

University of Waterloo
STAFF ASSOCIATION

The University of Waterloo Staff Association (UWSA) is an independent, member-run organization that makes your voice heard in key issues and policies that impact your work-life. Joining the University of Waterloo Staff Association (UWSA) gives you the opportunity to have your say in shaping a better future.

Benefits of membership

» Employment relations

Members are represented by an elected Board of Directors – including a full-time president – that works closely with University administration to maintain and improve working conditions

» Protection

UWSA protects members' rights under University policies and procedures

» Staff advocacy

A full time UWSA advocate provides informal and formal support and assistance to all UWSA members

» Opportunity

Members are able to serve on University level committees which support and represent all staff

» Grants and awards

Monetary rewards are available to UWSA members and their dependents

» Discounts and corporate memberships

UWSA members are eligible for discounts at local area businesses

» Annual events

Members socialize through annual events that provide staff members the opportunity to connect with one another outside of work
