1. Conversation Partner/Conversation Journal –

To gain new interviewing and communication skills, students will complete one of two options:

A) Conversation Partner The Conversation Partner Program is offered through the Renison International Office. International students are always looking for a conversation partner—someone who they can practice their English with. RIO is looking for volunteers who would be interested in having an enriching cultural exchange experience by learning about other cultures in exchange for sharing cultural norms with the international student. The volunteer is expected to meet up at least once a week with the international student, with scheduling being up to the volunteer and the international student. The volunteer is encouraged to go out and explore the city/region/area with their partner! Whether it be food, festivals, art, movies, games, etc. This should be a consistent meet up in order for both parties to benefit from it. Upon completion of the hours and handing in a log sheet, the volunteer may request a letter of participation. At the end of the day, the goal is for the volunteer to have a fun, crosscultural experience while helping another student practice their English! Please fill out an application form here: https://uwaterloo.ca/renison/conversation-partner-program After completion of the application, you will be contacted for a short interview with Louann Nhan: Advisor, International Experience at Renison. Apply as soon as possible. Deadline: January 20th. For more information, please contact Louann Nhan: louann.nhan@uwaterloo.ca or visit her in the Renison International Office, Room 0203.

Student will then submit time sheets and will write 1-2 page reflection paper on the experience, and what communication tools were used (verbal, non verbal) Reference to lectures and textbook to strengthen reflection to be utilized.

B) Conversation Journal
Communication is how we interact with others on a daily basis, whether it be formally or informally. We communicate both verbally and non verbally. This assignment requires the student to keep a journal of interactions with others, specifically focusing on conversations and use of communication tools. How we interact also depends on the context or situation in which we find ourselves. Student will be asked to keep a journal of 5 different and unique conversations that they have had in different contexts. Students must reflect on:

a) Communication with family
b) Communication in work/professional capacity
c) Communication with friends
d) Communication with strangers/public
e) Phone conversations

While reflecting on these conversations, students must pay attention to and reference:

a) Tone of voice; non verbal body language; style of questioning; language used
b) Differences in communication patterns
c) Challenges with communication and/or conversation
d) Use of self in the differing contexts

Journal must be 5-6 pages in length and must refer to what skills, if any, were recognized and used in these different interactions.

2. Mid-Term Exam - will be written during class in Week 5: Tuesday October 8 (2 hours) Essay questions will be given one week in advance.

3. Role Play Reflections – Students will complete role plays with each other in groups of 3, from Weeks 8-11. Students will complete Feedback form which will be distributed in class for two of the four practice role plays. Each reflection is worth 10% and will be due at the end of class.

4. Videotape Assignment - Each student is required to videotape a role-play counselling situation of 15 minutes (the student role plays the counsellor and finds a volunteer to role play a client). The assignment also requires students to provide a written critique of their work according to the interviewing skills studied in the course (approx. 1500 words in length). Videotape assignments are to be submitted into the DropBox via Youtube link.  Due: December 10, 2019

Counselling role play = 18 marks

Written critique = 12 marks
