Renison University College Land Acknowledgement

With gratitude, we acknowledge that Renison University College is located on the traditional territory of the Attawandaron (also known as Neutral), Anishinaabe, and Haudenosaunee peoples, which is situated on the Haldimand Tract, the land granted to the Six Nations that includes ten kilometres on each side of the Grand River. Our active work toward reconciliation takes place across our campuses through research, learning, teaching, community building and outreach, and is centralized within the work of our Truth and Reconciliation Working Group and the University of Waterloo’s Office of Indigenous Relations.

Course Description

This course explores resilience from Eurocentric, Indigenous and Eastern perspectives. Students will learn about interconnectedness of individual, familial, community, and collective resilience. Students will examine and apply these varied concepts of resilience through weekly readings and discussions, and three written assignments involving media stories, art and literature, and their personal life within the larger familial, social, cultural and political context.
Course Objectives and Learning Outcomes - (Upon completion of this course, students should be able to)

A. Understand the concept of resilience from different perspectives

B. Examine the concept of resilience within larger familial, social, cultural and political context

C. Engage in critical discourse about meaning and manifestation of resilience at individual, familial, community and collective levels

D. Apply the above knowledge by examining resilience and articulating its relevance in media stories, art and literature, and personal life/story.

Group Paper 1

Paper 1 is about resilience and media story. Students will work in a group of 4-5 members. Groups will be created randomly on LEARN.

Each group will find and analyze a media story about resilience in the face of major adversity or crisis. This media story can be about individual, family, community or collective resilience. Each group will prepare a paper in which they will include the following.

- A brief description of the story
- A rationale for the selection of this story
- Identify resilience and adversity(ies) within the story
- Identify the larger social, cultural and/or political context within which resilience is manifested
- Their own learnings/ reflections about resilience based on media story.

The group paper should be written in Times New Roman font, 12 points, double-spaced with a page limit of 2 pages. (Instructor will not mark additional pages).

Include the name of group members who contributed to this paper.

Every member in the group will receive the same grade. Those group members who do not participate and contribute to this paper will receive a grade of 0.

Due Date: October 6, 2022. Please submit your group paper in PDF or WORD Format in a dropbox on LEARN.

Paper 2

Paper 2 is about resilience and art/literature/movie. This is an individual assignment to be completed independently.

Each student will find or identify a particular work of art (e.g., photograph, painting) or a character in literature (e.g., real or fictional work of writing) or a character in a movie that manifests resilience, strength and power in the face of adversity(ies).

In the paper, students will include the following.

- A brief description of the work of art/a character in literature or movie
- Rationale for the selection this work of art or character
• Elements of resilience in the face of adversities and other relevant contextual details
• Lessons learned and reflections about resilience based on this artwork/character

The paper should be written in Times New Roman font, 12 points, double-spaced with a page limit of 2 pages. (Instructor will not mark additional pages).

Due Date: November 3, 2022. Please submit your paper in a PDF or Word Format in a dropbox on LEARN.

Paper 3

Paper 3 is about personal story of resilience. This is an individual assignment to be completed independently.

Students will identify a lived experience/demonstration of resilience, strength and power in the face of adversity(ies) and write a paper including the following.

• Describe personal concept or meaning of resilience
• Describe adversity faced in life
• Identify personal strengths and resilience in the face of adversity
• Identify protective and risk factors within the environment
• Analyze how personal resilience was impacted by these protective and risk factors
• Lessons learned and reflections about demonstration of personal resilience.

The paper should be written in Times New Roman font, 12 points, double-spaced with a page limit of 5 pages. (Instructor will not mark additional pages).

Due Date: December 1, 2022. Please submit your paper in PDF or Word Format in a dropbox on LEARN.

Assignment 4. Weekly Discussion Participation Self-Evaluation Form

Students are required to complete readings and participate in weekly discussions during Weeks 2 to 12 in classroom. At the end of the term, students will complete Weekly Discussion Participation Self-Evaluation Form (Weeks 2-12) and submit the Form in a dropbox on LEARN it by the due date of December 6, 2022.

Late or Incomplete Work

Students should make every effort to submit their assignments on time. Late work will be deducted cumulatively at 10% each day that the assignment is late, including weekends. If a student anticipates a conflict with an assignment deadline or has concerns about completing the assignment, the student should contact the instructor as soon as possible once the realization is made.

Electronic Device Policy

Students who choose to use electronic devices to support their learning may do so provided that the individuals in the class are not disturbed or prohibited from their own learning. Electronic devices should be used for the purposes of supplementing the learning experience and focus on topics being discussed in class. Phones should be kept on silent during the class.

Attendance Policy

Student should make every effort to attend each class as scheduled. If a student is aware of an upcoming absence, the student should inform the instructor, and the TA if applicable, as soon as possible after the realization.

Policy on Plagiarism

“Policy 71’s glossary defines plagiarism, in part, as “presenting, whether intentionally or not, the ideas, expression of ideas or work of others (whether attributed or anonymous) as one’s own in any work submitted whether or not for grading purposes”...
The Vice-President Academic and Dean has the authority to assess instances of plagiarism and the resultant penalties that are raised by an instructor. An instructor can propose a grade penalty to the Vice-President Academic and Dean, who will decide whether to accept the penalty or initiate a formal inquiry.”

For additional information on how plagiarism is dealt with at Renison, review the policy from where the above text is copied: Policy 71 - Student Discipline.

Students should also be aware that copyright laws in Canada prohibit reproducing more than 10% of any work without permission from its author, publisher, or other copyright holder. Waterloo’s policy on Fair Dealing is available at uwaterloo.ca/copyright-guidelines/fair-dealing-advisory. Violation of Canada’s Copyright Act is a punishable academic offence under Policy 71 – Student Discipline.

