirement.

We extended invitations to this year's new retirees on May 1, 2019 to join us at the September 18, 2019 UWRA fall reception. The guest speaker this year will be local celebrity Neil Aitchison.
