<sup>1</sup> I acknowledge that I live and work on the traditional territory of the Neutral, Anishnaabeg, and Haudenosaunee peoples. The University of Waterloo is situated on the Haldimand Tract, land promised to Six Nations, which includes six miles on each side of the Grand River.

Director of Women’s Studies, University of Waterloo, 2014-2016. I led a reorganization, curricular revamp and rebranding of Women’s Studies. Highlights: led broad stakeholder consultation; moved WS into the Department of Philosophy, with attendant faculty and staff efficiencies; hired new tenure line faculty member; renamed program “Gender and Social Justice” with attendant revisions to the program’s mission, intended learning outcomes, and curriculum; shepherded changes through various levels of governance.

Faculty of Arts Teaching Fellow, University of Waterloo, 2012-2016. In 2012, University of Waterloo established the role of Teaching Fellows – faculty members embedded in each of the faculties and tasked with providing leadership in teaching in order to enhance student learning. I was the inaugural Faculty of Arts Teaching Fellow.

President, Planned Parenthood Waterloo Region, 2009-2012. Chaired board of directors of not-for-profit agency providing sexual health education and support to the region. Oversaw fiscal and operational management of the agency, including four employees, and both board and agency volunteers. Various media appearances and public engagements.

Associate Chair, Undergraduate, Department of Philosophy, University of Waterloo, 2008-2013. Led and authored undergraduate self-study; revamped undergraduate curricula; established undergraduate class and essay prizes and annual awards reception.

President, Society of Graduate Students, 2006-2007. Elected chief executive of a graduate student government representing ~4000 Master’s and PhD students. Oversaw overall operations, fiscal, human resources, and administrative functions of the Society, non-voting ex officio member of all committees of the Society, represented the Society on university Senate.