Communication Policy

Email, using the uWaterloo provided email address, is the approved method of communication for Renison. The Office 365 email that you use to login using your WatIAM login and password is secure and confidential. Take caution when forwarding your WatIAM email to an external email service as confidential information forwarded to a third-party provider could be a data security breach and violation of FIPPA (Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act) under which all students, staff, and faculty are bound by law.

Final Examination Policy

For Fall 2022, the established examination period is December 9-23. The schedule is available now. Students should be aware that student travel plans are not acceptable grounds for granting an alternative final examination time. See the Final Exam Information Schedule at uwaterloo.ca/registrar/final-examinations

Accommodation for Illness or Unforeseen Circumstances

The instructor follows the practices of the University of Waterloo in accommodating students who have documented reasons for missing quizzes or exams. See www.registrar.uwaterloo.ca/students/accom_illness.html

Academic Integrity, Grievance, Discipline, Appeals and Note for Students with Disabilities

Academic Integrity: To maintain a culture of academic integrity, members of the University of Waterloo community are expected to promote honesty, trust, fairness, respect, and responsibility. See the UWaterloo Academic Integrity webpage at uwaterloo.ca/academic-integrity and the Arts Academic Integrity webpage at uwaterloo.ca/arts/current-undergraduates/student-support/ethical-behaviour for more information.

Renison University College is committed to the view that when a problem or disagreement arises between a faculty member and a student every effort should be made to resolve the problem through mutual and respectful negotiation. Most issues are resolved by a student/faculty meeting to discuss differences of opinion. It is only after this stage, when a common understanding or agreement is not obtained that further actions listed below could be taken.

Discipline: Every student is expected to know what constitutes academic integrity, to avoid committing academic offences, and to take responsibility for their own actions. Check the Office of Academic Integrity website at [uwaterloo.ca/academic-integrity for more information.]

A student who is unsure whether an action constitutes an offence, or who needs help in learning how to avoid offences (e.g., plagiarism, cheating) or about “rules” for group work/collaboration, should seek guidance from the course professor or academic advisor. When misconduct has been found to have occurred, disciplinary penalties are imposed under the University of Waterloo Policy 71 – Student Discipline. For information on categories of offences and types of penalties, students should refer to Policy 71 - Student Discipline. For typical penalties check the Guidelines for the Assessment of Penalties.

Grievance: A student who believes that a decision affecting some aspect of their university life has been unfair or unreasonable may have grounds for initiating a grievance. Read Policy 70, Student Petitions and Grievances, Section 4. When in doubt, please be certain to contact the Department’s administrative assistant, or Academic Advisor, who will provide further assistance.

Appeals: A decision made or penalty imposed under Policy 70, Student Petitions and Grievances (other than a petition) or Policy 71, Student Discipline may be appealed if there is a ground. A student who believes they have a ground for an appeal should refer to Policy 72, Student Appeals.

Academic Integrity Office (uWaterloo): The website can be found at uwaterloo.ca/academic-integrity

Accommodation for Students with Disabilities
AccessAbility Services is located in Needles Hall, Room 1401, and collaborates with all academic departments to arrange appropriate accommodations for students with disabilities without compromising the academic integrity of the curriculum. If you require academic accommodations to lessen the impact of your disability, please register with AccessAbility Services at the beginning of each academic term.

Students are encouraged to register with AccessAbility Services (AAS) at the start of each term if they require accommodations due to a disability. However, some students not connected to AAS may require accommodations later in the term. In that case, you should immediately consult with your instructor and/or your Academic Advisor.

Intellectual Property

Students should be aware that this course contains the intellectual property of the instructor, which can include:

- lecture handouts and presentations (e.g., PowerPoint slides)
- lecture content, both spoken and written (and any audio or video recording thereof)
- questions from various types of assessments (e.g., assignments, quizzes, tests, final exams)
- work protected by copyright (i.e., any work authored by the instructor)

Making available the intellectual property of instructors without their express written consent (e.g., uploading lecture notes or assignments to an online repository) is considered theft of intellectual property and subject to disciplinary sanctions as described in Policy 71 – Student Discipline. Students who become aware of the availability of what may be their instructor’s intellectual property in online repositories are encouraged to alert the instructor.

Mental Health Support

All of us need a support system. The faculty and staff in Arts encourage students to seek out mental health supports if they are needed.

On Campus

A Respectful Living and Learning Environment for All

Everyone living, learning, and working at Renison University College is expected to contribute to creating a respectful environment free from harassment and discrimination.

Harassment is unwanted attention in the form of disrespectful comments, unwanted text messages or images, degrading jokes, rude gestures, unwanted touching, or other behaviours meant to intimidate.

According to the Ontario Human Rights Code, discrimination means unequal or different treatment causing harm, whether intentional or not, because of race, disability, citizenship, ethnic origin, colour, age, creed, marital status, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, and gender expression, or other personal characteristic.

If you feel that you are experiencing the above from any member of the Renison community (students, staff, or faculty), you may contact Melissa Knox, Renison’s external anti-harassment and anti-discrimination officer, by email (mnknox@uwaterloo.ca) or by phone or text (226-753-5669). Melissa is an employment and human rights lawyer and part-time Assistant Crown Attorney for the Ontario Ministry of the Attorney General. Melissa is experiences in case management, discipline and complaints processes, and works with organizations across Canada.
to foster safe, respectful, and inclusive work and learning environments through policy development, educational workshops, conflict mediation and dispute resolution, and organizational culture audits.

For additional information see Renison’s Harassment, Discrimination, and Abuse policy.
